

Tempers Fly, Harris Not To Trade Blows

ARROWHEAD SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI) — This camp of heavy weight challenger Roy Harris has become "Goodycrest by the Springs" the screwiest training rendezvous since Welshman Tommy Farr groomed at Long Branch, N. J., for his 1937 shot at Joe Louis' title.

Tempers have flared here, sports writers and photographers are running around in circles, and everyone is ready to punch somebody in the nose — that is, everybody is ready except Harris. The challenger from Cut and Shoot, Tex., is slated to fight Floyd Patterson for his heavy-weight crown at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles, next Monday night. But trainer Bill Gore refused to let Harris do any punching Monday and declared angrily, "He may not do any boxing for the rest of the week."

Gore snapped at the large band of reporters who questioned him about the cancellation and about the challenger's condition. And some of the reporters snapped back.

Nat'l Guards, Mould'craft Ball Winners

National Guard and Mouldingcraft moved out in front of the Men's Softball League President's Cup playoffs at Conger Field Monday night by beating Hal's Sport Shop and Market Basket in first round games.

The Guards whipped Hal's 4-1 behind the two-hit pitching of Woody Wood. Market Basket, the league winner, was bounced 12-3 by Mouldingcraft with Gus Gestvang hurling a four-hitter.

In the first game, National Guard scored four times in the fifth for their winning margin. Tripod Nizgard scored when Wood tripled for the first run of the game. Wood came home later on a double by Ralph Beard. Shaky fielding on the part of Hal's allowed the Guards to score twice more in the fifth.

Bend Snares Finals Opener

BEND (AP) — Bend and Salem American Legion junior baseball teams meet here Tuesday night in what could be the state championship title game. Bend took the first game in the best-of-three series Monday night and now needs a single victory for the championship.

It was a 6-0 victory that Bend scored, Eddie Cecil pitching the shutout. He gave up only four hits but issued seven walks. When he was in trouble, though, he took command and fanned nine.

OSAA Official To Lead Clinic

A. Oden Hawes, assistant secretary-treasurer of the Oregon School Activities Association, will conduct a clinic Thursday at 8 p.m. in the new cafeteria at Klamath Union High School for all Klamath football coaches and officials.

In addition to presenting the official interpretations of the rules, Hawes will conduct the officials' examination for certification. All coaches and officials are requested to attend.

Atlantic Flyway Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—A cut of 10 days in the hunting season for ducks and other waterfowl in Atlantic flyway states was announced today. New restrictions also were imposed on taking canvasback and redhead ducks in all flyways except the Pacific.

The 1958-59 regulations for shooting migratory waterfowl were announced by Assistant Secretary of the Interior Ross Loeffler. The new limitations reflect an outlook for smaller fall duck flights in all areas east of the Pacific flyway.

The Fish and Wildlife Service said last week that the 1958 wintering population of ducks in the Atlantic flyway was at the lowest level since 1935. It also said the number of diving ducks—such as canvasback and redheads—was on a downward trend while that of the new ducks was upward.

Waterfowl Hunting Regulations Set

In each flyway in addition to the daily bag and possession limits on ducks, the daily bag limit on American and red-breasted mergansers shall be 5, possession limit 10, singly or in the aggregate of both kinds.

The daily bag and possession limit on coots in the Atlantic, Mississippi and Central flyways shall be 10 and in the Pacific 25.

Detailed regulations for taking ducks, geese, coots, brant, and other species in the Pacific flyway:

Arizona, California, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah and Washington may select concurrent open seasons on ducks and geese, except Ross's geese, of 95 consecutive full days, or two seasons totaling 88 full days.

The states are offered the option of selecting a single bag and possession limit of 6 ducks, which may be increased to 10, provided such increased limit contains not less than 4 pintails, 4 woodcocks, or 4 of those species in the aggregate of both kinds; or they may select a daily bag limit of 5 ducks and a possession limit of 10 which may be increased to 9 and 14, respectively, in the same manner.

On geese except Ross's geese the daily bag and possession limit shall be 6, provided that not more than 3 of the dark species may be included.

To protect Great Basin Canada geese the following restrictions apply:

In the counties of Bear Lake, Caribou and Bonneville in Idaho; Clark in Nevada; Mohave and that

Top Shrine Stars Back Into Action

PORTLAND (AP) — Two stand-out performers resumed action Monday as the State and Metropolitan All-Star teams entered their final week of practice for the annual Shrine benefit game Saturday night.

Bob Belleisle, big South Salem tackle, returned to the active State ranks. Mick Sinnerud, ace Beaverton halfback who is expected to pace the Metro running attack, also was back, and reeled off several good gains.

The Metro drill was featured by the passing of Milwaukee quarterback Gary Albright, whose throws frequently hit ends Jim Sandness of Portland's Grant and Dickey Ramsey of Gresham.

State worked in the morning only, with head Coach Lee Gustafson splitting the time between offense and defense. Fullbacks Frank Hawley of Vale and Hardy Spurgeon of Marshfield impressed with their running in a 45-minute scrimmage.

