

Ex-KU Star Named To Lead Mustangs

By WAYNE SCOTT
Herald and News Sports Writer

The appointment of George R. Hanson, an ex-KU athlete, as head football, basketball and track coach at Malin High School was made public Wednesday by Carroll Howe, County Superintendent of Schools. He will replace Jack McGoldrick who terminated as coach at the close of the 1958 spring term.

Hanson, who graduated from KU in 1953, is more widely known on the local sports scene today as the amiable, efficient first baseman for the Klamath Cubs. The young, affable, 6-0, 200 pound Hanson clinched a regular spot on the Kub lineup early this season, his first in local baseball since shortly after his graduation from KU, off both his performance at the initial sack and his power at the plate.

Rainiers Mar Bevo Big Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The tail-end Seattle Rainiers continued to spoil Portland's "Build Baseball Week" by spilling the Beavers' third straight time, 6-5, Wednesday night, before 6,515 Portland fans.

The Rainiers drove veteran right-hander Larry Jansen out of the box with two runs each in the second and third innings. They added single runs in the fourth and sixth off Howie Judson.

Portland cut Seattle's lead to one in the seventh with two runs on an error, a double by Bob DiPietro and a single by George Freese.

The Beavers threatened to tie it in the eighth when Nini Tornay singled and Alex Casmidis doubled him to third. But at this point southpaw Jim Davis relieved starting pitcher Max Sarkot and stopped Portland dead the rest of the way.

Eddie Kazak got Seattle off to a lead in the second with a homer. Gordy Bloomfield doubled and Jim McManus singled for another run in the same inning.

The Rainiers' third inning runs came on a double by Vada Pinson, singles by Juan Delis and Kazak and Eddie Basinski's sacrifice fly.

Singles by McManus and Pinson, with two infield outs in between, gave Seattle another in the fourth. The Rainiers' final run came on Dick D'Arco's sixth inning homer.

Kazak's error, a passed ball, and Bob DiPietro's single produced Portland's first tally in the third.

Judson singled home Len Neal, who had doubled, for Portland's second run in the fourth. Dave Melton's double and Neal's single gave Portland another in the sixth.

In other games, seventh-place Sacramento edged the third-place Vancouver Mounties 3-2, and the fifth-place Salt Lake City Bees trounced second place San Diego 5-2.

ChiSox To Shoot For Moon

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP)—The Chicago White Sox have won seven in a row and Manager Al Lopez is back in business.

"Second place?" Al scoffed. "Hell, no! We're going to shoot for the moon. We can still catch those Yankees."

"Why not? What is it now, seven games we've made up on them in the last two weeks? They're not playing good ball and there's a lot of games left. We're 10 1/2 games behind now. Who says we can't make up another seven or eight in the next few weeks?"

Lopez was back in form as his Sox went into the opener of a three-game series with the American League leaders tonight at Yankee Stadium. Always sure "the Yankees can be had," even Al admitted it would take some doing on his last trip to New York.

"That was in mid-July. The White Sox were fifth, 13 1/2 games behind, after losing two of three to the champs. Since July 18, they've won 24 of 33, jumping from sixth place to second. They've lost only three of their last 18."

"Our pitching has been the big thing for us," said Lopez. "And Dick Donovan has been the big man. He was 3-10 before the All-Star Game and now he's won seven of eight—and the game he lost was 2-1 in 11 innings."

"Now he's looking like he did all last season, when he won 16 for us. He was having trouble with his stride. Now it's right." Donovan isn't listed as a starter in the current series.

"But he's ready for relief in any game," said Lopez. "And it'll be Ray Moore, he's been on these guys three times, shut them out twice; Early Wynn and Billy Pierce for us," he added.

The Yankees, who cracked their losing string at four with a 7-1 victory over Cleveland yesterday, will go with Bob Turley (17-6) tonight. It's Johnny Kucks tomorrow. Whitey Ford Saturday.

Swap Fever Strikes Major League Clubs

NEW YORK (UPI)—Hold on to your hat, because there will be more baseball trades this winter than ever before — judging from the swap talk circulating in both major leagues.

No one apparently is satisfied with what he's got and that includes Casey Stengel, whose Yankees have made a farce of the American League race despite a recent slump in which they dropped 9 of 12 games.

Never one to sit still even when he's winning, Stengel already has told general manager George Weiss he is of a mind to make changes this winter.

