

FIGURINE TROPHIES representing individual breeds of dogs will be awarded by Klamath Dog Fanciers, Inc., sponsor of the annual all breed dog show, American Kennel Club licensed, to be held at Klamath County Fairgrounds on Saturday, August 30. Shown at left is the single pen desk set for best of breed for Boxers. Bob Beach is offering a similar trophy for best of opposite sex for Boxers. At right is the trophy for best dog in show. The trophies have been ordered through Beach's Jewelers, Klamath Falls. Entries for the show closed on August 18, according to Kathy McDonald, president of the local dog club.

Scholarship Awards Given Two Klamath Falls Artists

Two scholarships given for a two weeks course in art at the Summer Art Workshop, presented by Mrs. Beulah Ray of Klamath Falls, have been won by two young Klamath Falls artists, Stephanie Bonotto and Patrick Carney. This is the second year that Mrs. Ray has provided scholarships in the field of art.

Train Crushes Texas Girls

LITTLEFIELD, Tex. (AP)—Another freight train blocked the crossing and the three girls started to crawl under it, as they often did. Josephine Rodriguez, 15, told officers yesterday. Suddenly, she said, the air brakes hissed and the train lurched into motion. Dora Rodriguez, 13, Josephine's sister, was crushed to death. A wheel sliced off the left leg of Carolina Martinez, 11, below the knee. Josephine scrambled to safety. Carolina was reported in satisfactory condition after surgery.

Ninth Annual All Breed Dog Show Opens Here August 30

More than 400 dogs, representing at least 37 breeds, are expected to be entered in the ninth annual all breed dog show to be held at Klamath County Fairgrounds on August 30 under the sponsorship of Klamath Dog Fanciers, Inc. As in the past, it will be an American Kennel Club licensed show.

Gal Jailed For 'Chase'

LONDON (AP)—David Shadow, who is 30 and married, went to court yesterday to protect himself from the amorous attentions of 31-year-old spinster Joan Croft. He told a court at Hull: She followed him from town to town on her motor scooter and tailed him in bars and hotels. She drove round and round his home until after midnight. She turned up at his office. She hit him on the head with her crash helmet.

Salesman Shadow accused the tall, slim Miss Croft of assault and causing a breach of the peace. "She is making a proper pest of herself with no encouragement from me," he complained. "My marriage is in danger and my wife is ill."

Shadow said he was introduced to Miss Croft when he was in nearby Durham. He twice gave her a lift back to Hull in his auto. But both times there was another man in the car. Policewoman Dulcie Davis told the court Shadow was not the first man on whom the spinster had lavished her attentions. "There was a similar occurrence in 1953 resulting in a high respected vicar having to leave his parish," Miss Davis said. "She is mentally and sexually frustrated and has caused a great deal of unhappiness in two families."

The woman was found guilty on both charges and jailed for two weeks for a medical examination.

SIGNUPS HELD
McCLOUD — Signup of McCloud High School freshmen was held August 4. Sophomores enrolled August 5; juniors August 6 and seniors August 7. C. R. Green, principal, said parents of students were invited to discuss problems with the faculty. Thomas S. Russell, graduate of Hamline University at St. Paul, Minnesota, will fill the vacancy of English class instructor, created by the resignation of Robert Patterson. Russell will assist coaches Robert Tomlinson and Don Kersten. School starts September 2.

SHE DREAMED SHE DANCED ALL NIGHT WITH ROCK HUDSON ON A FUTURESQ FLOOR . . .

We know a lovely young secretary named Marie. Not only is Marie somewhat of a beauty herself, she has a discerning eye for things beautiful.

Take music, for example. Marie thinks it's beautiful—she often hears it all night long, even in her dreams. Take Rock Hudson for another example — Marie would! She keeps a four-colored picture of him on the wall and, according to Marie, it's beautiful!

Recently Marie came into the store and among all the beautiful things we have in stock, she singled out Armstrong Vinyl Corlon in the exciting "new-as-tomorrow" Futuresq Series.

"Now, that's really beautiful!" said Marie. You'll say so, too —and goodness knows what will happen to Rock 'n music!

But that's not our concern. We just want you to see something really beautiful: Armstrong Vinyl Corlon in the Futuresq Series. It combines clear vinyl with actual bits of glittering metallics in an entirely new concept in floors. And you know what? We've got all 8 styles!

FINAL DANCE
Friday, August 8, there will be the third and final free public dance at the Old Armory from 8 o'clock until 11:30 p.m. The dance will be held in honor of all Klamath Basin young people and the Babe Ruthers who are in town. Music will be provided by the Starlighters, who will play through the courtesy of the Music Performance Trust Fund of the recording industry, in cooperation with the American Federation of Musicians, Local No. 495.

READING PROGRAM
The summer reading program at Klamath Falls City Library is now rapidly nearing its end. Addie Mae Nixon, city librarian, reminds grade school youngsters who are taking part in the program that all book reports must be turned in by August 15. Interest aroused by the program is reflected by the fact that in July juvenile books outdid adult books at the library in circulation, 4,789 to 4,724, a most unusual occurrence. Mrs. Nixon says.

Catholics May Not See Shows
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Catholics are forbidden to attend this fun town's nude shows. Bishop Robert J. Dwyer of the diocese of Reno—which includes all of Nevada—sent letters to all priests in the state yesterday, saying no Catholic may attend, or have anything to do with such shows. The nude shows are recent attractions of Las Vegas' night club strip. Minsky's burlesque shows and undraped chorus girls from Paris' Lido Club have been big hits.