KGC Slates Trap Shoot

Shooters from all parts of the state will be in Klamath Falls this weekend for a registered trap shoot sponsored by the Klamath Gun Club. The shoot will start at 9:30 Saturday morning at the Wocus Traps. The public is invited.

Last weekend, J. M. Edwards won the Jim Fisher Trophy for C and D shooters posting a score of 47. C. G. Blacksmith won a leg on the Nelson Reed Handicap Trophy by edging Vern Moore in a shootoff 24-22 after both gunners had scores of 47 of 50.

Practice sessions began Monday for Eastern and Western Oregon football all-stars who will compete Aug. 23 in the annual Shrine Class B football game at Pendleton.

The Eastern team started workouts on the Eastern Oregon College field in La Grande.

Western all-stars worked out at Pendleton.

Nats 6, Boston 3

It was the Mick's 32nd, keeping pace with Boston's Jack Jensen and Washington's Roy Sievers for the AL lead. Jensen and Sievers matched two-run shots in the fourth inning, but Sievers added a winning RBI single in the fifth off loser Bill Monbouquette.

Orioles Win Two From NY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Now that the big guns of his Chicago White Sox pitching staff have begun to fire, Al Lopez may yet extend his amazing record of never finishing worse than second as a manager.

Lopez hasn't much else to shoot for in his 11th year as a skipper. His usual hopes of swiping the American League pennant from the New York Yankees were junked long ago, when ace Billy Pierce and Dick Donovan and a trade-bolstered staff misfired.

Lopez was last two months ago, seven games shy of second, 14 back of the leading Yankees. Pierce, a 20-game winner in 1956 and 1957, was 4-5. Donovan was 2-7.

Now the White Sox have squeezed into a second-place tie with Boston. Donovan has won six in a row and Pierce 8 of 11 in that climb from the cellar.

Pierce pulled the White Sox even with Boston last night, winning 3-1 at Cleveland while the Red Sox lost 6-3 at Washington. It left the White Sox 15 games behind New York, however, despite Baltimore's 3-2 and 9-3 sweep over the Yankees in a day-night doubleheader.

Detroit defeated Kansas City 3-2 in the other AL game.

In the National League, Pittsburgh gained a share of second and cut Milwaukee's lead to six games by beating the Braves 6-4. Cincinnati and Philadelphia split the only other games scheduled. The Redlegs won 12-11 in the completion of a June 1 suspended game that went 13 innings. Then the Phils won the regularly scheduled game 5-4 in 10 innings.

Sox 3, Tribe 1

Pierce (12-8) gave up seven hits, walked but one and struck out seven. He had a two-hit shutout until the seventh, when ex-teammate Minnie Minoso slammed his 16th home run. Minoso, who also doubled, was the only Injun with an extra-base hit off the little southpaw.

Nellix Fox drove in one run for the Sox and scored another with a pair of doubles off Ray Narleski, now 11-8.

Birds 3-9, NY 2-3

Jack Harshman and Connie Johnson delivered a pair of seven hitters as the Orioles won for the first time this season at Yankee Stadium. Harshman (9-10), carried by home runs from Bob Niekman and Joe Ginsberg, struck out nine in the opener. He had a five-hit shutout until Bill Skowron's two-out, two-run pinch homer in the ninth. Art Dittmar (8-8) was the loser.

The Orioles scored five runs in the nightcap first, three unearned, off loser Johnny Kucke (7-5) and rolled as ex-Yankee Gene Woodling went 5-for-5 and drove in three runs, one with a homer. Johnson blanked the Yanks after Mickey Mantle's two-run, fifth-inning homer.

Little League All-Stars Set For Gem Play

As a climax to a highly successful first-season as a member of the National Association of Little Leaguers will play an All-Star six-inning, exhibition game in Gem Stadium at 8 o'clock Wednesday night.

The All-Star game has been arranged by the coaches of the six existing Little League clubs primarily to give their 12-year-old players an opportunity for a game to replace tournament play. National Little League regulations make it necessary for first-year members of the national group to pass up tournament play on the state and national level. At the end of their second season of membership they will be eligible to compete for state and national honors.

This year's 12-year-old players will move into Babe Ruth League age classifications at the close of this season. The Little League is composed of 10, 11 and 12 year olds.

For purposes of identification the league has been broken into two groups for Wednesday's game: The American League and the National League.

Making up the American League, which is directed by head coach Clay Hannon assisted by Mary Cunningham and Veryl Young are players from Johns-Manville, Bob's Union Service and the Weyerhaeuser-Don's.

The National League is led by head coach Ken Coffman, who will be assisted by Bud Adkins and Don Horn. Players from Hal's Sport Shop, Car-Ad-Co and Park-Moyina make up the National roster.

The All-Star game, a regulation six-inning contest, will see each of the boys play at least two innings. Added features on the program will include a base-running contest between the third and fourth innings, and presentation of the All-Star awards immediately following the game.

