

August Weddings And Engagements Fill Social Calendar

MRS. JAMES CECIL CHEYNE
— Photo by Ferebee

Loretta M. Lemler Is Bride of J. C. Cheyne

MERRILL—The First Presbyterian Church in Merrill was the scene of the wedding of Loretta Marie Lemler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Lemler, Merrill, to James Cecil Cheyne, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Cecil Cheyne of the Merrill Highway, on Saturday evening, August 2. The nuptial service, read by the Rev. Lloyd Henderson, united two well known Basin families.

Basket arrangements of tangerine - shaded gladioli and carnations, potted palms and lighted tapers formed the effective background for the double ring ceremony. Alternate pews were marked with tall mint green tapers tied with tangerine satin bows.

Mrs. Lawrence Geraghty, organist, played an interlude of appropriate music during the sealing of the wedding guests. She also accompanied Kurt Fiedler, soloist, who sang "O Promise Me," "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted down the white-carpeted aisle by her father who gave her in marriage, the bride was radiant in an exquisite gown of white lace over satin. The fitted bodice had a yoke of net, with swirls of lace applique simulating a wide neckline, dotted with seed pearls and rhinestones. The long full skirt extended into a full court train.

A seed pearl and rhinestone crown held the fingertip veil of net. The gown and veil had been formerly worn by the bride's sister, Ariene, at her wedding four years ago. The bridal bouquet was a white orchid arrangement atop a white Bible. Selected as her bridesmaids were Elizabeth Barbee, Salem; Carol Brown, Chico; Janice Byrd, Prineville; and Mrs. Ronald Lovness, the former Mary Lou Qualls, a recent bride, now of Malin.

The girls wore gowns of mint green satin featuring the bouffant harem hemline and bodices of dark green velveteen with an empire waist. Large bows of mint green satin added back interest to the long fitted torso. Their matching headbands were accented with short mint green veils of net dotted with seed pearls.

They carried cascade arrangements of tangerine carnations tied with satin bows of mint green. Mrs. Ronald Trotman (Ariene Lemler), sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was made identical to those of the bridesmaids except in tangerine with contrasting darker burnt orange bodice. She, too, wore a matching headband of tangerine and carried a cascade arrangement of tangerine carnations surrounding dark red roses and matching streamers. The only jewelry worn by the attendants were necklaces, gifts of the bride.

Best man for his brother was Vincent Cheyne. Ushers were Chris Lemler, brother of the bride, Merrill, and Tom Wright, Bob Axel and Jack Kirkpatrick, all of Klamath Falls.

The bride's mother chose a gown of cocoa brown lace and matching headband with a brief

(Continued on Page 4B)

SOCIETY

Herald and News
Aug. 17, 1958
Klamath Falls,
Oregon

MRS. THOMAS EARL O'HARRA
— Ferebee Photo

Estelline Kiger Weds Thomas Earl O'Harra

Culminating a three year romance, the wedding of Estelline Kiger and Thomas Earl O'Harra was solemnized in an evening ceremony August 3 at the Klamath Lutheran Church. The Rev. Leroy Redal officiated at the 8 o'clock rites which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Estin Bailey Kiger, 4707 Clinton Avenue, to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. O'Harra, 611 Hillside Avenue.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by both of her parents, chose a traditional white wedding gown in classic style, of nylon tulle over satin with bouffant skirt which extended into a formal train. Chantilly lace over satin formed the fitted bodice. Her finger length veil fell from a half hat of Chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, topped with lilac-colored pearls.

Estelline had her sister, Karen, Mrs. Harold Lyon, as her matron of honor. Patricia O'Harra, twin sister of the bridegroom, Kaye Kidwell and Virginia Walkley were bridesmaids. All of the bride's honor attendants wore identical dresses of lilac-colored taffeta, fashioned in princess lines with velvet bows of a deeper shade of lilac at the neckline. They carried lavender carnations and stephanotis attached to white lace fans. Their headbands of lilac velvet, tulle and seed pearls were made by the bride and her sister.

Tom had asked John Michael Murphy to perform best man duties for him. Estin B. Kiger Jr., brother of the bride, William Nolan and Mickey T. Morris seated the guests.

