OTI Names New Dean

Jack E. Brookins, who came to Oregon Tech in 1956 as supervisor of the school of technical associates, has been newly appointed to the position of dean of instruction at the institute.

Brookins received both his B.E. and his M.E. from Colorado A and M College where he majored in administration and supervision of vocational education.

Before joining the OTI staff in 1956, Brookins was the assistant state supervisor of trade and industrial education with the state division of vocational education in Salem. Prior to that time he was employed for six years as coordinator and director of vocational and adult education in the public schools of Roseburg as well as in Pasco, Washington.

Serving in the armed forces for three and one-half years as a technical sergeant, he presently holds a commission as a first lieutenant in the Air Force Volunteer Air Reserve, being classified as educational and training officer.

The Brookins family includes Mrs. Brookins (Frances), a daughter, Allyn Lee, 7, and son Scott, 6. The family resides at No. 4 Klamath Circle on the OTI campus.

Man Arrested For Car Theft Robert Brown, 33, who told police he was a farm laborer from Tulelake, was arrested at 3:20 a.m. Sunday for allegedly driving without an operator's license.

City police report they learned later the same morning that Dorothy P. Davis, 3609 Alhambra Drive, had reported the car Brown was driving as stolen, to state police at 4 a.m. Brown was accordingly booked on suspicion of larceny of an auto. He claimed he was using the car with the owner's permission.

Artifactors Meet Tonight

Klamath Artifactors will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Klamath County Library to make final plans for the group's first show of artifacts to be held this weekend, according to Ray Mattson, president.

Gene Favell and Lane Smith are co-chairmen of the three day exhibition which will occupy the lecture room of the county library. Hours have been set from 1 to 9 p.m. on Friday; 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Saturday and 1 to 5 p.m. on Sunday. Individual frames of artifacts will be labeled to indicate when and where the material was recovered.

The show will be set up from 6 to 10 o'clock on Thursday night and last minute entries will be accepted at that time. There will be no charge for the show and the public is invited to attend. Favell will show a series of slides on Friday and Saturday evenings with different slides selected for the two evenings. During the other hours, there will be members of the Artifactors present to answer questions about the exhibits. There are more than 50 members in the group and it is anticipated that the show will occupy one whole floor of the library.
