The 1958 issue of Street and Smith's Football Yearbook is now on the newsstands giving football fans an early look at what will come this fall. And as usual, 5 & S present a very fine and informative book that covers the nation as a whole, the different sections, leagues and conferences as well as the American and Canadian professional football pictures.

Editors of the nationally known football "bible" pick Ohio State to rule as the country's No. 1 grid power. The Buckeyes, who won the Big 10 title and Rose Bowl game last year, are given the nod over the mighty Sooners of Oklahoma.

Following the Buckeyes and Sooners, Street and Smith picks in order the rest of the top 10: Notre Dame, Auburn, Army, North Carolina, Southern Methodist, Mississippi, Oregon State and Arizona State of Tempe.

Remarks on S & S choices: Notre Dame may be heading back into the sports spotlight it held a few years back under youthful and popular Terry Brennan; Oregon State, is given the nod to represent the coast powers in this corner too — which is good news to Beaver fans; this could be Army's year to take care of the Middies in the annual Army-Navy game; this could also be the year that second-guessers have to take a back seat to Jim Tatum who left mighty Maryland to take over at North Carolina where football was taking a nosedive — but now the Tar Heels, under Tatum, have broken into the national limelight.

The football yearbook also mentions Oregon State's Ted Bates and the All-America Timber as a 217-pounder who should be one of the finest tackles on the coast. Slover, who set a Rose Bowl passing record last New Year's Day, like Bates will be tops on the coast and one of the finest in the nation.

Glancing through S & S's 1958 edition we found mention of two names familiar to local football followers. Ex-KUHS lineman Jack Hmelwright is expected to draw down a starting tackle spot for the second year in a row for Colorado as the Buffaloes seek to unseat Oklahoma in the Big Eight race. Under information on William and Mary football prospects is the name of quarterback Bob Stoy, who as a freshman starred for the Oregon Tech Owls in the Oregon Collegiate Conference. Stoy transferred from here two years ago to W & M, and last year was a regular. Bob, who can throw the long pass as well as run well, should be the "big man" in the William and Mary attack this season.

In the section on Pacific Coast football, one learns that Oregon Tech's final opponent of the season — Whittier — ranks third in the Southern California small college ratings. OTI coach Rex Hunsaker will be having to find a "big" solution to handle a "big" problem when the Owls meet Whittier. Anchoring the California school's line will be a 300-pound tackle, Charles McMurtry.

Donn Taucher, Klamath Kub outfielder, swept in a few more honors last Sunday at Dunsuir during the annual Northern California League all-star game.

Taucher, who had three hits, drove in three runs and in general sparked the South to a 9-7 win over the North, was awarded the game's most valuable player award. Taucher edged teammates Floyd Linderman and Dorm Martin for the MVP title.

Taucher was second in the special base running contest. Winner was Jim Cunningham of Weed. Cunningham's time was 15.6, Taucher timed in at 15.8. Donn had been timed in 13.8 a day or two earlier in a warmup test for the event.

The Kub centerfielder, who transferred last spring term from Shasta Junior College to the University of Oregon, should see lots of football action this coming fall for the Webfoots. Donn has been moved to halfback from his usual quarterback slot which is ideal under coach Len Casanova's feared optional - pass - run play.

Heavy King Not Worried

OCEANSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson says the only thing he knows about that mysterious man from Cut and Shoot, Tex., is that: "I can beat him."

The quiet-voiced champion sat on a rubber table sipping hot tea from a paper cup. He had just finished a workout and was sweating under a terry cloth robe.

"No, I've never seen Roy Harris fight," said Patterson, who meets the husky Texan, Aug. 18 in Los Angeles.

"I'm not thinking of fighting him any special way. I'm just thinking of winning."

It will be Patterson's third defense of the title since he took the vacant crown by belting out Archie Moore in 1956. However, it's probably his first real test since becoming champion. Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson was little more than a jumping jack punching bag. And Pete Rademacher couldn't jump.

Patterson hasn't looked impressive in training. His manager, Gus D'Amato, admits that Patterson is a bit slow in rounding into top shape.

The fight was originally set for Aug. 4 and then set back to the 18th. D'Amato said, "This throw Floyd off in his training. He'll be ready on fight night."

Milwaukee Blasts Giants; Berra Powers NY To Win

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Carl Willey's sparkling four-hitter and a bristling attack featuring home runs by Mel Roach, Hank Aaron and Wes Covington hurled Milwaukee to a 10-9 rout of the San Francisco Giants Saturday and bled the Braves' National League lead to three games.

It was the 27-year-old Willey's second shutout over the Giants, who now have dropped two straight to the Braves in their critical National League series, and his fifth triumph of the campaign.

Yanks 6, Chi 1

CHICAGO (AP)—Yogi Berra, in the unfamiliar role of an outfielder, provided all the necessary offensive power Saturday in leading the New York Yankees to a 6-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Berra, one of the game's great catchers in the past decade, was put into right field and he responded with a homer, a single and a double to drive in all the Yankee runs.

