Women Of Moose Chapter Night

Mooseheart Alumni Chapter night was observed in a meeting of Women of the Moose, Klamath Falls Chapter, No. 467, on August 5 in the Moose Hall with Arlene Collier, presiding. She was assisted by committee members Pat Morgan, Dorothy Poppy, Norman Samplauski.

Charlotte Carmichael who spent several weeks in Europe this summer, showed slides taken at the World's Fair in Brussels. Refreshments were served to 25 members following the meeting.

CALL FOR ACTION

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Declaring that "segregation is not in conformity with the teaching of Christ," the Very Rev. Msgr. Francis J. Gilligan told the Catholic Theological Society of America that state officials are guilty "of the sin of injustice, positively, if they encourage segregation, negatively, if they remain inactive."

Ramblings

The Earl Shepherds, who in other years owned a music store in our town, visited briefly with old friends last week, from place they've called home in San Marino since they gave up Oregon for California. Sold home in Palm Springs and will do bit of traveling.

Newcomers Ruth and Lowell Jones, who stepped into shoes left vacant by Clifford and Arzello Voight when they sold Main Street business, will be guests of honor at cocktails, 5 to 7, come Monday the 18th. Hosts Ruth and Frank Adams and Lois Serruys will greet guests in delightful garden of Adams home, 2015 Huron Street.

Ruth Proctor, who also answers to Mrs. Arch, had brother Lester Phelps and Mrs. P. from that spot in California that sounds so mysterious, Valley of the Moon where anything might happen. Lester Phelps took Mrs. Lawrence Phelps home with them for earned vacation.

Oregon's wonderful scenery captivated New Yorkers, Mrs. William H. Coon and Mrs. Marion Buchholz, visiting few days with Bob and Ida Odell up Ewauna Street way. Back in Midwest, distant relatives are known as "kiss-in cousins." Mrs. C is Mrs. O's cousin by marriage.

Dr. Hugh and Madelyn Swany have houseguest, doctor's sister, Mrs. Rex Woods and son Rex III. Mrs. W is of daily newspaper fame in home town. Guests will visit also in Laguna Beach and other spots along the beaches of the Pacific.

Barbara and George Ryzek, who know that we have frosts in June in Klamath Falls, have returned here to build home near Mrs. R's mother, Mrs. Mary Grigsby, on Old Midland Road. Mr. R, lumber inspector for Western Pine Association, has been transferred here from Spokane. Daughter Donna, just turned 13, came too.

Today is big day on picnic calendar. . . . Oldtimers at Fort Klamath. . . . Klamath Historical Society traveling to spots in Basin that should be remembered and Tulelake Legion at Malin Park.

Gals and guys in our "countryside" are going all out for water skiing. Drive to Upper Klamath Lake some Sunday and watch perfection of enthusiasts, graceful as swallows. . . . some get dunked, some do not.

McPEAK-PECK RITES IN RENO

ALTURAS—Bonnie Ford, daughter of Mrs. Donald E. McPeak, became the bride of Paul Eugene Peck Jr., also of Alturas, at a double wedding ring ceremony in the First Methodist Church of Reno, Nevada, on Saturday, August 2. The Rev. Stephen C. Thomas, pastor, officiated.

Bonnie is a student at Modoc Union High School and is a past president and a member of Pocatentas Theta Rho Club for girls and holds the appointive office of fourth herald of the Theta Rho Assembly of California.

Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Peck Sr., of Alturas. Bonnie wore a dress of pink and white with a corsage of pink roses and white accessories. Her attendant was Mrs. Frank McKinney, who chose a chemise of white and turquoise. Her corsage was of pink baby roses.

CHICKEN, BARBECUED over red hot charcoal, in the open beneath the trees in Moore Park on the evening of August 12, brought some 100 hungry persons to the picnic sponsored by Eulalona Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Chef for the barbecue was George Paris of the Blue Ox. Mrs. Paris chairmanned the event. Money raised will be used to complete the furnishings of the Robert D. Newell House, home of Oregon's first provincial governor at Champoege, and to give aid to the two sponsored schools of the American Indian Committee. Left to right are Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, Mrs. George Paris, the chef, George Paris, and Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, chapter regent.

No Hostess Hotel Luncheon For Mrs. Carter

ALTURAS—Mrs. Beatrice Carter of Honolulu, T.H., leader in the field of education in the islands, was feted with a no-hostess luncheon in the Mallard Room of the Hotel Modoc Tuesday noon, August 5, during a brief visit to her sister, Mrs. Cal Cook, and other relatives.

Mrs. Carter has resigned from the principalship of the second largest elementary school in Honolulu as of August 31, 1958, to accept the position of rural supervisor of elementary schools of Oahu. Mrs. Carter has seen the pupil personnel of her school grow from less than 300 to more than 1,000 during her 28 years as its principal. Her new assignment calls for supervision of 81 schools.

Mrs. Carter told her friends about the cooperation of parents and teachers in her school and indicated that she is 100 per cent in favor of PTA work. In fact, she stated that she would not think of teaching where there was no PTA. She was the guest of the Alturas Elementary PTA in two of its radio programs when she visited Alturas three years ago.

Mrs. Roy Bigler entertained with two piano numbers. The luncheon, an impromptu affair, was attended by Mrs. Nellie Fincke of Honolulu, mother of Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Cal Cook, Mrs. Ralph Laird, Mrs. Katie Gloster, Mrs. Ethel Harter, Mrs.

Richard Barrett, Mrs. Roy Bigler, Mrs. Cal Cook, Mrs. Charles Demick, Mrs. Orville Spath and the honoree.

Mrs. Carter and her mother, who has been visiting relatives in Alturas for three weeks while Mrs. Carter vacationed in the East, will leave California this weekend for Honolulu.
