

Teachers Set For Meeting

LAKEVIEW—Teachers of Lake County will gather in Lakeview on August 25 through August 27 for workshop activities planned by administrators of the city and county schools.

High school evaluation will be under discussion for the teachers of the Paisley and Lakeview high schools with Clyde Martin, supervisor of secondary education for the State Department of Education.

The elementary school program will be based on the theme of "The Good Life in the Elementary School," pointed toward the growth and development of the child. Jean Spaulding, supervisor of elementary education for the state department, will be on hand for this portion of the program.

Featured for two talks will be Dr. H. E. Chamberlain, specialist in the California Mental Health Association. Work in textbook evaluation would be led by Virginia Merrill, consultant with the Winston Publishing Company.

The morning of the third day will be taken up with audio visual work, with Ed Forslund, David Audio-Visual Supply; and a library workshop directed by Ivy Grover, Lake County librarian. In the afternoon there will be an orientation field trip to the uranium reduction plant and White King mine, followed by a picnic at Chandler Park.

A panel discussion has been arranged for the opening day with the assistance of Miss Spaulding and Dr. Chamberlain. Members will be two lay people, an educator, a psychiatrist and a teacher, with teachers playing the roles of interrogators. Convictions concerning education will be discussed. The teacher's job in public school music will be outlined by Robert Shotwell, director of vocal music in the Lakeview schools.

With arrangements made by Mrs. Martha Holland, hospitality chairman, the social end of the program includes a Monday noon luncheon with the chamber of commerce as host; a tea in the garden of Mrs. Martin McGrath's home from 4 o'clock to 6 o'clock that evening, with members of Delta Kappa Gamma as hosts; and a Tuesday noon luncheon with program at the school cafeteria.

NELL McFARLAN

Klamath Girl Ends Training

Nell McFarlan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McFarlan, 232 Cedar Street, completed nurses training at West Suburban Hospital, Oak Park, Illinois, recently and was awarded the registered nurse degree.

Miss McFarlan returned home August 9 and was the R.N. at the last encampment of the Girl Scouts at the Lake of the Woods. Her future plans include marrying David Haddock, the wedding is planned for December.

India Drought End In Sight

NEW DELHI (AP)—The Indian army today brought New Delhi's water supply back to two-thirds of normal and said the capital's drought should be completely ended Thursday.

An army spokesman said a channel had been dug connecting the new channel of the Jumna River with the city's pumping stations after the river moved more than 1,000 feet at the end of monsoon floods.

VA Planning Wage Survey

Announcement of a survey to determine the prevailing wage rates for maintenance workers in this area has been made by the Veterans Administration.

The survey, which will be made between August 25 and September 12, will be utilized by the Army, Air Force and VA wage boards for determining salaries to be paid federal maintenance employees. Medford, Grants Pass, Ashland and Klamath Falls are included in the survey area.

Existing legislation requires that the compensation of federal maintenance employees "be fixed and adjusted from time to time as nearly as is consistent with the public interest in accordance with prevailing rates."

"This joint survey is being made to protect the various businessmen of the area from repeated interruptions," the announcement said. "The necessary date for the VA and for the Army and Air Force will be secured at one time."

Torch Uncle Won't Talk

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—The Senate Rackets Committee can anticipate an uncooperative response again from Herman Kierdorf when he revisits Washington next week as a witness.

The former Teamsters Union business agent, still in jail because he can't make $25,000 bond, says he won't talk to the committee about the human torch death of his nephew Frank Kierdorf.

Herman told newsmen yesterday, after his arraignment on a gun-silencer possession charge, that he would take the Fifth Amendment if asked about Frank's mysterious death Aug. 7.

Frank, 56, a Teamsters business agent, died of burns which police attribute to a botched attempt at arson in a Flint, Mich., dry cleaning shop four days earlier.

Herman, 69, an ex-convict like Frank, hid behind the Fifth Amendment in an appearance some time ago before the rackets probes when asked certain questions.

Herman is booked to appear for a court examination tomorrow on the silencer charge.

Meanwhile, he is seeking freedom on a writ of habeas corpus, contending the alleged pistol silencer actually was a muffler from his power lawn mower.
