What will happen now that the Pacific Coast Conference has broken up and drifted down the drain? There are several suggestions, several ideas and several proposals, but as of yet, nothing seems good enough to jell the West Coast collegiate athletic picture.

The one thing we are going to be watching for is the junking of all rules and regulations that have governed the PCC, and from now on it's every man for himself to sink or swim. And to keep from sinking, there are several who will go under, around or through the conference standards.

Now that the conference has been dissolved, the question of enforcing a code of ethics falls directly into the lap of the NCAA. But, as has been proven in the past, it is easier to get away with illegal recruiting and athletic "padding" with the NCAA than conferences such as the PCC, Big Ten and other major college athletic groups.

Unless the NCAA steps in and applies the firm grip of authority on coast conference members, it might possibly turn out to be an all out rule-breaking war. The way things stand now, who will fine or suspend a fellow opponent who breaks any rules? The Pacific Coast Conference is no longer an iron hand, instead it has wasted away to an old torn glove with holes in every finger.

The "Big Four"—Washington, UCLA, USC and California—headed the break up and now have what they wanted: To get rid of the smaller Northwest schools who wouldn't fill their stands during football season. But with their smiles of success must also go the worries of fielding a complete well-rounded athletic program, where football is only one part.

Whatever happens, the state of Oregon will still have some very fine major college football as long as Oregon and Oregon State College continue their present athletic programs. Oregon has been the host state in the last two Rose Bowl games, and we go along with those who say this will be the third straight year. With Tommy Prothro's Beavers, it is highly probable that Oregon State will be the last Pacific Coast Conference representative in the Rose Bowl.

Bowl officials maintain the game will be continued, but how the opponents will be picked remains to be seen. But you can bet your last dollar if Oregon isn't represented this year, it will be a long time before another Beaver state team gets there—the southern "rebels" will see to that.

Is there anyone who will disagree that pitching is 99.9 percent of kids baseball? If so take a look at the recent regional Babe Ruth League Tournament held here.

Washington, the eventual winner, used five different pitchers in four games before calling on one boy to make his second appearance of the five-day tournament and all five were very fine hurlers. The regional winners used three right-handers and a pair of left-handers before Joe Boudeau was brought on in the sixth inning of the championship game as a relief pitcher and his second appearance of the tourney.

All of the other teams who were in the running failed to match up.

Lions Tourney Enters Semis

The fourth annual Klamath Falls Lions Club City Tennis Tournament moves into the semifinals round of play at Moore Park this weekend as topseded netter Jim Jackson meets John Bousquet in the men's singles.

Earl Brooks, seeded No. 2, will face Raymond Tice, the third seeded entrant in the other half of the bill.

Jackson turned back Doug Pence, 6-1, 6-2, to earn his position while Bousquet dumped Bud Case 6-4, 6-1. Brooks defeated Mark Kochevar 6-1, 6-1 for his shot in the semis while Tice edged Dino Reginato 2-6, 6-0, 6-1.

Action yet to be completed in the second round of play includes matches between Keith Baxter and Jerry Jennings in a consolation bout; John Bousquet and Teddy Jackson in the junior men's singles; Gayle Case and Anita Anderson in the junior girls singles and Virginia Leaming vs. Eunice Anderson, also in the junior girls event.

Set for the semifinals in the men's doubles is the team of Jim Jackson and Phil Jackson who whipped Bousquet and Keith Baxter, 8-6 and 6-2.

The tournament will conclude Sunday, August 17.

Milwaukee Tumbles; Yankees, Sox Win

Leaders Clubbed By Bucs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Just when Milwaukee's world champs looked to have that National League pennant race under control, up pops Pittsburgh. The Pirates, usually stone cold dead at this stage, ran their winning spurt to six games, took over second place and trimmed Milwaukee's lead to five games last night by beating the Braves 10-0.

Bucs 10, Braves 0

Witt had to struggle for his sixth victory until Frank Thomas unloaded his 29th homer with man on in the sixth off loser Bob Rush. The Bucs then put it away with eight in the eighth. Witt had little trouble with the Braves after the second inning, but the second was a pip.

Frank Torre lifted a pop fly to left that fell for a double and the Braves' first hit when Bob Skinner lost it in the lights. Then Witt, who walked four, hit Johnny Logan with a pitch, leading the bases with one out. Rush then bunted. Witt scooped up the ball and flipped to catcher Danny Kravitz for a home-to-first double play.

