

INVITATION THAT READ, "Come Have Coffee With Minnie," brought many friends to say goodbye to Minnie Surlis (Mrs. Len) at an informal get-together, July 29 at the home of Mrs. Lyle Kellstrom where Link River rushes by. The informal note was carried on red and white napkins and the hostesses accented the colors with summery white frocks with touches of red. Some 150 guests came between 1:30 and 4:30 p.m. to the party on the lawn. Mr. and Mrs. Surlis left recently for Orange, California, to make their home. A 64TH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY for Homer Martin, left, standing, was the occasion on July 20 for good food and family talk at the home of the honored guest's aunt, Mrs. Charles Drew and Mr. Drew in the Henley district, first in many years. The gathering brought family members from afar, as well as from local homes. Others standing, left to right, are Fred Biehn, Klamath Falls, son of Mrs. Charmion Johnson; Charles Drew, Klamath County pioneer stockman, born in Langell Valley; Wesley Gibson, Vallejo, California, and Frederick Biehn, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Biehn, this city. Seated on the davenport, same order, are Mrs. Homer Martin, Glendale; Mrs. Georgia Meiers, Santa Cruz, California, mother of Homer Martin; Mrs. Charmion Johnson, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Charles (Ivy) Drew, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Wesley Gibson, Mrs. Meiers' daughter, Vallejo, California, and Mrs. Fred (Louise) Biehn, mother of Frederick behind her; on floor, left, Charmie and Carol Biehn. Not present for the picture were Mrs. Drew's sons and daughter, Emmett North of John Day, Oregon, Evelyn Langer, Ashland, and Lynn Propst, this city. —Photo by Otto Ellis

MRS. ETTA (Grandma) SHAW, who was 82 on July 22, celebrated her birthday anniversary at a Sunday afternoon family lawn party at the home of her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Mills, 1857 Ivory. Mrs. Shaw, for many years a full time resident of Klamath Falls, now spends her summers here and winters in Idaho and Arizona. She has a son and his family living here, C. B. Mills, 624 North Second Street. For the occasion her family and friends presented her with a white orchid corsage, and Mrs. Don Mills made a large birthday cake with the numerals "82" formed by the candles. Mrs. Shaw has 5 children, 15 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren. She's very youthful looking to be ancestor of almost 50. — Photo by Silver Rose Studio, Arizona.

McCanna-Ford Vows Exchanged In Yreka Catholic Church

Carolyn Lorraine Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ford, Hawkinsville, became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip McCanna, Hawkinsville. He and his bride, James Paul McCanna in Yreka St. Joseph Catholic Church on Saturday, June 28, at 2 p.m. Carolyn was given in marriage by her father. Attendants were the bridegroom's sister, Nellie Hatcher, and serving as best man was Lee Roy Deas. The bride wore an all white lace and net over satin gown, ballerina length. A spray of pink rosebuds held her fingerlip veil and her bridal bouquet was a small arrangement of pink roses carried on a white prayer book. As maid of honor, Nellie Hatcher wore a ballerina length frock of pink nylon and she carried a nosegay of pink roses. A four-tiered wedding cake was served to the 50 wedding guests at the reception in Hawkinsville Hall. The confection was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Joe Deas Jr. Mrs. Deas and Mrs. Hazel Ford served the cake and Sharon Deas, cousin of the bride, registered the guests.

Travelers

ALTURAS—Guests from Honolulu at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Cook in Alturas have been Mrs. Cook's mother, Mrs. Nellie Finck, and sister, Mrs. Beatrice Carter, of Honolulu. The Cooks met Mrs. Finck at the San Francisco airport about 10 days ago, but Mrs. Carter continued on to New York on a business trip. Both Mrs. Finck and Mrs. Carter, who returned from New York and has been in Alturas since August 4, will leave San Francisco by air this Thursday. Mrs. Carter, who has been principal of the second largest elementary school in Honolulu, has just accepted an assignment as supervisor of the grammar schools in rural Oahu.

Ramblings

"The Whole Town's Talking" about Minnie and Len Surlis giving up our Klamath climate for a new home and new interests in California. Minnie has left her mark in Little Theater circles here, appearing in "The Whole Town's Talking," as Madame Arcati in spooky "Blythe Spirit," when she wore a red, red wig, later as a Southern belle in "Lo and Behold," and many other performances that drew capacity audiences. Californians will be waiting with open arms.

Philadelphia is home these days to Ray and Mary Beauchamp, who left Klamath Falls months ago to live in the cradle of Democracy city. They made the long trek back this week with young daughter Christy, 4, to say hello to Vi and Roy Ruge, Jim and Ann Rickbell, Mrs. B's sister and brother-in-law, the E. J. Piemens at OTI and Mrs. B's mother, Mrs. Violet Jepplin. Ray B. who managed the Town and Country Rickys before leaving is factory representative for Sunbeam Corporation. Likes it, too. Former hometown folks, Mrs. D. D. Haven, wife of onetime dentist here, and daughter Mary and her three young chicks, Mazie, Sally and David, here from Laguna Beach and Newport Beach as guests of Ann (Mrs. Carl) Mason, and the T. C. Barnes, all longtime friends. Mary is wife of teacher Charles Vought. They've been vacationing up and down coast and in Canada.

Jupiter Pluvius played tricks on plans of the Edwin Bell family, dampening their lovely garden ready for the reception of son Ray and his new bride Jackie, arriving en route from honeymoon to home in Seattle. Summer blossoms spotlighted for heavenly night beauty were doused with near cloudburst only few hours before party. Hosts and hostesses, family members, gathered up Japanese lanterns, tables and other party toggery, said goodbye to bird bath fountain, watching dwarfs on lawn and scurried for shelter of Reames Country Club roof, after skies let go at 3:30 p.m. Reception was slated for 7:30.

There's a seat to be filled Monday morning on a United Air Lines plane flying east, by a lady in our town who is tapping toes until time to be airborne. Mrs. Blanche Hill, 76 years old, has tickets in her purse for a trip to her old home in Clarion, Iowa, where she's going to meet members of her family for the first time in many years. Folks coming from round about for family reunion, and to hear about Mrs. H's first flight. The story will be retold to son, A. H. (Master) Dickson and family, KP, when she files home.
