FIG DESSERT

Here's a luscious dessert that's a breeze to prepare. Fig Delight is a rich flavorful concoction of whipped cream, plain cake and dried figs simmered in orange juice. This dessert should be chilled several hours before serving.

FIG DELIGHT

1 pound (2 cups) dried figs
1 cup orange juice
1 cup whipping cream
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 cups day-old cake cubes
Clip stems from figs; cut in quarters and simmer in orange juice, stirring occasionally, until juice is absorbed. Takes about 5 minutes. Whip cream and vanilla; fold in figs and cake cubes. Chill at least 4 hours before serving. Spoon into sauce dishes or sherbet glasses. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

HANDY TOOL

Those little wire whisks which look like a coiled spring with a handle sticking up from the center are mighty handy for mixing thickening, making gravy, stirring eggs for scrambling and many other things.

BABY FOOD

Baby moons and rockets have been much in the news of late, but the scientific and technological developments closest to a mother's heart are those which contribute to the health and well-being of her children. Pediatricians and nutritionists are conducting never-ending research covering all phases of infant growth and development. A great deal has been learned already.

It has been found that youngsters have such a tremendous amount of growing to do that they need the body building properties which complete meat protein can supply so abundantly. Doctors have found that meat-fed babies sleep better, have a greater resistance to colds and have a higher blood hemoglobin level which is indicative of good health.

These were some of the reasons why Swift & Company pioneered a complete line of strained and chopped meats for babies and juniors. They introduced beef, pork, lamb, veal, veal, liver, ham, and chicken prepared with care especially for the "carriage" trade. Later egg yolks and egg yolks with bacon were added to the line both as sources of good nutrition for the youngster and as a convenience to the mother.

Some youngsters take to the distinctive goodness of meat right away. Others are more reluctant to accept changes and additions to their diet. This is the reason that the new Fruit-Flavored Meats for Babies have made such a hit with mothers and children alike. In addition to tasting good, the ham flavored with raisin sauce, lamb flavored with mint and pork flavored with applesauce are combinations of foods and flavors that the child will meet often as he grows older. Babies that know and like a wide variety of foods are less apt to have feeding problems later in life.

Strained chicken has been one of the most popular of the meats for babies. This makes it an ideal choice for combining with new food flavors. There are three new chicken varieties which are designed to do just this without adding to the task of a busy mother. They are Chicken a la King, Chicken with Sweets and Chicken with Rice. Because these new meat meals contain such a small percentage of "extra" ingredients, baby gets full benefit of the complete meat protein.

Add mashed hard-cooked eggs to mashed cooked chicken livers plus seasonings for a nutritious sandwich spread.

KEEP BABY healthy and happy this summer by making sure his diet is right for him. Nearly every canned baby food line now has dozens of varieties of food for the baby and junior members of the family. It is a good idea to check with your doctor to make sure the smallest member of the family is getting the most possible nourishment to develop robust health and a sturdy body.

MEAT LOAF

Want your meat loaf to be moist and fluffier? Then allow the ground meat to stand in the liquid for a few minutes so that it will absorb as much as possible before adding the bread crumbs.

SANDWICH

Danish Sandwich Special makes appetizing luncheon fare for cool autumn days. Thin slices of pale green Calavo avocado are arranged over a piquant mixture of chopped bologna and pickle. Serve it with a hearty canned chowder, baked apples and hot coffee.

DANISH SANDWICH

1 Calavo avocado
½ cup ground bologna
3 tablespoons chopped pickle
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
½ teaspoon prepared mustard
4 slices buttered bread
Salt

Cut avocado into halves lengthwise and remove seed and skin. Cut into thin slices. Blend bologna, pickle, mayonnaise and mustard. Spread on slices of buttered bread. Cover with avocado slices. Sprinkle with salt.

Makes 4 sandwiches.
