"Now don't be nervous, son," said the father of a marriageable daughter as he surveyed an uncomfortable-looking young man. "I know why you're here. You want to marry my daughter. Don't be shy! I can assure you that you have my permission. Yes, marry and good luck to both of you!"

"Lend you $25!" the father shouted. "I will not! Why, I hardly know you!"

A Novel Goal
Some girls long for beauty
And others wish for fame;
Those that burn with ambition yearn
To carve in stone their name.

friends.
