

BRIDAL SHOWER in honor of Virginia (Ginger) Martz, who was married to Allen Vawter at St. Paul's Episcopal Church last evening at an 8 o'clock ceremony, was given by Mrs. Con Borsting and Mrs. John Robinson at Mrs. Borsting's home in the Weyerhaeuser Townsite recently. About 35 guests attended the affair in honor of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. Martz of the Weyerhaeuser Road. Allen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vawter of Sunnyside, Washington.

THE TEA TABLE at Ginger Martz' shower was attractively decorated with cakes made in the form of a bride and her wedding party bridesmaids. The cakes, made and decorated by a friend, Mrs. George Kovich, were built around dolls dressed as a bride and her attendants. A background of pink candles and blush pink roses formed the setting for the clever conversation piece. Seated at the table is Mrs. Orland Lynch, and from the left are Mrs. Borsting, Ginger and Mrs. Robinson.

Malin Girl Honored With Bridal Shower

MALIN — Honored at a bridal shower on July 19 was Betty Bunnell who became the bride of Rodney Ottoman July 26 in the Malin Presbyterian Church.

Assisting Betty in opening the many lovely gifts she received were her mother, Mrs. J. A. Bunnell, and sister, Shirley. The guests enjoyed an entertaining skit written by Mrs. Hab Wilson along the theme of the TV show "To Tell the Truth."

The refreshment table was most attractively decorated with a floor length pale pink table cloth festooned with bunches of flowers. The top of the table was outlined with deep pink carnations and sweet peas and dolls dressed like a bride and her attendants completed the charming effect. Mrs. Karl Kujac did the refreshment table and also a lovely floral arrangement on the gift table.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Loyal Saunders, Mrs. Lewis Kandra, Mrs. Louise Lyon, Mrs. Ron McVay, Mrs. Carlo Cornett, Mrs. Joe Micka, Mrs. Dorothy Unruh, Mrs. Jerry Micka, Mrs. Hab Wilson, Mrs. Joan Haskins, and Mrs. Dick Derry.

Layette Shower

MONTAGUE—White gladioli and sweet peas decorated the Age r ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meek, when Mrs. Meek was hostess for a layette shower given in honor of Mrs. Geraldine Fehman by the Willow Creek Club.

The evening was spent in playing whist, followed with presentation of gifts to the honoree.

Linda Hughes emerged as first prize winner of the evening play; second prize went to Helen Richardson, consolation prize to Donna Mays; and a special prize was won by Irene Davis.

Present in addition to those mentioned were Hilda Cooley, Etta Ensel, Diane Fehman, Lynn Fehman, Marilyn Fitzgerald, Edythe Foster, Faustine Hughes, Edith and Donna Mays, June Severans, Mary Smud, Barbara Walters and Billie Walters.

Lakeview Visitors

EASTSIDE — Visitors at the Eastside District home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Combs and the Lakeview home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Riley are Lt. Col. and Mrs. Paul Riley and three children, Dennis, Jimmy and Patty. Col. Riley is a brother of Mrs. Combs and Oliver Riley. The colonel is retiring from the Army after serving 22 years and six months with active duty in both World War II and the Korean War. His last assignment was at Fort Lewis, Washington. He enlisted in January, 1936, in Lakeview and received his commission as a second lieutenant in 1942.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Riley and their family will make their home in Yakima, Washington.

Army Officer, German Bride At Reception

ALTURAS—The Orville D. Austin ranch home was the setting for a late afternoon reception on Friday, July 25, for the Austin's eldest son Lt. Kenneth Blaine Austin and his pretty German bride who spent two weeks with his parents while on leave from the Army. Mr. and Mrs. James Lybarger were co-hosts in receiving and serving approximately 50 guests.

Kenneth is a graduate of Modoc Union High School, Alturas, and of the University of Nevada in engineering. He met his bride, Helga, while on duty with the Army in Germany. They had no language problem since Helga speaks fluent English. They were married May 10, 1953. She is a refugee from East Germany. Her father was at one time a prisoner of war of the United States when he was a German army officer.

The Austins received many lovely and useful gifts from friends and relatives while in Alturas. They left Sunday for Fort Bragg, North Carolina, where Lieutenant Austin is assigned to an engineer's unit.