That's all the Braves managed against Witt, who has lost two, until Hank Aaron doubled with two out in the ninth.

The Bucs sent 12 men to bat in the big eighth. Thomas drove in his third run with a double, and Skinner tripled home two.

Milwaukee 000 000—0 2 2 Pittsburgh 000 002 08X—10 13 0 Rush, McMahon (8) Trowbridge (6) and Crandall, Witt (6-2) and Kravitz. Loser—Rush (6-5). HR—Thomas.

Cards 7, SF 3

The Cards made it eight out of nine by overcoming a 3-2 Giants lead with a pair of unearned runs in the seventh. Sam Jones won his 10th, fanning seven but walking eight while matching loser Mike McCormick's six-hit job.

St. Louis 20 000 230—7 6 2 San Fran. 000 300 000—3 6 1 Jones (10-8) and Green, McCormick (8-5) and Schmidt, Thomas (7).

Cubs 9, Bums 3

Jim Bolger hit a two-run triple and Lee Walls socked a two-run homer as the Cubs scored five runs in the third at Los Angeles. Walls also hit a solo homer in the ninth, his 23rd of the season. Dick Drott won his fifth, giving up Gil Hodges' two-run, 16th homer in the fourth. Danny McDevitt (1-5) lost it.

Chicago 005 000 301—9 14 1 Los Angeles 000 200 061—3 8 3 Drott, Elston (8) and Neuman, McDevitt, Bizer (3), Klippstein (7), Kipp (8), Erskine (9) and Roseboro. Winner—Drott (5-9). Loser—McDevitt (1-5). HRS—Walls 2, Hodges.

Reds 12, Phils 4

The Redlegs bagged it with a six-run sixth, capped by Thurman's three-run double, at Philadelphia. Tom Acker gave up eight hits for his first victory. He had a three-hit shutout until the seventh, when Chico Fernandez hit a two-run double. Wally Post hit a two-run pinch homer in the ninth for the Phils, while Frank Robinson hit his 21st homer for the Reds.

Cincinnati 100 016 040—12 13 1 Philadelphia 000 000 202—4 8 3 Acker (1-2) and Bailey, Semproch, Sanford (6), Morehead (8) and Sawatski. Loser—Semproch (13-7). HRS—Robinson, Post.

Dark Vintage Arlington Pick

CHICAGO (UPI)—Dark Vintage, unbeaten in six races, was an even money choice today to win her fifth stake of the year against 11 other horses in the richest two-year-old filly event in Chicago history, the Princess Pat at Arlington Park.

By the way, the statistics on the new prospect are 6-5 and 250 pounds. Nice things come in big packages, too.

BEVERLY LLOYD
... all-stater

Klamath Miss All-Star Pick

Beverly Lloyd, the hard-playing Klamath Basinite centerfielder, was picked to the Oregon State Women's All-Star team Sunday at the conclusion of the annual Women's State Softball Tournament, held August 7-10 at Camp White.

Miss Lloyd, who was a member of the 1954 state champion Basinettes team, was chosen because of her outstanding performance in the tournament. She emerged from the competition with a .454 batting average and a perfect fielding percentage. The honor was the first she had received in the seven state tournaments in which she has participated.

The Basinettes were eliminated from the tourney after winning their first outing 14-8, from Madras only to lose two straight; one to Eugene, 4-2, and one to Hillsboro, 5-4. The Hillsboro nine went on to gain the runnerup spot to the winner, the Eagle Point Dairy Maids.

Another Klamathite, Pat Barron, who, although she lives in Klamath Falls, plays on the Eagle Point squad, was cited the tournament's outstanding pitcher. Miss Barron was also a member of the 1954 championship team.

The Basinettes have scheduled at least one more game prior to closing their season. On August 23 they will travel to Reno to meet the Sierra Sporting Goods nine in a return match. The Basinettes opened this year against the Sierra Sports.

Mantle Sweeps HR Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An uniquely healthy Mickey Mantle, finally busting into the American League lead, suddenly has a shot at joining Babe Ruth, Jimmy Foxx and Ralph Kiner as the only sluggers ever to hit 50 or more home runs in one season twice.

The Oklahoma strong boy needs 17 in 41 games for 50, but he's come a long way after a sour spring. He's hit 29 since June 1. He broke loose from a tie with Boston's Jackie Jensen and Washington's Roy Sievers yesterday by hitting his 33rd as the New York Yankees beat Baltimore 7-2.

