Mid-Afternoon Ceremony In Ashland

In a 3 p.m. ceremony on July 6 at Mountain View Chapel, Ashland, "Lyn," given in marriage by Errollyn Helen Aftling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Aftling, Ashland, became the bride of Lester Ralph Lowman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Lowman, 313 Lowell Street, this city. The Rev. E. Paul Riedel of Ashland Grace Lutheran Church officiated. Tall basket bouquets of lavender and white gladioli decorated the and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and lavender orchids centered with a single large white orchid.

Maid of honor, Kathy Ingle; bridesmaids, Janis Baer, Marianna Fletcher; and junior bridesmaids, Janet Miller and Sandra Wallis, all wore taffeta dresses with carnation headbands and carried colonial bouquets of carnations. The maid of honor wore pale lavender with pale green flowers, and the others wore pale green frocks with pale lavender flowers.

Candlelighters, Mimi Barron and Donna Colahan, niece of the bridegroom, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Colahan, Klamath Falls, wore pale green dresses with white floral headbands. Flower girls, Ellyn Miller and Penny Fletcher, wore pale green linen dresses and carried white baskets of white daisies.

Paul Aftling, brother of the bride, was ringbearer. Bill Workman served as best man, and guests were seated by Larry Paschke and Robert Miller Jr., William Aftling Jr., brother of the bride, and Marvin Lowman, brother of the bridegroom, were junior ushers.

The reception was at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Patterson on Siskiyou Boulevard, Ashland. For the occasion the rooms were decorated with lavender and white gladioli. Garlands of white gardenias and green foliage encircled the punch bowls; and the bride's table, covered with an imported white lace cloth, was centered with the four-tiered cake wreathed at the base with lavender orchids and maiden hair fern and topped with three miniature white wedding bells and lilies of the valley.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Ben Dawson Jr., Mrs. Don Thomas, Mrs. K. E. Upchurch, Mrs. H. E. Miller, Mrs. Charlotte Hull, Mrs. A. V. Colahan, Mrs. R. E. Miller and Mrs. Eunice Neill.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Aftling was gowned in navy blue silk chiffon with white accessories and she wore a corsage of white rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a pale blue linen sheath with white accessories and her corsage was also of white rosebuds.

The bridegroom was graduated

Great Falls, Montana Sacramento Church Scene Of July 21 Wedding

MERRILL — The marriage of Marlene Grasseschi of Black Eagle, Montana and a Merrill man, Lt. John Douglas Hendrickson, was solemnized on June 21 in the Blessed Sacramento Church of the bride's home city. The nuptial mass was read by Father Martin Whalen.

The lovely, dark haired bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Grasseschi of Black Eagle. Her husband is the son of longtime residents of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hendrickson. He presently is stationed at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, with the Army Signal Corps as communications officer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in delicate Chantilly lace and tulle, made tip to toe length with very full skirt. Scallops of the lace enhanced the low neckline. The long sleeves of lace were pointed at the wrists. A tiny pearl-trimmed pill-box hat held her double, brief veil of illusion. She carried a crescent-shaped arrangement of pink dutch-ess roses and ivy.

Karen Grasseschi was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Earl Lenci and Mary Jo Hendrickson, sister of the bridegroom of Merrill. They wore identical frocks of lace in ballerina length, the maid of honor in pink, the bridesmaids in mint green. They carried deep pink Aristocrat rose buds and ivy.

Thomas Grasseschi, brother of the bride was best man. Ushers were Earl Lenci and Ed Nicholson. Vicki Tabacco was flower girl. The small ring bearer was Mark Grasseschi. Organist and vocalist was Jerry Polich.

A wedding breakfast in the 3-D Club followed the ceremony. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Grasseschi wore beige lace in formal length with chalk-tone accessories. Mrs. Hendrickson wore pink with white accessories.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Hendrickson, wore a melon print sheath dress with melon linen jacket. Following a trip to the West Coast and a visit to the home of the bridegroom's parents, the couple will live at Fort Monmouth where Jack is stationed.

Shower Honors Helen Kelleher

Included in the parties for Helen Kelleher — bride-elect of Dick Pieser, was an evening shower given by Mrs. Helen D. Goeckner and Mrs. George Rogers at the Rogers residence, 4633 Cannon Street.

The refreshment table was centered with a heart-shaped arch with two wedding bells suspended in the center. Roses in shades varying from pink to deep red were banded at the base and white and pink tapers flanked the colorful arrangement. The same floral combination was used in the bouquets used to decorate the room.

The guest list included Mrs. Jack Kelleher, Mrs. Violet Pieser, Mrs. F. O. Reynolds, Mrs. K. M. Peterson, Mrs. Merit Smith, Mrs. R. A. LaLonde, Mrs. Guy Bellant, Louise Vaughn, Mrs. Otto L. Smith, Mrs. John A. Kennedy, Mrs. M. P. Lavenik, Mrs. Charles Fiala, Mrs. R. W. Malcomb, Mrs. Lester Olfield, Mrs. Frank O. Weaver, Betty Bromada, Mrs. Duane Stewart, Mrs. Charles F. Delap, Mrs. Charles W. Mack, Mrs. W. G. Ely, Mrs. Leon J. Richardson, Francis Manning, Mrs. John H. Gallagher, Mary Ann Kelleher, Kathleen Vaughn, Mary Lou Englecke and Thirza Goeckner.

George Eliot chose her male pseudonym to write her "Romola" and other great novels so that her feminine sex would not affect her literary reputation. Her name was really Mary Ann Evans.
