Burrell, master counselor, introduced his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. (Tab) Gober. Many out of town guests were present for the joint installation ceremonies, including a large number of Lakeview people.

REBEKAH DIGNITARY

BONANZA — Plans were completed for the visit of Oregon Rebekah Assembly President Edna Oster on Monday, August 11, to Rebekah Lodge 106 of Bonanza at their meeting on August 4. A dinner will be served in the hall at 7 p.m., and all members and Rebekahs in the community are invited.

Noble Grand Esther Fernlund was in charge of the meeting at which time several committee chairmen were appointed including Eva Roberts, press; Gerlie Dick, publicity; Isabel Hestline, fraternal; Delphine Brown, good of the order and community service. The Rebekahs and Odd Fellows have decided to have a new roof put on the hall as soon as possible.

When you make your own dry bread crumbs, be sure to sift them; put the fine crumbs in one container, the coarse crumbs in another. Then both sorts will be ready as needed.

Reames Party For Ramon Bells

Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Edwin Bell, returning from a honeymoon trip to Lake Louise, Glacier National Park, Sun Valley and Yellowstone Park, were delightfully honored during their brief stay here with a reception on Saturday night, August 2, at Reames Country Club. Hosts and hostesses for the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bell, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Bell, brother and sister-in-law.

Receiving with the hosts and honored guests were the new Mrs. Bell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robertson, Portland.

Nuptials were exchanged by the young couple in Portland on July 19. They will make their home in Bellevue near Seattle where Ray (Ramon) is associated with Bell's Store Equipment Company. Mrs. Bell (Jackie) will teach school in Bellevue this year.

A pink, white and silver motif was carried out on the attractive refreshment table. Pouring at the coffee service during the evening were Mrs. Harold Teale, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Dean White, Mrs. Rodney Murray, Ms. Robert Harvey, all of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Paul McDuffee, Medford.

At the punch bowl were Dean White, Harold Teale, Percy Murray, Robert Harvey, Rodney Murray, all of Klamath Falls, and Paul McDuffee, Medford.

Home in Bellevue, Washington for the Ramon Bells will be 9910 Northeast Lake Washington Boulevard.

Quarter small bunches of celery and simmer in chicken stock (fat free) until just tender. Season with salt if necessary and serve, after draining, with melted butter. Nice for company!

NEW ARRIVALS to be added to the terrific stock of back-to-school clothes at Herman's Men's Store are the 88 1/2 dozen Bud Berman sport shirts being unloaded above. The shirts are smart looking, long sleeves and will sell for $3.98 to $5.98. Shown unloading the truck, left to right: Harry Glesin, owner; Art Tockey, Bend-Portland driver. Peeking over the boxes at far right is Bill Hall, store manager.

Also just arrived at Herman's is a shipment of 60 dozen Levis' blue jeans, bringing Herman's Levis' stock to more than 160 dozen pairs. Arriving within the next day or so will be a special shipment of the new Levis' Polished Cotton Ivy League trousers with flap pockets. It's easy - and economical - to be outfitted for school at Herman's, 826 Main in Klamath Falls. —Adv.