The victory, fashioned behind the eight-hit pitching of righthander Art Ditmar, upped New York's American League lead to an astounding 17 games.

Bucs 1, Cards 0

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Strong-armed Vernon Law set down the sagging St. Louis Cardinals on three singles Saturday in a magnificently pitched 1-0 triumph for the third-place Pittsburgh Pirates.

The 28-year-old righthander toyed with the Cards in racking up his ninth victory of the season against nine losses.

Law allowed Ken Boyer, Del Ennis and Don Blasingame to reach first on singles, and Ennis to get there via a walk, but only Blasingame got as far as second — in the ninth inning on a first-base putout.

Indians 4, Sox 1

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians won their seventh in a row Saturday, beating Boston 4-1 and jumping ahead of the slumping Red Sox into second place. Jim (Mudcat) Grant limited the Red Sox to four hits, none after the fourth inning.

Minnie Minoza cracked a two-run homer to set the pace for the Tribe.

The loss was Boston's fifth in

Poland, US Split Victory

WARSAW (AP)—American track and field forces split a dual meet with Poland's national team Saturday. The U.S. men won 115-107. Victory in the last event, the javelin, enabled Poland to win the women's competition, 54-52.

Glenn Davis, of Columbus, Ohio, thrilled another standing room crowd of 105,000 with his second brilliant double in seven days.

Davis, Ohio State star who probably rates as the world's most versatile runner, triggered the men's victory by winning the 400-meter hurdles, first event of the second day program, in 49.8 seconds. He won the 400 meter run Friday.

American lassies, leading 26-25 entering the final program and still ahead 48-46 with the javelin event to go, lost in a heart-breaking finish as Polish girls finished first and third to pick up seven points to four for the U.S.

The men's victory was achieved despite the upset of Olympic champion and world record holder Tom Courtney in the 800-meter run by Poland's Zbigniew Makoski and a world record-smashing performance by Jerry Chromik of Poland in the steeplechase.

Courtney, vowing to try to better the record of 1:46.5 by Belgium's Roger Moens, opened at too fast a pace and had no kick for the last 200 yards. Makoski moved up from third to win by inches in 1:46.7.

After the meet had been lost, Chromik ran the 3,000 meters steeplechase in 8 minutes, 32 seconds — well under the world record of 8:35.6 held by Sandoz Rozsnyoi of Hungary and Russia's Semyo Rzhishchin.

The American men were held to a 63-54 margin in Friday's opening events, with the failure of Olympic hammer throw champion Harold Connolly of Boston to finish better than fourth in his specialty the big surprise. To gain even that lead, the heavily-favored Yanks had to rally from a 45-43 deficit.

There will be no Goliaths on Brandeis University's 1958 football team but Coach Benny Friedman has three Davids as quarterbacks. They are Bouchard, Walker and Bornstein, all 160-pounders.

DETROIT (AP)—Jim Bunning blew a 5-0 lead but the Detroit Tigers came from behind on Frank Bolling's three-run homer in the seventh inning Saturday and sent the Baltimore Orioles down to their fifth successive defeat 8-7.

Al Cicotte, although he needed help in the ninth, won his first game of the season despite yielding the run that put the Orioles ahead in the fifth inning.

Cubs 6, Phils 5

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Walt Moryn of Chicago slammed a three-run homer in the third and the Cubs hung on to lead for six more innings Saturday to defeat the Philadelphia Phillies 6-5.

Moryn came in as a pinchhitter after the Phils had exploded with five runs in their half of the second. The Cubs had notched three runs in the inning. It was Moryn's 18th homer of the season.

Both teams used four pitchers, with Bill Henry getting the win, his fourth against one loss.

Bums 3, Reds 2

CINCINNATI (AP)—Rookie Stan Williams and crafty reliever Clem Labine linked their talents for a six-hitter Saturday that gave Los Angeles' Dodgers a 3-2 victory over Cincinnati's Redlegs.

Labine had to bail the Dodgers out of trouble in the eighth inning when righthander Williams faltered.

Shanty II Out Of Gold Cup

BOULDER CITY, Nev. (AP)—The racing hydroplane Shanty II flipped during a test run on Lake Mead Saturday, causing extensive damage to the 6,000-pound craft.

Howard Gidovlenko, engine man for owner William T. Waggoner, was at the controls. He received a broken rib and minor cuts and bruises.

The accident forced withdrawal of the boat from next week's Gold Cup classic in Seattle. A spokesman said the Shanty would go to El Monte, Calif., for repairs expected to take 60 to 90 days.

The hydroplane made one pass at high speed successfully. Then, as Gidovlenko came back again at reduced speed and put the craft into a tight turn, it flipped.

Air Force Col. Russ Schlee, the Shanty's regular driver, headed a rescue party. The aluminum-hulled boat was towed to the beach upside down, then righted.

