THE FILMY VEIL of Sharon Jackson, bride-to-be, was given last minute adjustment by her aunt, left, Mrs. Warren Mason, this city, a sister of the bride's mother, Mrs. Gracie Sanders, right.

TAKING A PEEK at a bride-to-be are the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Theresa Teare, and two little girls, left, Rebecca Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall, Sacramento, niece of the bride and center, Theresa Mason, Klamath Falls, cousin.

WARREN MASON gives his niece in marriage.

THE WEDDING RING to be worn by Mrs. Gerald Riley is admired by her maid of honor, left, Naoma Sanders, before the ceremony.

DESCENDANTS of Klamath County pioneers are proud of their heritage, none more so than Mrs. Charles (Ivy) Drew, right, seated, and her sisters, Mrs. Georgia Meiers, Santa Cruz, California, left, and Mrs. Charmion Johnson, center, of Klamath Falls. The trio are daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. A. (Bob) Emmett, who came to Klamath County from Roseburg on June 14, 1875. Mrs. Emmett rode horseback and led a pack animal across the mountains soon after the end of the Modoc War. Standing, left to right, Homer Martin, Glendale, Oregon, whose birthday was honored at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drew on July 20; Mrs. Wesley (Pearl) Gibson, Vallejo, California, and Fred Biehn, Klamath Falls. Mrs. Gibson and Mr. Martin are daughter and son of Mrs. Meiers. Fred Biehn is Mrs. Johnson's son.—Photo by Ellis
