

American Stars Win LL Finale

By WAYNE SCOTT
Herald and News Sports Writer

A crowd of more than 400 cheering fans applauded two teams of Little League All-Stars Wednesday night at Gem Stadium in the final baseball game of the Klamath 1958 summer program.

The American League All-Stars edged the National All-Stars 11-10 in a thrilling, extra-inning contest that saw winning pitcher Macky Cunningham snare his own victory with a game-winning single in the bottom of the seventh.

The American League, which was composed of players from the regular season Johns-Manville, Bob's Union Service and the Weyerhaeuser-Don's nines used all 17 men on the roster as did the Nationals, who were made up of Car-Ad-Co, Hal's Sport Shop and Park-Movina players.

Following the contest awards and certificates were presented by Little League president Gene Favell, Favell and Vice President Frank Riecky publicly thanked the parents, fans, coaches, officials and sponsors for making the Little League debut as a member of the National Association of Little Leagues a success.

One extra hit and one less error proved the difference in the outcome of the hard-played finale as the American squad notched 11 markers on six hits while committing six miscues as compared with five hits and seven errors on the part of the Nationals. Three chuckers spread seven American walks while a like number distributed 11 free passes to the Nationals.

Substitutions were made throughout the game on the basis that every player would play two innings.

Charged with loss for the Nationals was Roy Dunham, who worked the third and fourth frames for the Nationals and then reappeared in the seventh. The starting pitcher for the losers was Ronnie Yunck who was relieved by Dunham in the third. Following Dunham was Dennie Rose for whom Dunham came back in the fatal seventh.

The American winner, Cunningham, twirled the first two stanzas and stepped down in favor of Larry Binney. Binney worked two and then was replaced by Randy Lopo. Cunningham returned in the seventh to spell Lopo.

A first-inning pair of scores followed by three in the second pushed the Americans off to a 5-1 lead; the Nationals retaliated with three in the third, tied it up with one in the fourth and moved into command with two more in the top of the fifth. Another tally in the top of the sixth gave the National squad an 8-6 bulge, the American club having been unable to score in the intervening innings.

A three-run American spurge in the bottom of the sixth tied the count and sent the game into overtime. The Nationals boomed right back in the seventh, however, as they counted a pair of runs off two consecutive singles and an American mistake.

The two run lead shorted the Americans iced the contest with a single by Verne Netzer followed by Binney's walk, and an error for the Nats that was capped by Cunningham's timely single.

The leading hitters for the test were Dennie Rose and Marvin Yunck who each poked triples to aid the National cause.

Counting singles were Bill Jones, Bobby Graham, Bobby Tucker, Cunningham, Netzer and Keith Jessup, of the Americans. National players to register safeties were Darwin Edwards, Mike Kitching, and Dunham.

As an intermission feature between the third and fourth innings Klamath Park and Recreation official, Jim Johnson, timed a group of players from both squads in a base-running contest. The National team evened the win counts for the night as Roy Dunham toured the paths in :12.7 to best his nearest rival, 3 of a second.

All Little League players are requested to turn in their suits to their respective coaches no later than this weekend.

College All-Stars Face Tough Order

CHICAGO (AP)—Using a double-unit backfield, the College All-Stars will try to outpass and outrun the Detroit Lions tomorrow night.

That is more than most of the National Football League clubs could do last year.

It is such a tall order the odds-makers think the All-Stars won't come within 13 points of winning. The pro kings will be shooting for their 16th decision in the series. Their last defeat came when the Cleveland Browns lost 30-27 in 1955.

The ex-collegians have seven victories. Two games were tied.

Otto Graham, All-Stars' head coach for the first time, knows he can't show the Lions anything they haven't seen before except new faces.

"We have a good All-Star squad but the trick is not to make too many mistakes," said Graham, who may decide he has enough manpower to relay plays to his quarterbacks in the manner of Paul Brown, his old Cleveland coach.

"We aren't naive enough to think the Lions will make many mistakes. If they do, it will be one of those breaks that might balance the game in our favor. We know we'll have trouble if the Lions feel like playing and want to win."

Graham's two-unit backfield system will key the offense. One set will be led by quarterback King Hill of Rice and include Walt Kowalczyk of Michigan State at fullback and Jim Pace of Michigan and Dick Christy of North Carolina State at halfback.

The other unit will have Jim Ninowski of Michigan State as quarterback, fullback Jim Taylor of Louisiana State, and Bob Mitchell of Illinois and Phil King of Vanderbilt at the halves.

Seldom have the All-Stars had such fine break-away runners as Mitchell, Pace and Len Lyles of Louisville, the 1957 top collegiate scorer with 132 points.

"They have power and speed in such runners as John Sample of Maryland State and Kowalczyk. They have exceptional passers in Hill, Tom Forrestal of Navy and Ninowski."

