Merritt - Murray Wedding July 18 First Christian Church

The First Christian Church in Klamath Falls was the setting of the wedding of Kay Merritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Merritt, 5221 Cottage Avenue, and Brian Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murray, Grand Ronde, Oregon, on Friday, July 18.

The 7:30 ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Otis R. Bell before approximately 100 guests. Baskets of white gladioli and blue delphinium formed the background decor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina-length white lace and net over taffeta frock, styled with a square, scalloped neckline, scalloped sleeves and bottom of outer skirt. Her short illusion veil was attached to a band of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible, topped with a white orchid, surrounded by white stephanotis and blue streamers.

Kay wore the traditional coin in her slipper and her only jewelry was a double strand choker of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. Jo Anne Merritt, sister of the bride of Klamath Falls, was her maid of honor and was gowned in a dress of blue flowered nylon over blue taffeta, styled with a puffed sleeves, square neck and a bouffant street length skirt. She donned a tiny hat, trimmed with lilies of the valley and blue tulle, and carried pink agallia daisies and blue delphinium.

The bridesmaids, Karen Murray, sister of the bridegroom, Grand Ronde, and Shirley Wise of Chico, California, and the candlelighters, Johnnie Bell and Sharon McCollum, both of Klamath Falls, were attired in the same style dress as the honor attendant, but of white flowered nylon over blue taffeta, and wore identical hats as the maid of honor. Their flowers were crescent-shaped bouquets of pink agallia daisies.

Carol Upp, cousin of the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Upp, Eugene, was flower girl and her dress was styled in the same order as the other bridal attendants. The rose petals she dropped were from a bush grown by the bride's maternal grandmother from a slip, a gift from the bride's paternal grandmother.

Brian had asked his brother, Jon Murray, of Grand Ronde to perform best man duties and seating the guests were Steve Johnson, uncle of the bridegroom, of Hughson, California, and John Merritt, uncle of the bride, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Stanley Kendall was organist and the Rev. Richard Jessup, cousin of the bride, was soloist.

Mrs. Merritt, mother of the bride, chose a pink-flowered voile dress with which she wore a spray of white carnations. The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Murray, wore a classic dress of charcoal and pink print and her corsage was a spray of pink carnations.

Arrangements for the reception, which was held in the church basement, were made by an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Martha McCollum. At the coffee service were four aunts of the bride, Mrs. V. A. Mudd, Mrs. P. L. Babcock, Mrs. Edna Book and Mrs. J. G. Kollias.

The three-tiered cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Roy Arnold and Arlene Skaugset, friends of the young couple, was cut and served by Mrs. Richard Jessup and Norma Book, the bride's cousins. A group of three pale blue wedding bells topped the cake and pink shells and pink roses completed the decorations.

Karen Henderson, Marilyn Alter and Sylvia Wilbur were in charge of the gift table.

For travel, the new Mrs. Murray changed to a flowered cotton sheath with blue and white accessories with which she wore the white orchid from the center of her bouquet.

The newlyweds are now at home in Klamath Falls after a wedding trip to Northern California, including Shasta Lake.

Kay is a 1957 graduate of KUHS and attended Southern Oregon College. Brian graduated from Willamina High School, Willamina, Oregon, in 1955 and in 1958 from OTI.

Mrs. McCollum and Ellen Upp, aunts of the bride, entertained with a buffet supper at their home, 1965 Huron Street, for relatives and close friends after the wedding reception.

Out-of-town guests at the supper were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murray, Jon and Karen, Grand Ronde; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Johnson of Hughson, California; Mr. and Mrs. John Kollias of Jasper, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall S. Upp and daughter, Carol Ann, of Eugene; Mrs. Virgil Mudd of St. Helena, California; the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Jessup of Pomona, California; and Shirley Wise of Chico, California.

Galveston, Texas, Home To Couple

BONANZA — The chapel of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Reno was chosen for exchange of their marriage vows on July 23. Both young people are from families who have lived here for many years.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Burk. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Jones. Her paternal grandmother is Mrs. Birdie Burk, Bonanza pioneer.

The 1 o'clock ceremony was read by Bishop Smith in the presence of friends and relatives. The blonde bride chose a summery white cotton lace frock over pink taffeta with matching taffeta cummerbund to enhance her tiny waist. The street length frock was made with boat neckline, tiny cap sleeves and the new bell skirt. Her white feather hat and an orchid at the shoulder completed her ensemble.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Stanley Masten Jr., Poe Valley, only attendant, wore a beige summer suit with white accessories and flowers. Stanley Masten Jr. was best man. Mrs. Burk chose a summer dress in pale green with white accessories. Mrs. Jones wore a light print with white slippers, gloves and hat. Both wore white flowers at the shoulder.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Jones spent several days at Lake Tahoe before the bridegroom left for Galveston, Texas, where he is stationed with the U.S. Coast Guard. He has one more year in the service. His bride will join him in September.

Accompanying the couple to Reno were Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Burk, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Masten, Mrs. Henry Clarke, Betty Jones, Janice Burke and Richard Jones.

45th Anniversary In New Pine Creek

NEW PINE CREEK—The lawn in the rear of the Getty residence in New Pine Creek was the setting for a reception in honor of the 45th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Getty. The reception was given by their daughter, Beatrice Getty.

A canopied table, from which the refreshments were served to the 24 guests, was the center of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Snyder, Portland, brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Getty, were among the guests.

Double Ring Rites Unite K. F. Couple In R. V. Keller Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Keller, 1031 Bismark Street, Klamath Falls, was the scene of the double ring ceremony uniting their niece, Joyce Diane Irwin, and Donald Kenneth Lindhorst in marriage. Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Irwin, 234 West Third Street, Klamath Falls, and Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Elson, Redmond, Oregon, repeated their nuptial vows in front of the fireplace. The mantel was centered with two white wedding bells flanked with arrangements of pink roses.

The Rev. Dallas McNeil of the First Methodist Church officiated at the afternoon ceremony on July 19.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. Joyce chose for her wedding a street length dress of sheer white tulle with a pink daron crepe sash crossing at the waistline in front and forming streamers in back ending at the hemline of the full skirt. She wore a small pink feather hat and white slippers, and the traditional blue garter. Her triangular shaped bridal bouquet was made of pink rubrun lilies and stephanotis.

Patricia Irwin of Medford was maid of honor for her sister and wore a full skirted street length pink tulle dress with matching cummerbund. Her small hat was made of matching tulle shaped in a large bow. Her corsage was of several pink rosebuds surrounded by feathered white carnations.

Donald chose Phillip M. Mott of The Dalles as his best man.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of rose linen with which she wore navy blue and white accessories. Mrs. Elson, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of vivid blue linen and she wore all white accessories. Each mother wore a corsage of a pink rubrun lily encircled with a deeper rose net.

The wedding reception was held in the yard of the Keller home. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out on the reception table which was covered with a hand crocheted tablecloth, made
