Tokyo Paper Publishes Poem On Lunar Shot

TOKYO (UPI) — A letter to the editor of the Asahi Evening News which was published today:

IF the Americans should ever succeed in launching their "moon rocket" from Cape Carnival (sic), or whatever they call the place; and

If the rocket should hit the moon instead of going around it as scheduled; and

If about twenty rockets carrying super-duper nuclear warheads were fired right back at earth; I'd die laughing.