Jensen and Sievers, the defending champ, remained tied at 32 when Boston's game at Washington was postponed because of rain.

The Chicago White Sox, 15 games behind New York, broke a second-place tie with Boston by defeating Cleveland 4-1 and Detroit outlasted Kansas City 7-6 in the other AL games.

NY 7, Orioles 2

Mantle, on batting surge that has pushed his average to .388, had three hits. His homer, a solo shot deep into the left field stands at Yankee Stadium, gave the Yanks a 4-0 lead in the fifth. It came off lefty Ken Lehman and was his sixth off Oriole pitching.

Gil McDougald also homered for the Yanks, while Bob Nieman hit his 12th for the Birds, a two-run blow that junked Tom Sturdivant's shutout bid in the seventh. Sturdivant (2-5) won his first since April 22, but needed Virgil Trucks' relief help in the eighth. Hee Brown (4-3) lost it.

Baltimore 000 000 200—2 7 1 New York 021 010 12X—7 14 3 Brown, Lehman (3), Pappas (6), Zverink (8), Sleater (8) and Triandos. Sturdivant, Trucks (8) and Howard. Winner—Sturdivant (2-5). Loser—Brown (4-3). HRS—Mantle, Nieman, McDougald. Boston at Washington, night, postponed, rain.

Sox 4, Tribe 1

Early Wynn (10-12) won his third in a row over his former Indian mates while Jim Landis drove in three runs for the White Sox. Minnie Miñoso gave the Tribe a 1-1 tie with his 17th home run in the second inning, but the Sox bagged it with a sixth-inning run on Ron Jackson's sacrifice fly for their eighth success in 10 games. Jim Grant (9-9) was the loser.

Chicago 100 001 200—4 7 0 Cleveland 010 000 000—1 5 2 Wynn (10-12) and Lollar, Grant, Ferraresi (7), Martin (9) and Nixon. Loser—Grant (9-9). HR—Miñoso.

Tigers 7, A's 6

The Tigers twice came from behind against the A's and finally nailed it on Gail Harris' two-run 12th homer in the seventh off losing reliever Dick Tomaneck. Al Kaline ended an 0-for-16 slump with a double ahead of the winning blow. Tom Morgan won it in relief.

Kansas City 110 102 010—6 12 0 Detroit 012 003 20X—7 12 0 Urban, Gorman (3), Terry (6), Tomaneck (6), Herbert (8) and Chiti. Lary, Cicotte (2), Aguirre (6), Morgan (7) and Lau. Winner—Morgan (1-4). Loser—Tomaneck (6-7). HRS—Bertoia, Chiti, Harris.

LL All-Star Game Ends Summer Play

The Klamath Falls summer baseball and softball program reaches an official close tonight at Gem Stadium as two squads of Little League All-Stars square off in a six-inning exhibition game scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

Because of the fact that National Little League regulations preclude any state or national level tournaments for members still in their first year, the local group,

Guards, MB Cop Men's Playoff Tilts

National Guard took a strong hold on the President's Cup Tuesday night at Conger Field by beating Mouldingcraft 5-2 and win its second straight game in the Men's Softball League post-season playoffs.

In the other game played Tuesday evening, Market Basket eliminated Hal's Sport Shop with a 14-8 victory. The win puts Market Basket in a do-or-die game against Mouldingcraft Thursday night at 7 o'clock. The winner of the Thursday clash will play National Guard next week following the state tournament at Coos Bay.

Bill Benson and Max Revis shared hitting honors for Market Basket with three hits apiece. Jim Derrah aided the Market Basket cause with a home run that helped eliminate Hal's.

In the other game, Mouldingcraft moved ahead 2-0 after the top of the third inning, but the Guards came back with three runs to take a lead they never lost. National Guard picked up its eventual winning margin with two runs in the bottom of the fifth.

Roy Harris paced the Guards with two hits in three trips. Harris singled in two runs and scored another on Harold Metler's single in the big third inning.

Merry Mixers Defeat Teeners

A pair of Klamath Falls girl softball teams met in what could hardly be termed a pitcher's battle on Conger Field Tuesday evening. The game, a five-inning affair, saw the Merry Mixers notch a 19-16 victory over the Klamath Teeners.

The winning pitcher was Mary Ann Matt while the loss was credited to Sherry Davidson.
