

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, (Taiwan on old maps) has been home to Major and Mrs. Peter D. Pavick, and their two young daughters, Linda, 11, left, and Judy, 8, for the last two years. The family has been in Klamath Falls as guests of the major's sister, Mrs. Phil Lee and her family after landing on American soil from duty with the Military Assistance Advisory Group. He is to report at a later date at the Pentagon, Washington, D.C. for an assignment with the office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel. The much traveled family has lived in other parts of the world, Africa, Algiers, Sicily, Italy, Germany following the officer's World War II combat duty. The family flew home from the Far East, will travel to Washington in a new car. They found the Chinese people delightful friends and companions and living conditions comfortable in Formosa. veil. Her corsage was of red roses. Mrs. Cheyne wore a blue lace frock with a matching feathered headress and a white rose corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the young couple greeted the nearly 300 guests at a reception in the social parlor adjoining the church. The lace covered refreshment table was centered by a four-tiered white wedding cake, ornately decorated with tangerine-colored roses and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. After the first slice of cake was cut by the new Mr. and Mrs. Cheyne, Mrs. Lena Buck and Mrs. Wilbur O. Brickner, aunts of the bride, served the confection.

Barbecue

LANGELL VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vaden gave a barbecue at their home in Langell Valley on August 5, a farewell party for their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vaden and granddaughter Becky Lynn. The young Vadens are moving to Watsonville. He graduated from Corvallis this year as a pharmacist.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Travis Callaway of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Vaden and children of Odessa, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Daniels and children and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Vaden of Klamath Falls, Sherdel Page of Fort Klamath, Anita Vaden, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vaden and Becky and the host and hostess.

At the coffee service was Barbara McVay, cousin of the bridegroom; serving punch was Mrs. Leroy Johnson. Attending the gift table was Anne Brickner, cousin of the bride. Margie Qualls assisted the guests signing the bride's book.

For travel, Loretta chose a two piece red ensemble with matching hat and accessories and her bridal orchid pinned to her shoulder. The couple's wedding trip will take them to Lake Louise, Canada. After August 15 they will be at home in their apartment on California Avenue in Klamath Falls.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Henley High School and attended one year each at Oregon

State College and Oregon Technical Institute. At the present time he has farming interests in the Basin. The bride, a graduate of Merrill High School, attended Oregon State College two years and one year at Southern Oregon College.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. F. M. Cheyne, grandmother of the bridegroom, Portland; Mrs. Viola Pollard, Crescent City; Mrs. Emma Brickner, grandmother of the bride, Everett, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harbin, Brookings; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kidwell, Astland; Obie Tumelson, Cour d'Alene, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Turnbaugh, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Wells, Sacramento.

The young couple was feted at several pre-nuptial events culminated by a rehearsal dinner party held at Harold's the evening prior to the wedding.
