Police Arrest Watchmaker

NEW YORK (AP)—A paraplegic watchmaker was arrested yesterday and accused of using his specially equipped automobile as a getaway car in a burglary.

Louis Rowsky, 21, of Brooklyn, crippled since stricken by polio at the age of 14, was held in $1,500 bail for grand jury action on a burglary charge.

Police said they arrested Rowsky after seizing Thomas Falanga, 30, a roofer.

Last Tuesday, they said, Falanga took $30 in cash and $130 in jewelry from the apartment of Mrs. Gladys Lubbock.

Falanga, charged with burglary, was held in $1,500 bail pending grand jury action. Police said Falanga implicated Rowsky, saying they escaped in the latter's car, equipped so he could operate it only with his hands. Rowsky recently opened a jewelry store.

Fair Chief Tells List Of Judges

Ed Mathews, manager of the Siskiyou County Fair recently announced the roster of judges who will judge the variety of exhibits to be shown at the fair which opens on August 15.

The judges include Charles Arango in the horse division; Don Peterson, beef; G. E. Gordon of the University of California, dairies; Henry Goff, sheep; and K. G. Baggett, Tulake, swine.

Jess Grisham, county agricultural commissioner, assisted by Frank Waller, will judge agriculture and horticulture; Dorothy Luce of Fort Jones, Siskiyou Junior College adult instructor, will judge senior clothing; Mrs. Edythe Foster, juniper clothing; Mrs. William Blackman and Mrs. Noah Nyhart will judge the floral division; Mrs. Alice Gwinn, Shasta County home economics, all foodstuffs.
