TV NOTES

NEW YORK (UPI) — "The Plot to Kill Stalin" has been nominated as the first of the "Playhouse 90" offering on CBS in the fall. This live drama will be seen Sept. 25, the program retaining its customary 9:30-11 p.m. time on Thursdays. David Karp, prominent novelist and TV scripter, has written the play.

Art Linkletter ("House Party," "People Are Funny") celebrates his 25th anniversary in show business in September. He will get a homecoming parade in San Diego, California, where he started on station KGB in 1933 as an announcer. Starting September 1, nine "House Party" broadcasts will emanate from San Diego.

The resumption date for "Your Hit Parade" has been changed from October 3 to October 10 on CBS. Almost everything about this long-lived program will be changed this season, including network, day of week (Friday), hour (7:30-8 p.m.) and personnel. Dorothy Collins returns to the show she served so long. Johnny Desmond becomes the other regular singing star and there will be guests each week.

Band leader Sammy Kaye, who has wandered in and out of TV several times, to say nothing of years of radio appearances, will wander back into television this fall. He and his orchestra will be presented Saturdays from 10 to 10:30 p.m. by ABC in a program entitled "Music From Manhattan."

The charming and very talented British performer, Jeannie Carson, who had her own TV series a couple of seasons back, has been cast in the role of Jo for the live one-hour musical version of "Little Women" which CBS will present October 16 at 8:30 p.m.

Hockey fans, who can be just as dedicated as those of other sports, will be happy to know that CBS will telecast 20 National Hockey League games during the fall and winter, starting October 18. The final game will be telecast next March 21. All of them will be Saturday afternoons.

The "Voice of Firestone" people really meant it when they said the new season would find this venerable program forsaking its policy of long-hair music only. The show returns to ABC September 8, and among those who will be presented in the early weeks are Fred Waring's orchestra and glee club and Naxos Cugat, his band and his wife, Abbie Lane, in a program of Latin-American music.

CBS carries the Miss America contest from Atlantic City, N.J. again — 10-11:30 p.m. September 6. That's the finals, of course.

One of last season's new shows of recognized merit that is returning is "High Adventure with Lowell Thomas." The premiere is October 3 at 8 p.m. The first of these monthly filmed color shows deals with Alaska.

Grandfather Is 4-H Club Leader

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore. (UPI) — A grandfather 70 years old is one of Oregon's most active 4-H Club leaders.

He is C. J. Robinson, an electrical engineer in Texas for 30 years who "retired" to Cottage Grove.

In the last eight years, Robinson has led 22 4-H Clubs, specializing in science and electricity. This year two of his clubs are completing typically ambitious projects—a machine that makes static electricity and a safety lighting system for a railroad tunnel.