Schlee said the primary structure was undamaged but that the vertical tail was badly bent and the cowling, windshield and instrument panel were knocked loose and lost.

TO PLAY FIFTH SEASON
BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—Buzz Nutter, a center, has signed his fifth contract with the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League. The Colts, who open training Saturday, said guard Joe Compagnella had resigned for business reason.

Manager Charlie Kress of the Durham Bulls in the Carolina League, broke into organized baseball with Lenoir in the old Tar Heel League in 1941.

Witte, who played a year of pro football in the Canadian Leagues in 1957, was a high draft choice of the Rams in 1955 while still attending Oregon State College. He decided to take a more attractive offer to play football for Saskatchewan's Roughriders last fall, but since that time has decided to stay in the states this season.

Los Angeles can use the 250-pound two-year all-American who has been making the rounds during his off grid season in the pro wrestling circles. The wrestling prospects were good for Witte and kept him in top physical shape.

Witte is a 1951 graduate of Klamath Union High School where he played three years of Pelican football. He was picked the top defensive lineman in the 1951 Shrine all-star football game. As a freshman at Oregon State, John played regular tackle and earned four varsity letters at OSC during his stay there.

Witte joins a former "foe" in the Rams camp. Ex-Medford high and University of Oregon fullback Jack Morris is bidding for a spot in the Rams' backfield this year. Both Morris and Witte are given good chances of sticking with the National Football League club.

Klamath Kubs Whip Camp White, Host Weed Today

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA LEAGUE

Sunday's Schedule
Weed at Klamath Falls
Scott Valley at Dunsmuir
Yreka at Mount Shasta

With a lopsided win over Camp White already behind them, the Klamath Falls Kubs set themselves for the "big game" as they host the league-leading Weed Sons in a crucial Northern California League baseball game at Gem Stadium this afternoon.

Game time is 2 o'clock Pacific Standard Time.

The Klamath-Weed tangle is one of three scheduled Northern Cal baseball outings on tap today.

Another big battle is set for Mount Shasta where the hometown Seals meet Yreka. The other league action is at Dunsmuir where the Merchants host Scott Valley in a battle for the league's cellar position.

The NCL standings are bunched tight as sardines at the top with lots of breathing room at the bottom. Any combination of wins and losses in today's three games could jumble the six-team race in any number of ways.

Klamath faces a "must" game when they host the arch-rival Weed Sons at Gem. A Klamath win would move the Kubs into a first-place tie with Weed. A loss would all but wipe out any chances the Kubs had of claiming the Northern California League pennant this year.

There are three more weekends of NCL baseball and its an important home stretch that faces manager Irv Whitt's club. After today's game with Weed, Klamath must meet Mount Shasta and Yreka. A make-up game is also scheduled with Scott Valley, but no definite date or site has been selected yet.

Whitt will probably send righthander Gerry Burcher — to the mound today against Weed in an attempt to silence the heavy-hitting Sons. Weed will probably have its ace battery combination of Gene Hilliard and Eli Brown pitching and catching on hand to start the game. Whitt will also have big Dave D'Olivo on hand for relief work or possible starting duty if he needs him.

Friday night at Gem, Whitt's chargers peppered two Camp White pitchers for 16 base hits and 13 runs as the Kubs swamped the visitors from Medford 13-1 in an exhibition game.

Little Wayne Hironaka pitched five-hit ball and was helped out by some fine defensive play in the clutch by his teammates. Hironaka gave Camp White a single run in the third inning, then faced only 27 hitters in the last six and two-thirds innings.

Camp White held their 1-0 lead until the Kubs came to bat in the last of the third. Then catcher Bob Kelly started things off by reaching first on an error when a third strike eluded the Camp White catcher. Hironaka gained a walk and Ron Conner pushed a bunt past the pitchers mound for an infield single leading the bases. Donn Taucher blasted one of Jim Eggers' offerings for a sharp single scoring both Kelly and Hironaka. Dorm Martin rapped out another single that chased Conner and Taucher across the plate. Martin scored from second with one out on Fran Miller's infield out to cap the five-run uprising.

A seven-run fourth-inning all but ended the Camp White visit to Gem Stadium.

Kelly again started the Klamath rally in the fourth with a single. He went to second on an error and Hironaka was safe on a fielder's choice. Conner then unloaded the bases with a long towering home run to the corner in deep right centerfield scoring Kelly and Hironaka ahead of him. Martin kept the rally alive with a single and Fran Miller drove a single to left scoring the speedy Martin. George Hanson singled and Jerry Burke rapped another home run to straightaway centerfield for three more runs. Kelly came to bat for the second time in the inning and got his second hit — another single, but Eggers got Hironaka on strikes.

The final Klamath run came in the eighth after Willie Dunster singled and scored on Kelly's third hit of the night.

Kelly, Conner and Martin all had three hits for the winners. Hanson had a brace of singles to his credit.
