Kubs Win NCL Championship

Browns, LA Rams Cop Wins

United Press International

Tradition says the team that loses in a National Football League title game goes into a tailspin the following year — but those "losing" Cleveland Browns are off to a much more impressive start in the exhibition season than the winning Detroit Lions.

The Browns, who took a 59-14 walloping from the Lions in last season's lopsided championship game, were their old "hard rock" selves as they scored a 10-0 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers Saturday night.

That was in marked contrast to the Lions' 35-19 loss to the College All-Stars on Friday — an upset in which two future Brownies played major roles, passer Jim Ninowski of Michigan State with 14 of 20 completions and pass-catcher Bobby Mitchell of Illinois with five completions and two touchdowns.

In other games as the gridiron exhibition slate got under way: the Philadelphia Eagles nipped the Baltimore Colts, 30-28, and the Los Angeles Rams trounced the Washington Redskins, 31-10, on Saturday night; on Sunday, the New York Giants rallied to beat the San Francisco Forty-niners, 19 - 10, and the Chicago Bears marked George Halas' return to the coaching spot with a 24-7 romp over the Chicago Cardinals.

Souchak Nabs St. Paul Title

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI)—Mike Souchak, 31-year-old former football star at Duke University, had his first golf title in two years today.

Souchak won the $25,000 St. Paul Open Sunday with a record-smashing 25-under-par 263 over the 72-hole route at Keller golf course. It was in the St. Paul event in 1956 that he last won a tournament crown.

Souchak, who picked up $3,500 for his win, had a four - stroke bulge over Sam Snead, who led the event after 54 holes, and Julius Boros.

Art Wall Jr., finished at 269.

Six players were bracketed at 270, 18 under par. They were Ken Venturi, Frank Stranahan, Cary Middlecoff, Dow Finsterwald, Ernie Vassler and Lionel Hebert.

Patterson Meets Harris For Title

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Roy Harris of Cut and Shoot, Tex., two brawny young athletes with remarkable records, fight tonight for the world heavyweight championship — the ring's golden crown.

Shortly after sundown, they will square off in Wrigley Field for their scheduled 15-rounder in which Patterson — who knocked out 14 of the last 15 men to face him — will try to blast backwoodsman Harris' perfect record of 22 straight professional victories.

They are not only the youngest pair to fight for the coveted diadem, but they apparently boast the most enviable records of any duo in the division's title history. The 23-year-old champion lost but one of his 34 starts, and that on a very questionable decision. Harris, 25, is unbeaten.

Because of their records, each should be extremely victory conscious when he starts tossing the eight-ounce gloves before a crowd that will include Texas oil, cattle and rice millionaires and Hollywood stars of the entertainment world.

The main event is slated for 8 p.m., p.d.t. — 11 p.m., e.d.t.

Because of his punch, the champion from Mt. Vernon, N.Y., is favored at 6-1 to tag Harris with his first defeat, and at 3-1 to win on a knockout. Betting has been very light.

Likewise, the ticket sale for Wrigley Field — from $5 to $30 a pew—has been disappointingly light. Promoter Bill Rosensohn, staging his first fight, originally dreamed of a $500,000 gate; but now he will be lucky to beat the California state record of $228,500 set by Sugar Ray Robinson and Bobo Olson at the same field May 18, 1956. The paid attendance is expected to approximate 13,000.

Patterson hasn't fought in practically a year. His last title defense was on Aug. 22, last year against amateurish Pete Rademacher, who had Patterson on the floor before being knocked out by the champion.

Harris hasn't fought since last Oct. 29 — about 10 months—when he outpointed Willi Besmanoff of Germany. A six-month hitch in the Army curtailed his fistic activities, and tonight's battle will be his first outside of Texas and his first on any brand of TV.

The fight will be sent by closed-circuit TV to 146 theatres and arenas in 115 cities in the United States and Canada. There will be neither home TV nor home radio.

Regardless of tonight's gate and theatre-TV receipts, Harris will receive a flat guaranteed $100,000. He is the first heavy challenger to get a flat assurance. He got it to make certain he wouldn't stage a possible runout under urging from the rival International Boxing Club.

Patterson gets a $210,000 guarantee, with the possibility of receiving more through various percentages of the net gate and TV-theatre receipts.