That doesn't mean such stars as Mickey Mantle, Whitey Ford and Bob Turley are in any danger of being dealt, but such players as Don Larsen, Andy Carey, Bobby Richardson and Johnny Kucks may change uniforms.

LANE WILL BE BUSY
Frank Lane made several deals when he came to Cleveland this year. That was just a starter. Wait'll you see him in action this winter. His chief object is a new double play combination and, like practically everyone else, he's after more pitching.

Paul Richards, who acts as both general manager and field manager of the Baltimore Orioles, can't wait for the trading season to open again.

"We need hitting in the worst way," he says. "As soon as the market opens I'm going to try every possible thing I can — to come up with some power."

While he's looking, Richards also will have his eye peeled for a front-line center-fielder whom he can play between Gene Woodling and Bob Nieman.

WHITE SOX NEED
The White Sox, who made more deals than any other club last winter, promise to be back at the same old stand when the snow flies again. They thought they had corralled enough pitching to beat the Yankees; they realize now they were mistaken. And they also know it will take much more hitting than they have to make them a serious pennant contender.

Over in the National League, the trading activity doubtlessly will be just as brisk.

The San Francisco Giants had a taste of first place this year and liked it so much they figure they could occupy it permanently if they go out and get themselves another 15-game winner.

Los Angeles broke the ice last June by peddling Don Newcombe. Next on the list could be Duke Snider or even Gil Hodges, providing the Dodgers can get what they want in return. They're after young players.

AFTER PITCHER
Like the White Sox, the Redlegs made all kinds of trades last winter, but apparently weakened themselves thereby. As usual, Cincinnati will be after pitching, and either Johnny Temple or Roy McMillan might be used as bait.

Pittsburgh is in the same class with San Francisco. The Pirates have plenty of power and feel they can go all the way if they WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Reliever Claude Green walked in the winning run as the Drain, Ore., Black Sox defeated the Macon, Ga., Peaches, 4-1, in the first round of the National Baseball Congress Non-Pro baseball tournament here Wednesday.

Green, who relieved starter Charlie Perry after he was shaken up in a collision at first base, walked a man with the bases loaded.

Woodward Hahn went the distance for Drain, allowing nine hits and striking out four. The leading Drain hitter was Jim O'Rourke with three hits in four trips.

G. D. Sherwood of Roseburg and Baxter Moore of Tillamook both broke 198 of 200 targets in Wednesday's round.

Other Oregon scores included Herman Mortiz, Albany, 186.

Heath To Return As Beaver Boss

PORTLAND (AP)—Tommy Heath will return next season as general manager and field manager of the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League.

G. A. Kingsley, president of the Portland club, said Wednesday he expects no changes in the top jobs. Bill Bremner will return as assistant general manager. He has been substituting for Heath, who is recovering from a back injury.

Krueger Earns 49er Berth

MORAGA (UPI)—San Francisco Forty Niner Coach Frankie Albert plans to start rookie tackle Charlie Krueger of Texas A&M in Saturday night's game against the Washington Redskins at Portland.

Albert said after Wednesday's practice that Krueger and three other key rookies looked very good and will make the Forty Niners "a better club than last year."

The other three were Jim Pace of Michigan, Fred Dugan of Dayton, and Bill Atkins of Auburn. They will probably see a good deal of action at Portland, Albert said.

The squad worked out against Redskin offense and defense patterns today and Albert said the team would be ready to meet the eastern club.

"We want to win all the exhibition games we can," he said. "It hurts a club's morale to lose them."

NorCal Tops Golfing Play

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—When it comes to staging amateur golf matches, Southern California is strictly a duffer compared to Northern California.

This became apparent Wednesday at a meeting of the California Golf Association at the California Club to discuss the upcoming schedule of five amateur events in Northern California next month.

"Actually everything is in the north as far as these events are concerned," said Colin C. Simpson, president of the association and a Southern California resident since 1912.

"We can't get a club down here to have the National Amateur." Several years ago, he said, a Southern California club made a bid for a National Amateur event but then "renege." Since then there haven't been any takers.

In Northern California next month, he said there will be the Americas Cup competition, pitting golfers from the U.S., Canada and Mexico at San Francisco Sept. 5-6 and the National Amateur there Sept. 8-13.

The California Amateur will be held at Pebble Beach Sept. 15-21, followed by the play of State Seniors Sept. 23-25 and the USGA Senior Championships Sept. 28-Oct. 4 at Montreux Peninsula.
