

As the Pacific Northwest Babe Ruth tournament, for which (very fortunately) Klamath Falls was chosen as the site, draws near, a very urgent request for aid has been sent out by Tournament Director Jack Kemnitzer.

Private homes and private citizens are needed badly to house and feed the visiting Babe Ruthers during their stay in our city. . . . At the most, the boys will be here only five days. . . . some of them, the losers, will leave before that. The boys range in age from 13-15. . . . and everyone knows that they won't eat very much. . . . and they'll promise to be quiet, well, almost, anyway. Those willing to take in a boy or two should contact the Babe Ruth headquarters in the Winema Hotel or the Park and Recreation Department at TU-2-3863.

In past years . . . and even this year, just last weekend in Portland, Klamath Falls players have been taken into private homes during tournaments and the like. Now we get a chance to repay these kindnesses. . . . Try to make room for at least two boys.

It's a lot better for the youngsters. . . . meals cooked like Mom's and good beds. . . . even someone there to make sure that they get enough rest. A good number of Klamath Falls people have already signed up, but there are still homes needed. Think it over for a minute or two and call Jack Kemnitzer or Barbara Gallagher.

Speaking of Portland and last weekend. . . . The County All-Stars (Klamath Falls County—as the announcer insisted on naming them) stood the Portland Babe Ruth fans on their ears. After the team had whipped Astoria in the first game of the state tournament Sunday, . . . in 102 degree heat. . . . the good Portlanders started asking just where the towns of Merrill, Malin, Chiloquin and Lakeview were located. Then came the spectacular "come-from-behind" victory over the highly-touted Mid-Portland nine in the semi-finals on Monday and the fans were all talking about "Klamath Falls County" . . . and those "country kids" who beat the Multnomah Athletic Club team (Mid-Portland).

Come Tuesday night . . . and five innings had gone by in the championship game with our county team out front and the Portland people in the stands just about

49er Camp Too Tough For Rookies

MORAGA, (UPI)—Competition in the training camp of the San Francisco Forty Niners is so rugged that the rookies are giving up and going home without a thorough trial.

"Never saw anything like it," said coach Frankie Albert as he wiped the sweat from his brow in the 90-degree Moraga Valley heat. "We have a few quit after a week or so every year, but in the first four days of practice this year, 10 boys packed up their bags and went home."

"We had only 26 rookies here to start with, so you can see that is a big percentage."

"And I must tell you that we aren't exactly Simon Legrees over here. We don't over-work them, we have fine sleeping facilities and wonderful food."

So why do the boys go home? "Some of them get homesick; others fear they won't make the grade and quit before we let them go. Still others see the veterans in action and after getting bowled over once or twice, they come to the conclusion they've had it."

Among the men who have quit is George Troutman, the 280-pound center-tackle from Capitol University.

"I thought he had a good chance," said Albert. "He was our ninth draft choice and he moved around well. But if you haven't got it in your heart to play pro ball, you're smart to quit early."

KF Kubs Slate Home Play Tonight, Sunday

Manager Irv Whitt's Klamath Falls Kubs are at home Friday night at Gem Stadium to Camp White in a non-counting semi-pro baseball clash and Sunday afternoon to the Weed Sons in a battle for first place in the Northern California League standings.

Tonight, topnotch Camp White plays here in an exhibition battle with the Kubs starting at 8 o'clock. The two clubs have met twice this season with each team holding a win. This evening's game will be the "rubber" match of the series.

In the first game between the Kubs and Camp White, the Medford club won an 8-4 decision at Gem Stadium. Then in the return game at Camp White, the Kubs' Fred Friedel hurled a five-hitter and won 4-0.

Whitt was undecided as to who will throw tonight's game. The choice will come from one of three Klamath hurlers—Gerry Burcher, Dave D'Oliveo or Wayne Hironaka.

Sunday's starting pitcher will probably be either D'Oliveo or Burcher. Both are right-handers and will carry the Kubs' hopes of getting back into the Northern California League lead.

Heavy King Eagerly Eyeing Title Fight

By FLOYD PATTERSON
Heavyweight Boxing Champion LOS ANGELES (UPI)—I don't think I've ever been as eager for a fight as I am for the one coming up with Roy Harris.

When I defended my title against Harris on Aug. 18 at Wrigley Field, it will be just four days short of a year since my last fight with Pete Rademacher.

I've been in training most of the time since then, and it is going to feel just fine to be throwing punches for real against an opponent who should be the toughest I've met so far.

Pole Experts Favoring US In Big Meet

WARSAW (UPI)—The two-day United States vs Poland track and field meet starts today before a capacity crowd of 90,000 at "Tenth Anniversary" Stadium, with the Poles hoping to hold the U. S. victory margin to 20 points.

ANCEL Robinson of Fresno, Calif., was heavily favored to win the first event on the program, the men's 110-meter high hurdles, and that was expected to touch off a U. S. victory parade.

Swartz Warns Trouble Near

STILLWATER, Okla., (AP)—Navy wrestling coach Ray Swartz says if the United States doesn't do something about physical fitness at the high school level, "we're headed for serious trouble."