Braves Boost Lead; BoSox Top NY Again

By United Press International

Funny game, this baseball.

The Braves are leading by eight games and feel like shoo-ins; the Yankees lead by 11½ and feel like sad-sacks — but they'll have to go out and practice today whether they like it or not.

Everything is hunky - dory with the breezing Braves, who ran their winning streak to seven games Sunday by sweeping a pair from the Phillies, 5-1 and 4-1.

On the other hand, everything is all fouled up with the Yankees, who dropped a 6-5 decision to the Red Sox and now have lost eight of their last 11 starts. Since Aug. 2, their lead has shrunk from 17 games.

Anyway, the second - place White Sox, still entertaining notions of catching the Yankees, won their fifth straight by beating the Indians, 3-2. Baltimore nipped Washington, 2-1, and Kansas City defeated Detroit, 4-1.

San Francisco took over second place in the National League with an 8-6 triumph over Chicago. Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh, 4-3 and 7-5, while Los Angeles earned a split by taking the nightcap, 9-3, after St. Louis won the opener, 12-7.

Juan Pizarro's four-hit pitching and Frank Torre's grand - slam homer off Don Cardwell gave the Braves their opening - game victory, and in the nightcap, Lew Burdette hurled a five - hitter for his 13th triumph. Wes Covington hit his 22nd homer and also scored the decisive run on Johnny Logan's perfect squeeze bunt in the fourth inning.

Six home runs were hit in the Red Sox - Yankee game but perhaps even more significant were the three singles and a double by Ted Williams that sent his average up to .316.

Earl Battey's eighth - inning homer off Jim Grant broke a 2-2 tie between the White Sox and Indians. Lefty Billy Pierce gave up nine hits in posting his 13th victory.

Connie Johnson of the Orioles hurled a three - hitter and produced a sacrifice fly that brought in the winning run in the fifth inning. Brooks Robinson slid home with the deciding run after second baseman Herb Plews of the Senators caught Johnson's pop-up in short right field.

The four - hit pitching of ex-reliever Bob Grim and a three-run homer by Harry Chiti helped the A's sweep their three - game series from the Tigers.

A total of seven home runs were hit in the Giants - Cubs game but it was Willie Mays' 21st homer with two on in the fourth that proved the payoff blow. The wallop gave San Francisco an 8-4 lead after which Ernie Banks clouted his 38th homer with one on in the sixth. Bobby Thomson hit two homers.

The two victories by the Redlegs dropped the Pirates into third place, nine games off the pace, and just about made them forget any possible pennant notions they may have entertained.

Jerry Lynch of the Redlegs, a one-time Pirate, was the man who hurt Pittsburgh most. His third hit in the opener was a ninth - inning single that drove in the winning run and he collected two more hits in the finale, including a two - run homer.

Stan Musial had four hits while Ken Boyer and Del Ennis each drove in three runs to help the Cards beat the Dodgers in the opener. Danny McDevitt, recently recalled from the minors, held the Cards to six hits in the second game.

Anderson Puts Crown On Line

NEWPORT, R. I. (UPD—Mal Anderson, who soon will defend his U. S. national championship, defends his Newport tennis tournament title today against Wimbledon winner Ashley Cooper in an all-Australian men's singles final.

Cooper advanced to the finals by trouncing fellow Aussie Neale Fraser, 6-2, 6-0, 6-4, Sunday. Anderson gained the final round on Saturday when he eliminated the last non - Aussie competitor, Alex Olmedo of Peru and Los Angeles.

Yreka 5-7, Dunsmuir 7-3

The Klamath Falls Kubs ruled today as the 1958 Northern California League champions after they beat Mount Shasta 5-3 here Sunday afternoon and Scott Valley took both ends of a doubleheader from the Weed Sons 3-1 and 7-0.

Klamath has one more league game, a makeup battle here Friday night against Scott Valley, but with its game and a half lead over second place Weed, a loss still wouldn't budge the Kubs from the top spot.

In the other Northern Cal action Sunday, Yreka split a doubleheader with Dunsmuir, winning the nightcap 7-3 after losing the first game 7-5.

Manager Irv Whitt announced a three-game week ahead for his Klamath Falls Kubs.

