Liz Snapping Out Of Grief Over Late Husband's Death

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Notes and comment on the Hollywood scene—Elizabeth Taylor is coming out of her bereavement over the death of Mike Todd. She is often dating Arthur Loew Jr., scion of the show business family and a friend since her early years at MGM. And Liz has indicated that she will be available for film roles that appeal to her.

"After Todd's death, she didn't care if she worked or not," said Richard Brooks, who directed her in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof." "She finished the picture only because Mike was so hepped up on it. Now she wants to work some more."

Brooks said it was touch and go when Liz returned to work after the tragedy. A line like "You don't know what it is to lose someone you love" would break her up and work had to be suspended for the rest of the day.

But the results are worth all the trials. "Cat" is a masterpiece of sustained dramatics, and Liz never looked lovelier.

Baby Traded For Pickup

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—A Pennsylvania couple have admitted trading their baby for a pickup truck.

Detective Walter Turner said a charge of child abandonment has been drawn up against Richard Readdy, 26, Shamokin, Pa., and his wife, Helene Margaret Readdy, 20.

He said Jesse Lester Burger, 42, El Dorado Springs, Mo., owner of the pickup truck, would probably be charged with conspiring to violate the child abandonment law.

The 5-month-old boy, Paul Andrews, was placed in the Tulsa Juvenile Shelter.

Jail Matron Mildred Buchanan said Mrs. Readdy told her she is now about one month pregnant. But a doctor who examined the woman said it is still too early to tell.

Mrs. Readdy's father, William Murphy of Shamokin, called Tulsa police and offered to come to Tulsa if authorities would grant him custody of the child. He was told it would depend on a juvenile court hearing.

Tulsa police said the alleged swap came about this way:

The Pennsylvania couple — out of work, almost broke and without a car — were hitchhiking to California, where Readdy hoped to find a job.

In Joplin, Mo., they were picked up by Burger, driving with his wife and 7-year-old daughter to Tulsa.

Burger was quoted as saying: "In a kidding way I said, 'I'd like to have that baby.' Readdy said, 'Boy, you sure could have it.' And his wife agreed."

Mrs. Readdy was quoted as saying: "He (Burger) kept saying how the baby would be better off with them than with us. I didn't want to do it. I gave in first."

Police exhibited a hastily scribbled bill of sale which Burger said Readdy demanded to make the swap "legal." It showed Burger had transferred his '57 pickup truck to Readdy for $21.50, although police said no money changed hands.

In Tulsa Burger's sister Mrs. Gladys Prather notified police, who then went to her home and arrested Burger and picked up the baby. The Readdys were stopped in a pickup truck 10 miles from here.

Home Extension

HOME EXTENSION
By Mildred Marten

The Klamath County Advisory Committee of Home Extension met August 4 at the fairground for its regular monthly meeting with Mrs. Glen Thomason presiding. Seven other members were present.

Plans were made for the extension program projects for the coming year including: camp cookery, tin can craft, color coordination, low-calorie desserts, better sewing workshop, No. 2, civil defense, salads and dressings.

Ruth Gustavson, home extension agent, gave a report of her office. Officers training for the unit officers will be August 25 at 1:30 p.m.

Lillian Hoffman, 4-H agent, reported on the 4-H Fall Fair to be held on August 17, 18 and 19. The garden tour will be August 11 and 12; the State Fair starts August 26 at Salem.

Units in committee representation are as follows: Buena Vista and Conger, Mrs. Glen Thomason; OTI and Lindley Heights, Mrs. Joe Hicks; Chiloquin, Gilchrist-Crescent, Mrs. Lisle Pratt; Poe Valley, Main and Merrill, Mrs. Frances Fruer; Altamont, Henley, Shasta-Homedale, Mrs. Orville Ferrell; Bly, Bonanza, Langell Valley, Mrs. Louis Randall; Keno, Fairhaven and Midland, Mrs. M. V. Marten.

Tragedy Hits Mint Printer

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — A weary little man sat by his maimed daughter's bedside here today — surrounded by strange faces in a strange land.

Ernest Ahlberg, 53-year-old printer in the Swedish mint at Stockholm, is carrying a heavy load of grief.

Back in Stockholm, his dying wife is in a coma. She has been seriously ill for months and broke a hip two days after the Ahlbergs' daughter Brigitta, a medical exchange student, left for the United States June 6.

In Greensboro, Brigitta lies in a hospital bed with her right arm gone and her face and chest deeply cut. She was injured Tuesday when she ran into an airplane propeller—only a few hours before she was to start the return trip to Sweden.

Yvonne De Carlo Believes In Canada-Type Discipline

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — No budding delinquents are the children of Yvonne De Carlo, who believes in old-style, Canadian-type discipline.

Here is a refreshing attitude in this town where the over-privileged, under-loved children of the famous grow up to make the scandal columns — and their parents wonder why.

"I've seen it happen again and again in Hollywood," Yvonne observed. "The kids are given everything they want, as long as they stay out of the way. They're brought up by strangers, because the parents are too busy to devote any time to their own children."
