

MADE TO ORDER?—Klamath Union gridgers, over a hundred strong, reported to the Modoc Field house Saturday to receive their equipment and a pre-season welcome from head coach Andy Knudsen, aides Jim Inglesby, Jack Peterson and athletic director Jim Johnson as they await the first practice of the season, which is scheduled for Monday on the KU gridiron. In picture No. 1, Jim Johnson expresses concern as he attempts to fit a set of pads over the shoulders of Gary Krannenburg, who has obviously filled out a little since last season. At left, Ron House, a senior fullback eyes the proceedings with misgivings, since he, too, has gained. In photo No. 2, Nick Insley, at right, demonstrates what can happen over just one summer as he wears the pants issued him last year. Both he and Ron Olvera, receiving shoes from Jim Inglesby, try to convince him that their feet haven't grown; at least not that much. In picture three, Glynn Michaels, another returning letterman, signs for the stack of gear just issued him by Inglesby. Head coach Andy Knudsen, inset, beams his approval at the size of the turnout for the 1958 season. Knudsen and Johnson guaranteed that regardless of the number of boys who wish to play, enough equipment will be found to outfit them.

—Photo by Ellis

1958 Pelicans Draw Gear, Preparing For Big Season

By WAYNE SCOTT
Herald and News Sports Writer

Saturday afternoon in the field house at Modoc Field the first of a string of better than 100 football players and potential football players faced Bob Johnson and F. N. Scappellato as they await the first practice of the season, which is scheduled for Monday on the KU gridiron. In picture No. 1, Jim Johnson expresses concern as he attempts to fit a set of pads over the shoulders of Gary Krannenburg, who has obviously filled out a little since last season. At left, Ron House, a senior fullback eyes the proceedings with misgivings, since he, too, has gained. In photo No. 2, Nick Insley, at right, demonstrates what can happen over just one summer as he wears the pants issued him last year. Both he and Ron Olvera, receiving shoes from Jim Inglesby, try to convince him that their feet haven't grown; at least not that much. In picture three, Glynn Michaels, another returning letterman, signs for the stack of gear just issued him by Inglesby. Head coach Andy Knudsen, inset, beams his approval at the size of the turnout for the 1958 season. Knudsen and Johnson guaranteed that regardless of the number of boys who wish to play, enough equipment will be found to outfit them.

Woman Conquers Channel

DOVER, England (AP)—Greta Andersen, a California housewife, conquered seasickness and a field of top men swimmers Saturday and registered her second straight victory in the rugged mass race across the English Channel.

She did it in the fabulous time of 11 hours flat. This was only 10 minutes outside the 8-year-old channel record set by Hassan Abdel Rehim of Egypt in 1950.

The 30-year-old Danish-born woman, who now lives at Long Beach, Calif., crawled ashore at Deadman Gulch—a rocky part of the southeast English coast line.

She finished 3 hours, 57 minutes ahead of Bronan Das of Pakistan. Ronald Tarr, England, was third in 15 hours 17 minutes. Haldun Ismen of Turkey was fourth in 15:25.

Thirty swimmers from 16 countries started the 22-mile race early Saturday at Cape Gris Nez, France. Only Miss Andersen and the four men made it across officially. A fifth man, Haldun Ismen of Turkey, crossed the channel but instead of walking ashore on land he came out of the water on some steps in the harbor. He was disqualified. All others were pulled out of the water safely.

Miss Andersen's achievement followed by less than 24 hours the successful crossing by Bert Thompson, an ex-Marine from Portland, Ore., who needed 19 hours, 28 minutes over virtually the same route.

Greta, whose married name is Mrs. John Sonnichsen, looked set to better the record until she ploughed into the last 500 yards. "But the current was against me," she said. "I took me an hour and a half to cover the last 300 yards. I was terribly seasick and dizzy four miles after the start.

"I felt like giving up but my husband chucked on a blackboard for me to read. 'Hi Greta, you can't give up. All the other girls are still in there swimming.'"

"After that I just stayed in and swam. I am disappointed I missed the record but I will be back next year."

She won $1,400 and collected a challenge trophy worth $3,000. Swimmers hold the trophy for one year.

Left Nordlie, tennis coach at West Point, formerly was the tennis professional at the Seabright, N. J., Lawn Tennis and Cricket Club.

Pole Defeats Europe Aces

STOCKHOLM (AP)—The Pole with the jaw-breaking name trounced Europe's best distance runners Saturday to win the European 5,000-meter championship on a rain-soaked day that saw Russia frozen out of honors at last.

