Kubs 6-5 Win Paced By Linderman, Burke

Mount Shasta's Seals of the Northern California league wish they had never met Floyd Linderman and Jerry Burke, a pair of hard-to-get Klamath Kubs.

It was Linderman and Burke who paced the Klamath Falls team to a 5-3 win over Mount Shasta last weekend in a "clincher" for the Northern California League championship during regular season play. And it was the same two Kubs who came through at the right times Sunday afternoon at Gem Stadium as the Kubs edged the Seals 7-6 in 11 innings of the first game of the annual President's Cup playoff.

Burke singled home manager Irv Whitt with the winning run Sunday afternoon to give the Kubs the narrow one-run victory and put them one up on Mount Shasta in the post-season playoffs.

A week ago, Linderman and Burke both had a pair of RBIs to lead the 5-3 Klamath Falls win. Sunday, Burke drove three more runs across including the game's winning tally and Linderman pushed across two. In all, the Burke-Linderman combination has accounted for nine of the 12 Klamath runs scored against the Seals in two weeks.

Big Dave D'Olivo, Southern Oregon College's ace moundsman, returned to top form Sunday as he pitched the entire 11 innings. D'Olivo was tagged for 12 scattered hits, but he struck out eight and walked only one to earn the victory over Mount Shasta's Bob Lawary, who gave up 11 hits, struck out six and walked eight.

Klamath scored once in the first and five times in the third as the Kubs pushed ahead of Mount Shasta 6-0. In the opening inning, Dorm Martin scored after being safe on a fielder's choice play and scored on Linderman's double. In the third, four straight base on balls, Linderman's sacrifice fly, Burke's two-run single and a fielding error on the part of Seal shortstop Rick Palfini provided the Kubs with their five runs.

D'Olivo blanked the Shasta nine until the fifth inning when singles by Monk Gasperi and Bob Lawary and two Klamath Falls errors allowed two runs to cross the plate.

The Seals closed the score to a 6-5 margin with three runs in the eighth then tied the count at 6-all with a single tally in the top of th ninth inning. Dick Berenson singled and scored on Bob Poolinetti's single to send the game into extra innings.

Klamath threatened in the ninth and 10th innings, but could not score. In the ninth two runners were on. In the 10th, Klamath had base runners on first and third with two out, but Lawary pitched himself out of the jam by getting Ron Conner on strikes.

In the 11th inning, Lawary wasn't so lucky. Whitt opened the inning with a single. Martin flew out to rightfield for the first out. Then Linderman came through with a single advancing Whitt and Burke drove Irv home with the game's winning run with only one out.

Burke had three hits in six at bats to pace the Kubs' hitting. Linderman, Whitt and Dorm Taucher all had a pair of hits. For the Seals, Monk Gasperi had three hits with Rollie Brooks and Palfini each getting two.

Next Sunday, Klamath Falls goes to Mount Shasta for the second game in the best of three playoff, while Weed travels to Yreka.

Crocker Claims Women's Match

WATERLOO, Iowa (UPI) — Veteran Fay Crocker of Montevideo, Uruguay, today pocketed first place money of $1,313 following her easy 10 - stroke victory in the Waterloo women's golf tournament.

Miss Crocker, at 44 the oldest woman pro on the circuit, gave her younger competitors a lesson in steady shooting Sunday as she fired a 74 despite high winds to finish with a two-under-par 286.

Runnerup was Beverly Hanson who shot a 75 to wind up with a 72-hole total of 296.

Tied for third with 297 totals were Marlene Bauer Hagge and Phyllis Otto Germaine.

SIGN BONUS PLAYER

CLEMSON, S. C. (UPI)—Herb Bernette, Clemson College sophomore from Bristol, Tenn., has signed with the Cincinnati Redlegs for a "sizable bonus." He will finish out the current season with the Redlegs' Geneva, N. Y., farm club in the Class D New York-Penn League.

Giants Beaten 8-5; Tigers, Yanks Split

United Press International

Hank Aaron, still swinging the bat that made Milwaukee famous, had the Giants crying in their beer today and the Braves whetting their appetite again for some more of that tasty World Series champagne.

Aaron, you may recall, belted the two-run homer that clinched Milwaukee's first National League pennant last Sept. 23.

