

Shrine Circus Set Tuesday

Comedy takes on a variety of forms in this year's edition of Polack Brothers Circus which will show at the fairgrounds under the sponsorship of the Klamath Falls Shrine Club, Tuesday and Wednesday, with matinee and night performances at 2:15 and 8:15 daily.

Mirth motivates the acrobatic skills of the Original Guts, whose pandemonium of pranks is a laugh-inducing highlight of the circus. Outstanding individual comic is Tommy Hanneford, unpredictable buffoon of the famous George Hanneford Family of bareback riders.

There are ingratiating touches of humor in the performances of Janet's Pet Revue, Jennier's Seals and the Besalou Elephants.

The clowns, who appear before the circus and at intervals during its progress, are headed by the uninhibited happy hobo Gene Randow, who this year has a miniature counterpart in the person of Harold Simmons.

Appearing for the first time in America are the Bizarro Brothers, a trio of musical mimes from Italy whose bell-ringing and melodious surprises provide a refreshing novelty.

Musical versatility also is displayed by clowns Johnny Cirillino and Chuckles Facer, the former a recruit from vaudeville's song-and-dance ranks.

In a circus memorable for its tension-building thrill features, the comedy interludes afford the proper relief.

Richard Tucker, the Metropolitan Opera tenor, was first an errand boy in Wall Street banks.

A HEADSTRONG PAIR: Mickey and Cherley of the Original Guts get their heads together for Tuesday and Wednesday's Shrine Circus.

CONTAGIOUS
KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—It was the small hours of the morning when the old coon dog began to bay. A shotgun roared and a man screamed. Investigating officers found a man who explained: "I got to hearin' Old Sad (the coon dog) baying, and I just got so happy listenin' to him I had to do some shootin' and hollerin'."