Officials for the game are provided through the courtesy of the Klamath Falls Umpire's Association, Hi Hatfield, commissioner. The umpires will donate their services. Handling the public address system are George Demetarakos and Harold Howard while Wayne Scott will serve as official scorer. All services in connection with the game with exception of the lights at Gem Stadium will be donated.

The American League, as home team for the contest, will take to the diamond at 6:30 for their hitting practice followed by the National Stars at 7 p.m. Each squad will receive 15 minutes infield practice just prior to the game.

"The general public is urged to attend. There will be no admission charge.

On the American roster are: pitchers Randy Lapp, Mack Cunningham and Larry Binney; Verne Netzer and Gary Benson will divide the catching chores. Bobby Tucker, Keith Jessup, Dave Dunson, Bobby Graham, Jerry Thomas and Jim Jackson will work as infielders. In the outfield are Glenn Jones, Eddie Weaver, Bob Nealy Terry, Christianson, John Gray and Alan Kenyon.

Performing for the National squad are: Roy Dunham, Dennis Rose and Ronnie Yuncck, pitchers; Darwin Edwards and Mike Kitching, catchers and infielders Mike Malley, Jim Kurth, Billy Crain, Duane Singleton, Marvin Yuncck, Ron Herman, Lenny Geyer and Eddie Young. In the outfield are Joe Brazil, Jack Adkins, Dennis Rodgers and Ken Allison.

Game time is 8 p.m.

Middlecoff Wins, Sets Tournney High

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Cary Middlecoff was at a loss today to explain his mastery of the back nine at the Tripoli Golf Club, a mastery that earned him the $5,300 first prize in the $35,000, 72-hole Milwaukee Open Golf 9.

The 37-year-old ex-entender from Memphis, Tenn., who now plays out of Hollywood, Fla., posted a tournament record 16-under-par 264 yesterday.

He shot a 35-32-67 in the final round on Tripoli's par 35-70 course, eclipsing by one stroke the tournament standard he shared with Ed Furgol.

Middlecoff, in ending a personal 26-month major tournament victory drought, played Tripoli's back nine as though he owned it. He finished 17 under par there, in marked contrast to the front nine where he was one over.

"I can't explain it," he said, "except to say I am not a very good starter, usually. They tell me 15 of the 18 birdies I shot during the tourney were on the back nine."

"Actually," he added, "there isn't much difference between the two nines. Normally, I play back nines a little better than front nines, but the difference here was just unbelievable.

"Part of it may be traceable to a couple of sad experiences I've had on this course the last two years. I guess I was just a little bit cautious on the front nine, not wanting them to happen again, and then opened up on the back nine. It just seemed like it belonged to me."

Second place and $3,400 went to Bob Rosburg, Palo Alto, Calif., who scored 266.

Bill Casper Jr., Apple Valley, Calif., was third with a 267. He won $2,200.

Rosburg, who was five back of Middlecoff when play started yesterday, caught and passed Casper on the final six holes as he shot a 4-under 31 for a 64, best round of the day. Casper shot a 67.

Reds, Phils Split

A throwing error by losing reliever Dick Farrell enabled Frank Robinson to scoot home from first with the tie-breaking run for the Reds in the opener. The game was tied 11-11 with Cincinnati at bat in the ninth when the Sunday curfew fell in June. Joe Nuxhall won it in relief.

A walk, fielder's choice and Willie Jones' single gave the nightcap to the Phils after Ed Bailey's two-run homer had tied it 4-4 in the ninth for the Reds. Willard Schmidt lost it in relief while Don Cardwell (2-0) went all the way for his second victory over the Reds.

Pirates Share 2nd Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Maybe Pittsburgh's persistent Pirates, pulling in fans and crowding the leaders, aren't just along for the ride after all in that National League pennant race.

The Bucs, usually scrapping to escape the cellar at this stage of the season, have paired pitching with a steady bat attack for a five-game winning streak and a share of second place with San Francisco, cutting Milwaukee's lead to six games.

They did it the hard way last night, knocking off the Braves and battering tough guy Warren Spahn 6-4 while reliever Elroy Face saved Bob Friend's 15th victory.

Cincinnati and Philadelphia split a pair in the only other NL game scheduled. The Redlegs won the completion of a June 1 suspended game 12-11 in 13 innings. The Phils won the regulation game 5-4 in 10 innings.

In the American League, Baltimore swept a day-night doubleheader from New York.

Bucs 6, Braves 4

Friend, joining Spahn as the only NL pitcher to win 15 this season, outdueled the veteran lefty with ease before tiring in the eighth. He had the Braves blanked for seven, gave up a run in the eighth and was charged with 3 in the ninth.

Frank (15-12) struck up nine hits, walked three and gave out five. Spahn (15-8) was tagged for 11 hits and all six runs in his 6-2-3 innings.

Bill Mazeroski drove in three runs with a pair of singles and a triple for the Bucs. Hank Aaron had three hits for the Braves and lined a two-run single in the ninth before Face got Joe Adcock on a game-ending fly ball with the tying runs on base.