And Sunday he came up with another two-run homer, his 28th, in the 10th inning against San Francisco that beat the second-place Giants, 8-5, and sent them tumbling seven games behind the Braves.

Braves 8, Giants 5

Aaron's wallop gave Milwaukee the jump in the opener of a five-game series against the Giants and even cautious Fred Haney conceded, "It was a big one to win."

Aaron hit his homer off Al Worthington following Eddie Mathews' single. That broke a 5-5 tie and the Braves added another run in the 10th on Joe Adcock's double and Johnny Logan's single.

Frank Robinson's two-run homer in the ninth powered the Redlegs to a 6-5 victory over the Dodgers. Pittsburgh won the opener of a doubleheader, 8-4, and St. Louis gained a split by taking the nightcap, 12-8. The Phillies swept a doubleheader from the Cubs, 13-8 and 5-3, with the second game limited to eight innings because of darkness.

The Yankees stretched their lead to 12 games in the American League even though they split a doubleheader with the Tigers. Frank Lary beat the Yankees for the sixth time this season in the opener, 8-3, but the league-leaders won the nightcap, 3-2, on Norm Siebern's ninth-inning homer. Boston swept a twin-bill from Kansas City, winning the opener, 14-3, and the 11-inning finale, 3-2; Baltimore defeated Chicago, 5-2, and Cleveland walloped Washington, 9-1.

Reds 6, Dodgers 5

Robinson's game-winning homer against the Dodgers was his 26th of the year and came off ex-teammate Johnny Klippstein.

Bucs 8-8, Cards 4-12

Bob Friend gained his 17th victory for the Pirates in their opener with the Cards although he needed help from Roy Face in the eighth. In the nightcap, Stan Musial's pinch single started a five-run rally in the eighth inning that brought reliever Jim Brosnan his ninth victory.

Phils 13-5, Cubs 8-3

Ed Bouchee and Wally Post led the Phils to their sweep over the Cubs. Bouchee hit a grand-slam homer in the opener and a bases-empty homer in the second game while Post tripled in the opener and doubled in the nightcap to drive in a total of five runs.

Tigers 8-2, NY 3-3

Lary's victory over the Yankees in the opener made him the first pitcher to defeat them six times in a single season since Dizzy Trout and Hal Newhouser of Detroit both accomplished the feat in 1944. One of the six hits given up by Lary was a ninth-inning homer by Siebern, whose second homer of the day in the ninth inning of the second game broke a 2-2 tie.

Boston 14-3, A's 3-2

Frank Sullivan, backed by a 16-hit attack that included Dick Gernert's 19th homer, picked up his 10th victory for the Red Sox in their opener with the Athletics. Then Jackie Jensen singled home the winning run off Ray Herbert in the 11th inning of the nightcap. It was his 110th run batted in of the year.

Birds 5, ChiSox 2

The Orioles scored all their runs off Dick Donovan in the first three innings, with Billy Gardner driving in three of them and Gus Triandos two.

Tribe 9, Nats 1

Rookie Jim (Mudcat) Grant of the Indians beat the Senators for the fifth time this year. He held them to eight hits to even his season record at 10-10.

NCAA Athletic Leaders Gather

DENVER (UPI)—Fifty athletic leaders — some of them the biggest names in college sports—sat down together around conference tables today to discuss their problems and differences.

The occasion was the National Collegiate Athletic Association "conference of conferences." Representatives were conference commissioners, athletic directors and coaches.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, said the group had no legislative power, but would review trends in college athletic policies and practice and try to develop some common thinking.

Merrill '9' Cops Crown

Merrill won its second straight Klamath Basin Independent League baseball title Sunday by defeating the Chiloquin Townies 6-3 in a season-ending game played at Merrill.

In the other league game yesterday, the Chiloquin Cubs nipped Lakeview 2-1 in a fray that closed the season for both teams.

Merrill scored twice in the first inning on Ted Ammerman's triple and added two more in the second to take a 4-0 lead. Chiloquin, never ahead of Merrill, picked up its first run of the day when Chester Jack blasted a ball 360 feet into Lost River.

Ammerman and Fred Taylor each had three hits for the winners.

Lakeview led 1-0 going into the last of the eighth inning at Chiloquin. But the host Cubs scored twice in the inning to edge the Lake County club.