Zdzislaw Kryzyszkowski, already winner of the track and field meet's 10,000 meter title, pounded his way through mud and rain for 13 minutes 53.4 seconds to give Poland its third gold medal of the day.

The great Polish runner put on a spurt on the last lap and left his countryman, Kazimierz Zimny, more than 10 yards behind.

British runners Gordon Pirie and Peter Clark finished third and fourth.

An English blacksmith, Arthur Rowe, threw the 16-pound shot 56 feet, 4 inches to upset Iron Curtain favorites for the gold medal.

Other Western winners were two Germans.

Manfred Gerner romped off with the 200 meters in 21 seconds flat in a deluge. Marianne Werner upset Russia's Olympic champion, huge Tamara Tyshkevitch, to win the women's shot put with 51 feet 6.88 inches.

But it was Poland's day. Beside running first and second in the feature 5,000 meters the Polish athletes won the hop, step and jump as well as the 200 meter women's title, only other gold medal events on the day's program.

Ron Nischwitz of Ohio State led the Big Ten pitchers in strikeouts this spring with 43 in 47 innings.

Today's Pitchers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
AMERICAN LEAGUE
Kansas City at Boston (2) — Garver (11-3) and Gorman (3-1) vs. Bousfield (2-0) and Sullivan (9-7).
Detroit at New York (2) — Mord (3-4) and Lary (12-12) vs. Dilmar (9-4) and Shantz (5-3).
Cleveland at Washington—Grant (9-10) vs. Ramos (11-12).
Chicago at Baltimore—Donovan (10-11) vs. O'Dell (11-10).

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Philadelphia at Chicago (2) — Semproch (13-8) and J. Anderson (8-0) vs. Hillman (3-5) and Drott (6-10).
Pittsburgh at St. Louis (2) — Raydon (7-3) and Friend (16-13) vs. Mizell (8-9) and Brosnan (8-7).
Cincinnati at Los Angeles—Ackler (2-2) or Haddix (7-6) vs. Podres (11-10).
Milwaukee at San Francisco — Willey (8-4) vs. Antonelli (14-10).

When questioned about the style of play and the changes, if any, to be made in this year's Pel squad, Knudsen said, "We plan to use a lot more T this year — and that, of course will necessitate a number of changes. A lot of the boys will be shifted from the spots that they occupied last year. Size and weight increases will make a difference too, we will just have to try a lot of combinations to see what can happen."

From the appearance of the reporting squad, the backfield may be a trifle lighter and shorter than last year but the line will make up for the weight loss. Close look shows that the Pelicans will be a shade heavier overall.

The 100 aspirants that lined up for suits Saturday will be trimmed to around 70 boys that may figure as candidates for the varsity squad. The traveling roster for the Pelicans calls for approximately 36 players.

Working with Knudsen, Peterson and Inglesby will be coaches Bob Johnson, DeLance Duncan, Joe Roberts and newcomer, Herbert Smith, who will shape the destinies of the frosh and Jayvee teams.

A welcome was issued by the Klamath coaches to any fan or booster who wished to observe the Pels in practices. They will meet twice daily for the next two weeks, early morning and early evening.

"Of course, it will make it easier if they will keep to the sidelines," Andy added.

A note of warning was added by athletic director Jim Johnson, who said that season ticket sales were ahead of last year, but that some seats between the 40-yard stripes were still available. Reservations can be made by calling Johnson's office at TU 4-7505.

A change in the location of one of the scheduled games was also brought to the attention of Klamath fans. The Grants Pass and Crater games will be played on Modoc Field on the dates originally scheduled.

Lilly Blazes To GAT Win

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—Ned Lilly of Stanton, came from far back with a blazing two-event finish Saturday to win the overall championship as the 39th Grand American Trapshoot closed.

The 42-year-old retail lumber dealer broke 98 of 100 to tie for the national doubles title Saturday and then won the Vandalia Handicap, the final contest, with 99 of 100 from 28 yards. His 29-year score has never been bettered in competition.

Lilly broke 977 of 1,000 championship targets here this week, including 60 at 16 yards, 300 at handicaps and 300 at doubles. In the latter race, two targets are thrown simultaneously.

The all-around championship, based on the North American clay target race, 200 targets at 16 yards, the 100-target Grand American Handicap, and the 100-target doubles race, went to 30-year-old Jim McCole, game warden from Gering, Neb., who tied Friday for the Grand American championship but lost in a shootout. McCole broke 289 of the 400 targets, beating Lilly by two over that route.

