

Pet Milk and Jell-O Ice Cream Sauces Featured at Buy-Low

The ice cream sauces being featured by Pet Evaporated Milk and Jell-O Instant Pudding (the "busy-day" dessert) will be available for tasting at Buy-Low Food Center, 1338 Oregon Avenue, on Saturday.

Bud Robinson, Pet Milk and Sego Milk representative for Southern Oregon and Joe Hok, General Foods representative, will put on the day-long demonstration for Harold Clark at the Buy-Low supermarket.

Recipes are in most of the markets in Klamath Falls right now. Keep the remainder of the sauce telling the easy ways to make toppings for America's favorite dessert, the ice cream sundae. Here are some of the combinations:

BUTTERSCOTCH SAUCE

Mix until smooth 1 package of Jell-O Butterscotch Instant Pudding and 2-3 cup of dark corn syrup. Stir in gradually 1/4 cup of Pet Evaporated Milk. Let stand to thicken, about 10 minutes.

This makes about two cups of topping for ice cream or puddings. Keep the remainder of the sauce in the refrigerator if you don't use it all at once.

CHOCOLATE MINT

Mix until smooth 1 package Jell-O Chocolate Instant Pudding and 2-3 cup light or dark corn syrup. Stir in gradually 1/4 cup Pet Evaporated Milk. Add 1/4 teaspoon peppermint extract. Let stand to thicken. Yield: about two cups of sauce.

VARIATIONS

The Pet Milk-Jell-O Pudding sauces can be used for any fancy ice cream sundae you wish to dream up. Party parfaits in your prettiest tall, slim glasses make a hit for dessert or for a treat at any time. Alternate scoops of ice cream with your favorite sauces. Top with a cherry.

Keep extra portions of the sauces in the refrigerator, ready for the youngsters' ice cream bar these hot summer days. Remember that ice cream will help give the youngsters their full milk quota during these months they are missing the regular milk servings at school.

Portable Sundaes

Up to now the deliciously gooey ice cream sundae has been strictly a dessert you eat while sitting down. However, it now becomes a dessert to take away from its plate and spoon, to eat and enjoy while standing or walking along. Admittedly this will have most appeal for children, which makes it ideal refreshment for children's parties. But grownups will like the idea too, after they've seen and tasted their first "Traveling Sundaes."

COOLING DRINK

Add richly—flavored a piece of whole fruit nectar to lemonade for a delicious cooling drink on a warm day. Serve over cracked ice in tall glasses and garnish with mint to make it look even cooler.

You'll find it easy to make these little portable desserts, and you'll probably be tempted to make a lot so as to have them on hand. They're waffle ice cream cuplets (available at the grocery) that are filled with delicious homemade banana ice cream. When the mixture is partially frozen, a knife handle is inserted and the resulting hole is filled with the sundae sauce. When completely frozen, the sundaes can be fancied up with whipped cream, more sundae sauce, chopped nuts and similar good things.

Royal Instant Banana Cream Pudding makes the easy-to-do ice cream, and supplies the fine banana flavor that's such a hit with young and old. It's simply beaten with milk and cream just until blended—takes not more than a minute—and then turned into the cuplets to freeze. One package of the delicious pudding makes eight Traveling Sundaes, enough to give four youngsters a sundae for each hand if you're really feeling generous.

TRAVELING SUNDAES

1 cup light cream
1 cup cold milk
1 package Royal Instant Banana Cream Pudding
8 waffle ice cream cuplets
1/4 cup chocolate syrup
Instant whipped topping

Pour cream and milk into a deep bowl. Add pudding. Beat until well mixed, about one minute. Pour into ice cream cuplets. Freeze in refrigerator freezing compartment with control set for fast freezing, or in freezer. When partially frozen, insert a dinner knife handle toward one side and straight down into the pudding of each cuplet. Remove knife handle and fill hole with chocolate syrup (a baster works fine for this) or maraschino cherry if desired. Serve with whipped topping and a sprinkling of nuts, more syrup. Makes 8 sundaes.