Swartz was interviewed here yesterday after conducting a wrestling clinic at Oklahoma State University at Stillwater, where he once was a star athlete.

Market Basket, Grants Pass Vie

The Klamath Falls Men's Softball Association sends the Market Basket team to Grants Pass Saturday for the opening game in a best two out of three series for the Inter-District playoff.

On Sunday both teams will return to Klamath Falls to continue the fight in a double-header on Conger Field. Two straight wins by either club will, of course, cancel the third game.

Basinettes Face Bend At Stadium

The Klamath Basinettes, the hard-playing ladies' softball team, will host Bend in a single game at Gem Stadium Saturday night and then trek to Madras Sunday for the second test of the week-end.

The Basinettes held a 13-7 victory over the Bend aggregation from their first meeting but have yet to face the Madras club.

Phils 4, SL 3

Jim Hearn, making his first start since July 20, 1957, held the Cardinals to five hits until the eighth when he needed help from Dick Farrell to hang up his second triumph of the year. Harry Anderson walloped his 15th homer of the year in the first inning off Larry Jackson, to give the Phils a lead they never relinquished.

Milwaukee Regains Lead Yankees Mangle KC Hurlers

All-Out Tilt Faces Leaders

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The most important series of the National League season, beginning tonight, finds the first-place Milwaukee Braves up and ready and the second-place San Francisco Giants down and totally unprepared.

Events during the past two nights altered the pennant picture completely. Wednesday the Giants were sitting on top, a full game in front of the Braves after one of their typical Frank Merriwell finishes while the Braves were being slapped down by their nemesis the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Today, it is the Braves who are a full game in front, after winning two in a row against Los Angeles while the Giants were blowing two big ones to Cincinnati.

Last night's Giant loss to the Redlegs was a crusher. They led 6-0 after four innings and 9-4 after 7 1/2. Cincinnati, however, rallied for five runs in the eighth and won 10-9 on pinch hitter Pete Whisenant's single with the bases loaded and one out in the ninth.

Philadelphia won its third straight from St. Louis 4-1, and moved past the Cardinals into sixth place. The Chicago Cubs defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-4 in a game halted after eight innings by rain.

Legs 10, Giants 9

The Giants, paced by Leon Wagner's two home runs and one by Willie Kirkland, appeared to have the game safely stashed away as the Reds came to bat in the eighth trailing 9-4. But pinch hitter Walt Dropp's two-run homer and run-scoring singles by Jerry Lynch, Ed Bailey and Don Hoak tied the score. In the ninth, singles by Johnny Temple and Dee Fondy and a walk to Frank Robinson preceded Whisenant's game-winning hit.

Braves 4, Bums 1

The Braves rallied for three runs in the eighth against Stan Williams to snap a 1-1 tie with the Los Angeles Joe Adcock, Wes Covington and Johnny Logan drove in the runs. Henry Aaron gave Milwaukee's first run, homering off starter Johnny Podres in the fourth.

Cubs 5, Bucs 4

Ernie Banks hit his 29th home run for Chicago, but it took a Pittsburgh error and a wild pitch following Bobby Thomson's eighth inning single, to bring home the winning run. The four-homer gave Banks the National League lead and tied him with Boston's Jackie Jensen for the major league leadership.

Phils 4, SL 3

Jim Hearn, making his first start since July 20, 1957, held the Cardinals to five hits until the eighth when he needed help from Dick Farrell to hang up his second triumph of the year. Detroit Defeats Boston

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Frank Lary, Detroit's daring right-hander, does it the hard way. He wins only from the top teams and loses only to the bottom clubs. It's not quite like that, but almost.

Look at the record. Lary has won 10 games and lost the same number. Five victories have come against the American League-leading New York Yankees, who have beaten him only once. Three triumphs have come at the expense of the second-place Boston Red Sox, who have not beaten him at all.

That leaves Lary with a record of 2-9 against the five other a-lors, none of which can boast a 500 won-lost record.

Tigers 3, Sox 2

Lary permitted the Red Sox only four hits yesterday to win a 3-2 hurling duel from rookie Bill Monbouquette. A disputed eighth inning double by Frank Bolling, which drove in Billy Martin with the winning run, gave him his 10th victory.

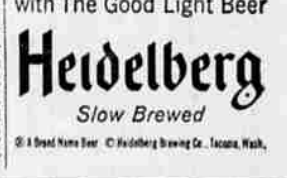

The Yankees averaged two straight losses to Kansas City, flattening the A's 8-3 behind the pitching of winner Duke Mass and Johnny Kucks. Rain forced the postponement of scheduled games between Baltimore and Cleveland as well as Washington and Chicago.

Yanks 8, A's 3

The Yankees manhandled five Kansas City hurlers for 13 hits, with everybody but the pitchers participating in the attack. Gil McDougald had a pair of doubles and Elston Howard and Norm Siebern had one each. Siebern drove in three runs and Howard two.

Roger Maris drove in all Kansas City's runs with a three-run homer in the sixth. Kucks replaced Mass at this point and held the losers scoreless the rest of the way. Jack Urban, now 7-7, was the loser.