Mrs. Arthur Dennison was organist and a cousin of the bridegroom, Joan Belshaw of San Francisco, was soloist.

Mrs. Kiger, mother of the bride, wore a pale green crushed taffeta sheath with a pole green net hat made with velvet leaves on the crown. Mrs. O'Harra, mother of the bridegroom, chose an ice blue sheath with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white orchids.

The reception, immediately following the ceremony, was held in the church parlors and lavender and white gladioli carried out the same decorating scheme as that used in the sanctuary. The wedding cake, decorated with small white and lavender roses, was topped with the traditional bride and bridegroom under lilac-tinted arbor.

Assisting at the reception were three aunts of the bride, Mrs. Morgan Johnson and Mrs. George Thomas, who were at the coffee service, and Mrs. Kenneth Kiger, who served the cake. Others assisting were Karla Tomlin, Mrs.

(Continued on page 2B)

MRS. RAYMOND ALLAN VAWTER
(Nee Virginia Lee Martz)
— Photos by Guderian

Vawter - Martz Rites At St. Paul's Church

Virginia Lee (Ginger) Martz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martz of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Raymond Allan Vawter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vawter of Sunnyside, Washington, in a double ring ceremony August 2 in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Klamath Falls. The Rev. Galen Onsted of All Saints' Episcopal Church, Redding, officiated at the 2 o'clock ceremony.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of imported Swiss organza with embroidered organza flowers edging the low Basque waistline, the demure sleeves, neckline and bouffant skirt. Her circular veil of fine pure silk imported Illusion was attached to a crown of fine hand - clipped lace, edged with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Bettie Rae Knoblauch, Portland, maid of honor, was gowned in a waltz length dress of pink cotton with puffed short sleeves and matching cummerbund. The bridesmaids, Kayce Ann Martz, the bride's sister of Klamath Falls; Ann Onstad, Redding, California; and Mary Zoe Petrik, Portland, wore identical gowns to the maid of honor's. The bridal attendants all wore matching picture hats of fine lace and carried cascading bouquets of white spider chrysanthemums and pink carnations.

Susan Garrison, cousin of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Garrison, Bakersfield, California, was flower girl. Jerry Hall, Portland, was best man and Bob Gaps, Loren Rice, Howard Chase, all of Portland, and Robert Enman, Henley, were ushers. The best man and ushers are all fraternity brothers of the bridegroom. Marie Obenchain was organist and Jean Badorek, soloist.

The mother of the bride was gowned in an afternoon dress of beige lace and silk organza and she wore a bronze orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom chose a rose lace dress for her son's wedding with which she wore a pink orchid.

The reception in the church parlor following the ceremony carried out the pink and white color scheme. The four-tiered cake, decorated with white roses and swans, topped with two wedding bells, was cut and served by Mrs. Erma Gerue, aunt of the bride, and Norma Brailer, Mrs. Orland Lynch was at the coffee urn and Jan Earnshaw, Portland, and Carol Biehn were at

(Continued on page 2B)

A LATE SPRING or early summer wedding is in the future plans of Margaret Jean (Peggy) Sumner, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Sumner, 229 Alameda Avenue, recently announced her engagement to Larry M. Worden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Worden, 1215 Owens Street. Peggy was graduated with the 1958 class of KUHS and Larry graduated from KUHS in 1956, attended Southern Oregon College, Oregon State College and is now an electronics student at OTI. — Miller-Williams Photo MUTUAL FRIENDS of Marcie Lois Mills, Macdoel, California, and John Leslie Boland, El Cerrito, California, learned the young couple planned to be married, when they were invited to a cocktail birthday party. Friends gathered at the bridegroom's apartment in Berkeley, to hear the news. No date has been set for the wedding. Marcia is a member of a pioneer Klamath County family, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. DeLos Mills of Macdoel and Klamath Falls. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Boland, El Cerrito, California. She is a graduate of St. Helen's Hall, Portland, later attended the University of Oregon where she met her future husband, a senior next term at U of O. Mr. and Mrs. Mills went south for the announcement party.