Tied with Lilly in the all-round were Maynard Henry of Los Angeles and Baxter Moore of Tillamook, Ore. Lilly, in breaking 977 of the 1,000 targets, tied the record set in 1949 by Joe Hiestand of Hillsboro, Ohio, and tied the following year by Lilly. The Michigan sharpshooter also won the over-all in 1933 and 1935.

Don't Gamble Your Life!
Muffler Installation Headquarters
Glass Pack Mufflers For All Cars $7.15 and up
Beacon Mobile Service
24 Green Stamps
1201 E. Main TU 4-8304

Solon Stockholder Bars Team Move

WASHINGTON (AP)—H. Gabriel Murphy, who owns more than 40 per cent of stock in the Washington Senators, hopes to talk American League officials into killing any attempt to shift the team to Minneapolis.

Club President Calvin Griffith is considering a transfer but says he hasn't made up his mind one way or the other.

Griffith could make a move when the major leagues meet in Chicago on Sept. 9.

Before that, Murphy will try to persuade American League President Will Harridge and club owners that the Senators belong in Washington. He has promised to challenge a franchise transfer in court but scheduled a road trip beginning Sunday in an effort to avoid that step.

Murphy said he will visit Kansas City, Detroit, Chicago and Cleveland—which also may be interested in Minneapolis as a new base—to confer with club officers and with Harridge.

"My purpose is to present to them my rights and views on the transfer, so that they may be better informed and can make their own conclusions," Murphy said.

The Washington insurance man who quit as club treasurer last year in a row with Griffith, said or with the New York Yankees and he would discuss the franchise later with the Baltimore Orioles. He does not plan at present to consult with the Boston Red Sox.

Boston President Tom Yawkey opposed moving the Senators when Griffith broached the subject at a league meeting last month, but Murphy may also have in mind a family relationship between the two clubs. General Manager Joe Cronin of the Red Sox is Griffith's brother-in-law.

Negative votes of only three owners would block a transfer. Some are fearful the National League would jump in if the Senators abandoned Washington.

October is the normal time for taking up franchise locations, but Harridge said Saturday in Chicago that Griffith could raise the question at the special meeting now in decisive control of the Senators' board of directors as well as a majority of stock. While maintaining he has not finally decided on whether to point for Minneapolis, he has been pessimistic over financial prospects here and condemned the location of an eight-million-dollar stadium proposed for the capital.

Anne Quast Downs Romack For Women's Amateur Title

DARIEN, Conn. (AP)—Anne Quast, an imperturbable Stanford University coed, won the 38th U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championship Saturday with a late birdie surge which stunned Barbara Romack of Sacramento, Calif., 3 and 2.

The 29-year-old Marysville, Wash., girl, a favorite of the Wee Burn gallery, struck with lightning suddenness in the afternoon after Miss Romack, seeking her second championship, had forged into a three-hole lead.

Miss Quast, fighting from behind with no emotion showing behind her dark spectacles, tied the match at the 28th hole, shot ahead at the 30th where she rang in an uphill putt of 30 feet and then clinched victory with a birdie three on the 34th.

Miss Romack, a scrappy little blonde with a marvelous touch around the greens, didn't know what struck her.

Wearily and shaken by Miss Quast's late rally, which seemed to come from nowhere, the 25-year-old Sacramento girl began missing easy putts after playing steadily during the early stages of the match.

Barbara missed a simple three-foot putt on the 21st hole, for the beginning of her demise, and flubbed one from four feet on the 27th.

This was all the opening Miss Quast needed. The attractive coed proceeded to play the last seven holes in four under par.

SALE
U.S. Royal Deluxe RAYON NYLON
$17.95
6.70-15 Blackwall, Tube Type Plus Tax and Treadable Tire
FIND YOUR SIZE—FIND YOUR SALE PRICE
Table with columns: Size, Black, White, Black, White
EASY TERMS
What is...
RAYON NYLON
PRESSURE TEMPERING... a process formerly used only in NYLON tires costing up to twice as much. Provides utilized strength throughout entire tire body, adding to your blowout protection and greatly increasing your safety at thruway speeds... improves mileage... gives smoother, quieter ride.

ALSO
U.S. Royal Air Ride RAYON
from $12.95 EASY TERMS
6.70-15 Blackwall, Tube Type Only Plus Tax and Treadable Tire
SCHULZE TIRE SERVICE
Main & Spring Ph. TU 4-7771
U.S. Royal Tires