In addition to the fleet halfbacks they have outstanding receivers at end—such as Fred Dugan of Dayton, Jim Gibbons of Iowa, Bob Jewett of Michigan State and Tom Schulte of East Kentucky State.

All this plus a line that could average 234 pounds from tackle to tackle.

Solons Blast Ford, Orioles Nip Sullivan

By United Press International
 It looks like the Milwaukee Braves are about to win the 1958 National League pennant the same way they won the 1957 flag—by stomping all over the Cincinnati Redlegs.

And even the streaking, miracle-working Pittsburgh Pirates won't be able to do much about it if the Braves keep knocking off the Redlegs at a .800-pace, as they've been doing the past two years.

The Braves, rocked by two straight losses in Pittsburgh, returned to the winning track Wednesday night when they picked on their favorite "cousins" for 9-2 and 4-2 victories. The sweep built the Braves' lead back to 5½ games despite the fact the second-place Pirates beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 10-9, and the third-place San Francisco Giants drubbed the St. Louis Cardinals, 11-2.

The Braves ripped the Redlegs apart, 18-4 last season and have a 10-3 edge this year making a two-year domination of 28-7 for 600.

Braves 9-4, Reds 2-2
 Juan Pizarro pitched a seventh-inning homer in the first game for the Braves and Lew Burdette came through with a six-hitter in the nightcap. The Braves' long-ball sluggers were at work as usual Adeock blasting a three-run first-inning homer in the opener and Ed Mathews and Andy Patko homering in the nightcap.

Bud Cook	K4	217
Wes Bishop	K10	190
Hal Stewart	K35	155
Al Bonotto	K3	149
Corky Waterman	C76	149

With only a few races remaining in which to overtake the leaders in the drive for the KRA championship, a full complement of local and Northern California hardtop drivers will take the green flag Saturday night in another evening of thrills and action on the Eberlein Street raceway.

The present leader, Bud Cook, who whirled his K4 to a victory in the 25 lap main event the last time out, is being closely pressed by determined Wes Bishop in K10. Bishop, Cook and Corky Waterman, the Alturas speedster, are all eyeing the track record of :18.80 set by Ray Brackman in 1956. The nearest any of this year's competitors have come to the mark for the quarter-mile trip is a shade under :20.00.

Dale Hankins who rests slightly out of the first five racked up a second to Cook in the last main event. Waterman captured the first heat and then roared back to nip Cook at the wire in the final heat.

Other winners on the last KRA card include Cook, who won the third heat, Kenny Kimes, who popped down front in the second heat, Rich Gohan who captured the trophy dash, and Gary Mick, the junior ace who won the trophy in his class. Mick also won the junior heat race.

A plan to heighten the action in the big 25 lap main event on this week's card is afoot, according to association spokesman Ray Brackman. All the cars at the track will be entered in the main, thus providing more traffic and closer competition. Special features for the Saturday show are also being planned.

The nine-event program will get under way with time trials beginning at 6:30 p.m. followed by the three trophy dashes at 7:30.

Golfer Scores Hole In Nothing

SPOKANE (AP)—And then there was the golfer from California who got a hole in nothing! Nick Nardolillo of Spring Valley, Calif., did it Wednesday on the Esmeralda course during the pro-amateur warmup for the National Senior Open.

A 17 handicap golfer, Nardolillo got one stroke on the par-3 eighth hole. He picked out a spoon and whacked the ball straight into the cup 208 yards away.

A hole in one? No. A hole in nothing.

Because Nardolillo had a handicap stroke, his eighth was duly registered on both scorecard and score board as a "0."

Peck, Blakely Meet In Semis

VICTORIA, B. C. (AP)—Tacoma's Roger Peck, who won the Pacific Northwest Senior's Assn. title on the fourth hole in 1952, clinched his quarter-finals match Wednesday on the same hole.

Peck and Dr. Merle Taylor of Portland were on their second time around the Victoria Golf Club course when the Tacoma defeated Taylor 1-up on the fourth.

Thursday Peck met defending champion Bill Blakely of Portland in the semi-finals.

In the other semi-final Edgar Eisenhower of Tacoma matched strokes with Ralph Whaley of Seattle.

Blakely advanced with a 5 and 4 win over S. E. Stretton of Seattle. Eisenhower defeated Jack Edgell, Vancouver, B.C., 3 and 2 and Blakely defeated fellow Seattle Paul Piggott 1-up.

Ewbank Waives Colt Linemen

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP)—Coach Weeb Ewbank began the task of paring his Baltimore Colts squad to 35 men today by cutting off two rookies.

Released on waivers were tackle James Barton of Marshall College in Huntington, W. Va., and guard Floyd Peters of San Francisco State.

The team must be down to 43 men by Sept. 2 under National Football League rules.

The cut reduced the squad to 56.

