

Ramblings

By RUTH KING

Wonderful summer day party last Sunday at home of Babs and Barney Barnhisel with Deb and Peggy Addison, making quartet of hosts saying, "So Glad You Could Come." Guests wandered about lush lawn under fine old trees until raindrops "splinked" in turquoise pool. Plenty of chit-chat above murmuring of nearby river.

Change of home spots is planned by Katherine and Wilbur Elliott. Talented young musicians who grew up in our town and now are Mom and Pop to Michael, 4 years and 6 months, and his small sister, Elaine, 3, when October rolls across the calendar, Elliotts came to Klamath Falls to gather up chicks who have spent summer with grandparents, Helen and George Blanas, in their new pink house where pink petunias also riot. Move is from Seattle to Tacoma, here Mr. E. will teach all choral music in Clover Park High School, Lakewood District of Tacoma, and Mrs. E. will return to private teaching of notes and scales.

Just any old subject has no curriculum appeal to Nancy Dewey, senior this year at Oregon State College, majoring in math, school of science, Spanish and German, Arabic and Cantonese were out when Nancy, who claims Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dewey of our town as parents, found she could take Russian. This will be her second year in the difficult language, has eyes on future in some spot among intelligentsia here or abroad. . . . in fact has already been interviewed. Nancy is part-time secretary to Dr. Jerome Li, head of the statistics department, OSC, during spare moments. Is spending summer of 1958 riding to and fro in Klamath County Library Bookmobile.

Still gasping about grandeur of Glacier National Park are Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Johnston in Klamath Falls from home in Marquette, Michigan. Mecca for the traveler was home of daughter, Mrs. Murdo Morrison, Mr. M. and Paula, 10, Reed, 7, and small Anne just 3. Two sisters of Mr. J. also on itinerary.

Sizes of classrooms best fitted to young fry and teachers, with problem of best size for best money, also on docket, are problems being studied this week on campus of U of O. Present from among K.F. school officials is Isabelle Brixner, Klamath County elementary supervisor.

Swimming and water skiing at Lake of the Woods are Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Colisch, Portland, and their three elfs, Leslie, Christine and Pierre Jr. Vacation is being spent at cabin and Lakeshore Drive home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Geary. Mrs. C is niece of Marion Geary, was here during World War II and remembers delightful Klamath summers, minus pyrotechnical displays of recent months. Old-time feather beds were once haven for scary femmes during storms.

Left behind was the ocean when Mrs. John (Fay) Pickett brought her three, Marcia, Maureen and Leslie, from Coquille, to spend part of summer with Mrs. P's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steinsifer, 1001 Calhoun Drive. Quartet will turn today toward home, leaving Link River and Upper Klamath Lake on our side of mountains.

Coffee Hour

ALTURAS—The garden of the Stanley Decious home was the setting for an informal morning coffee on Thursday, August 14, when Gay Beverly Decious and Mrs. Don Roby honored Margaret Ann Pinneo with a miscellaneous bridal shower. A hollowed melon was the centerpiece of the coffee table from which fruit and melon cup was served the guests.

OPENING HER GIFTS at a pre-nuptial miscellaneous shower given for her at the Elks Party Room on Wednesday, August 13, is the former Ann Kathryn Egan, whose wedding to Edward Philip Waltz of Akron, Ohio, was an event of August 16. Approximately 50 guests attended the affair which was hosted by Mrs. Virgil Stippich and Mrs. Orland Lynch. Ann, left, was assisted in listing the gifts by her sister, Mary Egan, right.

Mrs. Edan Oster Bonanza Guest

BONANZA—Noble Grand Ethernand presided at a special meeting of Fraternity Rebekah Lodge of Bonanza on August 11, held in honor of Mrs. Edan Oster, Oregon state president of the Rebekah Assembly. Mrs. Oster brought greetings from Ruth Devers, international president of the Rebekah Assemblies.

She also told of the work of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Old Peoples Home.

The lodge gave a tableau of the chaplains charge. Those taking part were Gertrude Dick, chaplain; Esther Fernlund, Rebekah Isabelle Hesel-tine, Naomi, Marlene Holt, Queen Esther; Delphine Brown, Hannah; Eva Roberts, Angel; Edna Oster, Miriam.

A large group of visitors from Prosperity Rebekah Lodge of Klamath Falls were present.

Grand Chief Visits Yreka

YREKA — Highlight of the September 24 meeting of the Aurora Temple, No. 53, Pythian Sisters will be the official visit of Mrs. Irene Steele, Pythian Sisters grand chief of California.

Plans for a potluck dinner were made at the meeting of the organization held Wednesday evening, August 13, with Most Excellent Chief Helena Schlueter presiding. The potluck dinner for the September meeting will take place prior to the regular session, during which time initiation of new members will take place. Mrs. Charlotte Davis of Little Shasta and Mrs. Betty Calkins of Yreka were named as committee chairmen for the dinner event.

Mrs. Schlueter also announced that the annual outdoor potluck party for Pythians, Pythian Sisters and their families has been set for August 27 at 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robinson of Yreka.

A social hour followed Wednesday evening's meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schlueter, with approximately 35 members enjoying refreshments.

AND THAT AIN'T BAD

NEW YORK (UPI)—One hundred different records have been turned out of the song "I've Got It Bad and That Ain't Good" since it was written in 1941 by Duke Ellington and Paul Francis Webster.

GREETINGS . . .

STOWE, Vt. (UPI)—Even as a civilian Germaine LeRiche, 22, had a gripe against Army life. While he was of taking his pre-induction physical, LeRiche's farmhouse burned to the ground.

VISITORS during the last 10 days in Klamath Falls have been Mr. and Mrs. Jess Litwiller, formerly of Klamath Falls and now of Portland where he is assistant trust officer of the First National Bank of Oregon at the head office in Portland.
