

FATHER OF THE BRIDE, John Kelleher, escorts bary of pretty attendants and his daughter to church for wedding. Left to right between Mr. Kelleher and Helen Elizabeth are, Mary Ann Kelleher, Mavis Thompson and Judy Pieser. —Photo by Ferebee

THE NEW MRS. JAMES OSBORNE and her grandmothers are shown at the party honoring Joan and Jim Osborne recently in the gardens of the Ben Henzel home. From the left, Mrs. R. D. Merrill, paternal grandmother, Riverside, California; Joan, and Mrs. H. E. Barnes, maternal grandmother, Laguna Beach, California.

Helen E. Kelleher Weds

Continued From Page 1-D

slippers were the same shade, as was her tiny feather hat. Her corsage was of pink elf roses.

Mrs. Pieser chose a rose petal pink lace sheath over taffeta, worn with a tiny matching velvet hat and rhinestone studded veil. Her flowers were Merrett rosebuds in a deeper shade of rose.

The wedding party and guests went immediately following the ceremony to the new, attractive, home economics building at the Tulalake Fairgrounds for the reception where the blue and white colors of the wedding were further carried out.

Margaret Smith, Klamath Falls, was in charge of the gift table. Helen Dacey, Bend, and Linda Bowden, Salem, were at the punch bowl.

The guest book was in charge of Patricia Schwabenland, Tulalake. After the beautifully decorated, tiered wedding cake was cut by the new Mr. and Mrs. Pieser, it was served from the refreshment table covered with a blue taffeta cloth. The cake, centering the table was complemented with blue tapers in silver holders and the silver coffee services.

The cake was served by Mrs. Merit Smith, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Roger C. Walsh, Seattle, aunts of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Thomas Bowden, Mrs. Gordon Bowden, Salem, Mrs. Mary Duffy and Mrs. Dan Donohue, San Francisco.

The buffet luncheon was prepared and served by members of the Altar Society of Holy Cross Church.

Rice was passed to guests in a frilly basket by Helen's cousin, Sheila Walsh, Seattle. Music at the reception was provided by Hugh and William Falvey as the bride had the first dance with her father.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Pieser, wore a Venus blue wool crepe jacket dress and hat in matching color with patent accessories and the rose corsage from her wedding bouquet at the shoulder.

Mrs. Pieser is a graduate of Oregon State College where she was

Lake Couple Feted

Lake Couple Feted

Continued From Page 1-D

A reception and tea honoring newly wedded Mr. and Mrs. James Osborne of Lakeview was a recent event in the beautiful garden of the Ben Henzel home, 1435 Eldorado Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Osborne were married in Reno on June 28, 1952. Mrs. Osborne is the former Joan Estes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Estes, 2056 Lawrence Street, and Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Osborne, Homedale Road.

An attractive feature, designed by the bride's mother and carrying out the pink and white color scheme, was a white pole holding three wedding bells, decorated with pink gladioli, which was placed behind the receiving line. Pink gladioli were used on the tea table and white tray baskets with pink gladioli corsages were passed among the guests.

Joan's school friends, who assisted around the garden and at the punch bowl were Nancy Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Yarnell, the former Kay Angstead, Carrie Sue Heilbronner, Vernagene Henzel and Dennis Todd.

Other assisting were Mr. and Mrs. David Burger, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Angstead, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bergmann and Josephine Reginato, Eleanor Bergmann, Joan's cousin, registered the guests.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. H. E. Barnes, Joan's maternal grandmother from Laguna Beach, California; Mrs. R. D. Merrill, Joan's paternal grandmother from Riverside, California; Mrs. Carlo Taylor, Joan's sister, from Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holland, Sacramento; Mrs. Mary Henzel, Malin; and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hopper, Tulalake.

Joan and Jim are now living in Lakeview where Jim is affiliated with the Lakeview Building Materials Company.

Joan attended Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri, and Jim attended Sacramento Junior College.

Klamath Girl Weds

Continued From Page 1-D

and Mrs. O. C. Waltz, parents of the bridegroom, Akron, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gallaspy, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krohn, San Francisco; and James Manning, Hayward, California.

Several parties were given for Ann both in Klamath Falls and Akron. Mrs. Virgil Stippich and Mrs. Orland Lynch entertained at the Elks Party Room for her, and Mrs. Nora Manning, her aunt, entertained with a buffet supper following the wedding rehearsal.

In Akron, both Ann and Edward were honored at a dinner at the Fairlawn Country Club by Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Weaver. Mary Egan, Ann's sister, was also a guest at this affair. Later in the evening, Ann was honored with a shower at the Weaver home. A dinner party was given in her honor by members of the NTO Club in Akron, of which Ann is a member.

