

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY --- CHURCH DIRECTORY

Bible School Opening Set

TULELAKE — A one-week vacation Bible school will open at the Church of Christ, Tulelake, Monday morning, August 18, at 9 o'clock. Classes will adjourn at 1 p.m.

Theme of the school will be "We Worship the Lord," to be carried out in all phases of lessons, songs, games and handicrafts.

Again, as in other years, Sparky and his puppet friends will make daily announcements and provide Bible dramas for the young people. This year the puppet work will be the project for the high school class attending Bible school. This group not only studies worship of the Lord but helps younger children visualize their lessons through the use of puppets.

Through cooperation of the First Christian Church, Klamath Falls, their educational director, Arlene Skaugset will direct the school this year. Assisting her on the teaching staff will be Millie Tatum, Vera Reeves, Ruth Asher, Linda Asher, Evelyn Spangler, Barbara Hollander, Helen Olney, Judy Baley, Virginia Lindsey, Sharon Kafton and Betty Hosman.

The school will close with a special program Friday evening, August 22, at 8 o'clock for parents and other interested persons. Those attending the school will take part in the program. Handwork of all classes will be displayed.

All interested young people from kindergarten through high school are invited to attend. Each take a lunch. Milk will be furnished. Lloyd Hosman is the minister.

Siskiyou Hosts Meet

DUNSMUIR — Southern Siskiyou County is currently host to the 11th annual youth convention of the I Am Ascended Master followers known as the St. Germain Foundation.

The convention will culminate with the presentation of a pageant depicting the life of Christ in the St. Germain amphitheater, one mile east of Mount Shasta. This will be given Sunday morning, August 24.

Preparation for the pageant, study and recreation will occupy delegates from all over the U.S. and from several foreign countries this week and next. Mrs. G. W. Ballard, president of the St. Germain Foundation, arrived last week and is directing convalescent activities.

The St. Germain Foundation has its headquarters at Shasta Springs just north of Dunsmuir. Followers of this religious movement find the region around Mount Shasta of great inspiration. The late G. W. Ballard, founder of the order, used revelations made to him by St. Germain on the slopes of Mt. Shasta as the basis of his teachings. Mrs. Ballard explained.

Revised Film To Be Shown

The revised version of the film "God of the Atom," will be shown Sunday evening, 7:30, at the Altamont Junior High School by the American Baptist Church. This color film is a startlingly different approach to the atomic bomb problem.

Beginning with the first atomic blast at Nagasaki, the film presents a survey of nuclear fission as demonstrated in the atomic bomb. Featured are exclusive photographs of equipment used in atomic research, demonstrations of the tremendous energies within every tiny particle of matter which man has learned to release, and actual pictures of the Nagasaki and Bikini explosions — behind the scenes pictures that capture all the suspense of the actual events.

This film has recently been revised to include the hydrogen bomb and many up-to-date atomic developments. This film is produced by Moody Science. All are cordially invited.

New Church Pastor Schedules Speech

The Rev. Robert C. Groves, new pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Klamath Falls, will speak at the Sunday, August 17, morning worship service at 11 on "Dimensions of Christian Faith."

Five of the young people in Malin to build the Christian Center at the Malin migrant camp will be special guests. The group is among others here from Stockton.

Sue Thompson will sing "Teach Me, O Lord," La Farge. Mrs. George McIntyre will be at the organ.

The population of Utah has climbed to 858,000, says the Utah Economic and Business Review. This is a gain of 169,000 since the 1950 census.
