Garden Club Show Slated

MALIN — The Malin Garden Club will present its sixth annual flower show Friday, August 15, at the Malin Community Hall. An informal theme, "Make Mine Country Style" has been chosen for this year's show.

Hours will be 2 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. with entries to be received from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Exhibits arriving after closing of books at 11 a.m. will be marked "not in competition." Sweepstake prizes will be awarded in both horticulture and arrangement divisions to exhibitors receiving the most blue ribbons. Cash prizes will be given in the junior division.

Containers for horticulture specimens will be furnished. All exhibits will remain until 9 p.m. Out-of-town exhibitors may mark containers and pick them up within a week at Kalina's Hardware in Malin.

At 3 p.m. a film on the "Litterbug Campaign" will be shown. Commercial and conservation exhibits will also be on display.

Entries in the horticulture classes include annuals, biennials, perennials, roses, grains, vegetables, trees, shrubs or vines and potted plants. Horticulture entries must be grown by exhibitor.

In each class of the arrangement division there will be a section for those who have won five or more blue ribbons and a section for those who have won less than five blue ribbons in previous flower shows entered. The theme will be carried out in the arrangement division in nine classes including an arrangement in a basket, composition for a picnic buffet, composition in a kitchen utensil, arrangement of so-called weeds, whimsical arrangement for informal room, arrangement in an ash-tray, composition including a dog, composition featuring a lamp, and an arrangement of various kinds of fruits and (or) vegetables and any foliage. One class for men only calls for a composition featuring anything used in a stable.

In the junior division there are two separate classes for girls, two for boys, and two for boys and girls combined. The junior division classes feature for the girls an arrangement like that mother makes for the table and animals from vegetables or fruits; for the boys an arrangement featuring the rhyme, "Three Little Pigs" and an arrangement using equipment used for harvest on the farm. For the combined classes, an arrangement featuring the story, "The Little Red Hen," and in recognition of Oregon's 100th birthday, an arrangement with a pioneer theme.

Flowers used in arrangements need not be grown by the exhibitor but must be grown in the Klamath area. The standard system of judging will be used. There will be a silver tea. An invitation is extended to the public to participate. General flower chairman is Mrs. Edwin Stastny with Mrs. Loyal Loveness as staging chairman.

NANTUCKET, Mass. (AP)—Dr. Dudley White, 72, cut a blue ribbon yesterday, mounted his bicycle and spryly pedaled seven miles to the opposite end of this island and back again.

The ribbon cutting marked dedication of a short strip of the commonwealth's first state-financed cycle path. About 25 enthusiasts of various ages followed him over the 14-mile route.

Fair Holding Pet Parade

YREKA — Attention is being called to all boys and girls that they should enter their pets in the Pet Parade, another of the many feature attractions of the Siskiyou County Fair. The Pet Parade will be held at the fairgrounds in Yreka at 11 a.m. on Saturday, August 16, on the midway.

The Siskiyou County Shrine Club has taken charge of this grand event this year and will direct it. They have made the entering a very simple matter. Youngsters, who have pets, should be at the fairgrounds on August 16, at 10:30 a.m., and register at the desk that will be on the midway. There are no entry blanks. The only requirements are that the child be 12 years old or under, and the desire to have a lot of fun with the other kids and their pets.

There will be ribbons and prizes for the many classes: Smallest, largest, most unusual, best displayed, or whatever they may choose. The Pet Parade committee stresses "Be sure and be there on time to get your number and your place in the parade; then lead, carry, ride your pet down th midway and back past the judges stand. There is nothing else to do. The judges will do the work.

"There will be a surprise for all entries after the parade is over, so be there with your pet; have fun and show the other kids just how nice your pet is."