Lauryn Yancey Has Swim Party

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Wayne Yancey gave a birthday party at the Twin Springs swimming pool August 7 for her daughter Lauryn who was 6 years old that day.

Those enjoying the afternoon of games and party refreshments were Lauryn and her brother Johnnie; Maxine Brown and Billy; Jackie Metter, Marla and Lori; Dorothy Smith, Craig and Brett; Beverly Roberts and Tim; Doris Schmidt and Janice; Colleen Nichols and Bruce; Tommy Lynch, David and Sharon Seater, Carolyn and Matt Monroe, Sheryl Keady and Virginia; Mrs. Dick Gilchrist and Rickie and Mrs. Yancey.

Birthday Party For Diane Snapp

MERRILL—The Merrill Recreation Park was the scene on Saturday, August 9, for the combined birthday festivities of Diane Snapp and Vicki Chapman.

A host of school friends and playmates attended the afternoon event which included games, birthday refreshments and the unwrapping of birthday gifts.

Vicki, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chapman, was 7 years old on the party day. Diane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snapp, celebrated her 7th birthday anniversary two days later, August 11.

THE LAST FEW MOMENTS before she became Mrs. Richard Thomas Pieser, were spent by Helen Elizabeth Kelleher with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kelleher of Tulalake. The wedding ceremony that united members of two longtime families in the Klamath Basin was held in Holy Cross Catholic Church in Tulalake on Saturday, August 16. —Photo by Ferebee

A LAST LOOK at wedding guests was taken as Helen and Dick leave a reception for honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe. —Photo by Ferebee

Gelatin is not and cannot be prepared from such proteins as de-horns or hools, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica. Engines of a U.S. jet bomber flying at 365 miles per hour develop more horsepower than 400 autos of 200 horsepower each.

KINDERGARTEN STARTS Sept. 8th - Mornings We Teach SOLID Education! Phonics Speech Reading Numbers Auditory Readiness Music-Rhythm Rhymes Modern Teaching Techniques, With Use of Recorders, ASSURES YOUR CHILD FIRST GRADE SUCCESS! Safe Backyard Playground TUTORING ALL LEVELS - MOST SUBJECTS Phonics, with recordings made for individual needs. A method PROVED successful. Afternoons, Evenings and Saturdays. We use Authorized Educational Materials, for both home and school use, all subjects and in recordings. If you live out and can't send your child here, come in for materials and records to teach at home. Your Inquiries Invited - No Obligation DEDRICK PRIVATE SCHOOL -ESTABLISHED- Ph. TU 4-4279 1005 Pine Director: Eva Dedrick, Certified Teacher

LaPointe's takes pride in dressing the bride - a complete selection of bridal gowns and brides maids dresses at . . .

Silver Bells White Candles For Shower

ALTURAS—Mrs. Gene Peck, nee Bonnie Ford, was honoree at a post-nuptial shower in the Odd Fellow Temple, Alturas, Tuesday night, August 12, given by Mrs. Fred Ash and Mrs. W. E. Luckey.

Silver bells and white candles were used in the buffet table decorations, the centerpiece of which was a decorated cake baked by Mrs. Ash.

Mrs. Peck is the daughter of Mrs. D. E. McPeak, former Klamath Falls resident.

Gene is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Peck Sr. of Alturas, who gave a dinner in honor of the newlyweds at the Brass Rail on Friday night, August 8.

Harvey McLains Are Honored

NEW PINE CREEK—A bridal shower was held Sunday afternoon, August 17, in the A. D. Wood's picnic park at the mouth of Kelly Creek Canyon for newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McLain.

Many gifts were received by the young couple from friends who attended the picnic and from others who could not attend.

The statue of Freedom is atop the Capitol dome in Washington, D.C.

"Honeymoon in a Hut"

For those who have dreamed of spending their honeymoon in the remote setting of a tropical isle, here's the answer. A hotel in Hawaii has developed a Polynesian village, with thatched huts for accommodations. It's a picture feature in this shoe leads a boy's life! Flying Aces by Dr. POSNER. Boys will be rough on shoes, so here is a shoe that is tough enough to take all he can give—and keep his feet feeling wonderfully comfortable. Smoothly fashioned by Dr. POSNER and perfectly fitted by our expert fitters. Visit us today. ED'S SHOE SHOP 1022 Main

TODAY'S Family Weekly In The Herald and News

ARROW White - Wash 'n Wear DRESS SHIRTS Known as the "IRON CHEATER" WERE $5 -- NOW CUT TO -- $4 DICK REEDER'S STORE FOR MEN 3th and Main TU 4-6621 Dick Reeder Is Always Glad to Cash Your Paycheck Use Our Free Customer Parking Lot - 3th and Klamath Avenue