The Northern California League champions will meet the prospective Klamath Falls junior legion team of 1959. The legion team will be made up of players from this year's club and outstanding players from the Babe Ruth League who will be playing legion baseball next season.

Friday night, Klamath hosts Scott Valley in a NCL make-up game. The game will not play a roll in the final Northern California League standings since Klamath has already clinched the title.

Sunday, the league's President's Cup playoff is scheduled to start. The pairings are not set yet, but Klamath is expected to play at home for the first playoff game.

Klamath trailed 3-2 going into the last of the eighth, but a three-run eighth inning gave the Kubs their winning margin. Gerry Burcher, who came on in relief of starter Dave D'Olivo in the eighth, picked up the win as he held the Seals scoreless on one hit over the last two innings.

Wildness on the part of Mount Shasta pitcher Bob Lawary paved the way to the Klamath Falls win. With one out, Fran Miller drew a walk to open the Kubs' rally. Another walk was issued to shortstop Dorm Martin and a single by Floyd Linderman chased across Miller with the first of three scores. Martin scored on a fielder's choice play. Linderman came home on a single by Jerry Burke to close out the afternoon's scoring.

Mount Shasta threatened in the ninth before Burcher could put out the fire. The Seals loaded the bases with two outs on a walk, single and a hit batter, but Burcher got Bob Poolinetti on three strikes to end the game. It was the fourth time in the game that Klamath pitching set Poolinetti down on strikes.

Klamath's first run came in the second on a double by Donn Taucher and Burke's single. In the sixth inning, Martin scored on a single by Linderman after walking and advancing on a wild pitch and an error.

In the Seals half of the sixth, they went ahead 3-1 with two runs on a double by Dick Berrensen, a sacrifice fly, Monk Gasperi's single and another double by Rick Palfini. D'Olivo got his third out on an infield roller to end the threat.

Linderman and Burke shared the hitting honors for the victorious Kubs, both getting three hits in four at bats and three runs batted in. One of Linderman's blows was good for two bases. Gasperi claimed two of the six hits Mount Shasta batters picked up.

Home Runs Eliminate KF

COOS BAY — The home run ball eliminated Klamath Falls' Market Basket softball team from the Oregon State Men's Softball Tournament here Saturday.

In their first game, the Market Basket softballers were edged 1-0 by Salem in an afternoon contest. Saturday night, Hermiston blanked Klamath 5-0. And in both games, the Southern Oregon District champions bowed to home runs.

Don Bassett clubbed an eleventh inning home run for Salem to break up a tight pitcher's battle. Then Saturday night, Al Hathaway blasted a grand slam home run to lead his team to the whitewash of Klamath Falls.

Hermiston pushed across a single run in the first inning and that held up until Hathaway's bases loaded blast came in the sixth. Hathaway also pitched the win for Hermiston, limiting Market Basket to two hits—one a second inning triple by Max Revis and the other a seventh inning single to Bill Benson.

Revis' three-base blow came with no one out, but he was left stranded as Hathaway got the next three batters in order.

Merrill '9', Townies Win

Merrill and Chiloquin's Townies kept pace in their one-two battle in the Klamath Basin Independent Baseball League race Sunday, both knocking off victories.

Merrill bombed the Chiloquin Cubs into submission 13-1. The Townies broke open a tie game in the last of the ninth to win from Lakeview, 7-6.

Loren Wade was the big gun in the 18-hit Merrill attack, clubbing out four hits in five at-bats, two going for two-run homers. Leroy Johnson picked up three hits in four trips.

At Chiloquin, Dick Siemens clubbed a one-out home run over the left field fence, 360 feet away to win the game for the Townies. Lakeview had held the Chiloquin club on even terms until Siemen's big blow.

Next Sunday, Merrill and the Townies meet in a big game, the season finale. A win by Merrill could clinch the second half league championship. A loss to the Townies would tie the two clubs.

PORTLAND (AP) — Bend won the Oregon American Legion baseball title with three wins and one loss in a climatic 6-4 triumph over Salem here Saturday night.

The Central Oregon team now advances to the regional playoffs at Billings, Mont.

A two-run double by Sid Bauer and a squeeze bunt by Riley Allen in the sixth inning proved to be the winning margin for Bend.

Salem came back for one more run in the ninth.

Ed Cecil held Salem to five hits, fanning seven and walking nine.
