

PORTLAND BOUND is the family of Phil Lee, now in the north Oregon city, after a promotion to general sales manager in the firm of Ballou and Wright. Pulling up roots that have gone deep after many years in this city is serious business for Mrs. Lee, (Frances) secretary to Howard Perrin, Klamath Falls architect, next to her husband, their young daughters, left to right, Stephanie, 14, Penny, 17, Andrea, 13, and their son Phil Jr., "Peeko." Also seriously considering import of the move is Jeff, red cocker, who will go along in family auto. Stephanie will leave friends at Fremont Junior High, Penny a senior,

THE LOVELY GARDEN of the Walter Lassett home, 505 Pacific Terrace, was the setting of a bridal shower given in honor of Ann Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Henderson, 1972 Earle Street, recently. Mrs. Lassett and her daughter, Beverly, were hostesses for the affair which was attended by around 50 guests. Shown on the patio are, from the left, Beverly Lassett, Mrs. Lassett,

Shaffer - Steward
Nuptial In Alturas

ALTURAS — Dora Jane (Dori) Steward and Louis Shaffer said their nuptial vows before a large number of relatives and friends Sunday afternoon, August 17, at the Alturas Baptist Church. The Rev. L. Eugene Chism, pastor of the church, officiated.

Dori chose her sister, Mary Ann Steward, as her only attendant. Gary Adair served as best man.

The sanctuary was beautifully decorated with two large baskets of gladioli and bouquets of sweet peas for the ceremony.

As the bride entered on the arm of her father, Bruce Steward, she was radiant in her ballerina length gown of white lace, made with long sleeves. Her shoulder length illusion veil was held by a headband trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli.

A reception was held in the Sunday school room at the church, where the bride and bridegroom shared a very beautiful wedding cake with their guests. Punch was served.

Dori is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Steward of Alturas and a descendant of pioneer families of Surprise Valley.

Louis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Adair and is also a descendant of Modoc County pioneers.

After a brief honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home to friends in Adin, where Louis is employed by the Modoc National Forest.

Mrs. S. E. Luckey and Mrs. L. Eugene Chism were hostesses to the ladies of the Alturas Baptist Church on Thursday evening, August 14, when they honored Dori with a food and staple shower.

Yreka Guest
Is Honored

YREKA — The home of Mrs. Elsie Triveliece in Yreka was the setting for a party given in honor of Mrs. Jack Smith of Tacoma, Washington, by members of the 20-80 Club, as well as other friends of the honoree.

Mrs. Smith, who formerly resided in Yreka, is at present a houseguest of Mrs. Triveliece and has been a honoree at several other social functions given for her and other relatives.

The evening was spent in visiting, and was climaxed with the serving of refreshments.

Those present included Mrs. Lillian Balis, Mrs. R. D. Baumbach, Mrs. A. F. Cameron and granddaughter, Kimberly Cameron, Mrs. Mae Darnell, Mrs. Ray Fraga, Mrs. Ethel Gillis, Mrs. Wilson Grazer, Mrs. Vergil Nelson, and daughter, Leslie, Mrs. Louis Robinson, Mrs. Ray Soule, Mrs. Mary Truphemus, the honoree and hostess.

Aug. 5 Shower
For Nancie Givan

BONANZA — A wedding shower was given at the Bonanza library on August 5 in honor of Nancie Jo Givan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Givan of Bonanza, who will wed Larry Friar of Klamath Falls at St. Francis Cabrini Catholic Church at 11 a.m. August 30. Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Cecil Haley, Mrs. John Driscoll, Mrs. Don Schooler, Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Jack Weimer and Mrs. Homer Dixon.

Summer flowers were arranged around the large room. A wedding bell cake, baked and decorated by Velda Haley, was on the refreshment table.

Jo-Mac Heyden of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Bob Jones of Bonanza assisted in opening the gifts.

Refreshments were served to friends from Klamath Falls, Swan Lake, Merrill, Langell Valley and Bonanza.