Ex-Basinettes, Basinettes Vie

A women's softball season highlight is scheduled for Gem Stadium Friday night as the Klamath Basinettes meet a squad of ex-Basinettes in a seven-inning exhibition to start at 8 o'clock.

On the ex-Basinettes roster are a pair of popular local stars: Teddy Walker, who ranked All-State catcher for a number of years and pitcher Pat Barron, who, in the recent state tournament at Camp White, was cited the tourney's outstanding hurler.

On the mound for the present Basinettes will be Joy Adreon while Terry Wickline will work behind the plate.

Kubs Eye Victory In NC Play

Klamath Falls Kubs, currently tied for the lead in Northern California League play, close out their scheduled home baseball season Sunday afternoon at Gem Stadium as they host Mount Shasta in an important NCL meeting.

Klamath is tied with Weed for the league lead and needs a win to keep in the thick of the fight for the league title. Weed plays at Scott Valley Sunday. In the other Sunday NCL battle, Dunsuir and Yreka are scheduled to meet at Dunsuir.

Manager Irv Whitt's Klamath Falls club will be counting on the strong right arms of Gerry Burcher and big Dave D'Olivio to stifle Mount Shasta here Sunday. Last week Burcher and D'Olivio combined efforts to whip Yreka 9-6.

Any combination of one win or loss by either Weed or Klamath would all but eliminate either of the two clubs. Both the Kubs and Weed have a rain out to make up at a time and site to be named later.

Friday night, Klamath takes its semi-pro club to Drain to meet the Oregon NBC baseball champions. The Klamath-Drain meeting will be a one-game stand for the Kubs.

Midgets Set For Big Gate

Tickets for Friday night's Old Army wrestling card are moving very fast according to promoter Buck Davidson as he awaits the arrival of the famous wrestling midgets.

Four of the world's finest wrestling midgets will be on hand to headline the four-four program. The pint-sized grapplers slated to take part in a tag team scrap are Tiny Roe, Lord Littlebrook, The Brown Panther and the devil himself, Ivan The Terrible Russian.

In addition to these fine midget musclemen, Davidson will also have Henry "Golden Boy" Lenz, Angelo Matrino, Eddie Sullivan and Luigi Maccera.

The midgets and heavyweights will both stage a tag team battle, plus an extra 15-minute warmup two-man bout.

Dick Reeder's Store for Men is handling the advance ticket sale for Davidson's promotion. To take care of all of the children wanting to see the midgets, Davidson has listed children's ringside reserved seats at 90 cents, adult ringside tickets are $1.75. Adult balcony seats are $1.25 and all children 12 and under accompanied by their parents will be admitted free to the balcony.

Grid Officials, Coaches To Meet

A special clinic for all Klamath County football coaches and officials will be held beginning at 8 o'clock tonight in the new cafeteria at Klamath Union High School.

The clinic, one of a series conducted throughout the state prior to the opening of the fall school term, is headed primarily at discussing rules interpretations although Hawes will also present officials' examinations for certification.

Coaches and officials from all points in the Klamath area are expected to attend.

Merle Hanscam, operator of Lucky Lanes, announced Wednesday the scheduled personal appearance in Klamath Falls Saturday of Dick Hoover, a nationally famous bowling great, in a pair of exhibition matches on the local alleys.

Hoover is considered one of the top bowlers in the country and serves on the Brunswick Advisory staff of champions.

Hoover will roll against Klamathite Pete Bray at 2 p.m. Saturday and will tangle with Bud Rodgers at 7:30 in the evening.

Lucky Lanes will be closed from August 18 to September 2, Hanscam disclosed. Winter league play will begin September 3. Team members are advised to check with squad captains.

M. Crawford, Ortega Draw

NEW YORK (AP)—For what ever it may be worth to world welterweight champion Virgil Akins, Mickey Crawford now regards himself as the No. 1 contender for the crown.

"Why shouldn't I?" scowled the Saginaw, Mich., boxer-artist Thursday. "I know I won last night's fight with Gaspar Ortega. And even though they called it a draw, I still regard myself as No. 1 contender."

Well, what Crawford says may be true, but the chances are that his next battle will be with this same Ortega. They now have met twice. A month ago, Ortega won a split decision. Wednesday night in Madison Square Garden they fought a draw.

There's no doubt that the deadlock will work to Crawford's advantage. Ortega currently is No. 1 on the list for Virgil Akins' crown. He needed a victory over Crawford to cement his claims.

Actually, Crawford made him look bad through most of the fight and The Associated Press saw Mickey, the artist, as victor, 6-4. That card agreed with Judge Joe Eppley's.

However, Judge Bill Recht, saw Ortega the winner, 7-3. Referee Barney Felix called it all even, 4-4 in rounds, and 5-5 in points. The point system is used in New York State in case of a tie in rounds.
