

Pirates Grab Second Spot As Milwaukee Tops Giants

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Maybe it's time to admit those pesky Pittsburgh Pirates are for real.
With only 4½ weeks left in the National League race, the Pirates are back in second place—fighting for their first finish in the first division in a decade. They haven't finished as high as second since 1944, when they wound up 14½ games behind the St. Louis Cardinals.
They're now eight games behind league-leading Milwaukee, moving up from third by beating the Cardinals 5-3 last night after the Braves had slapped down the Giants again, 7-3, with four home runs.
It was the Braves' eighth in a row over San Francisco. Lew Burdette was the winner.

Robin Roberts, riding a comeback spurt, won his 14th as Philadelphia whipped the Chicago Cubs 10-3. Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles 6-4.
In the American League, Bob Turley, the majors' top winner, bagged his 19th as the New York Yankees defeated Kansas City 6-2. The Chicago White Sox beat Washington 5-2, and Baltimore defeated Cleveland 1-0 in 12 innings.
Bucs 5, Cards 3
The Bucs wrapped it up on Frank Thomas' two-run, 34th homer for a 4-1 lead in the third inning. Don Gross (5-5) won it in relief of rookie George Witt. Sam Jones (11-10) was the loser. Gene Green hit his 10th homer with a man on, for the Cards.

Burdette (15-9), who hasn't lost to the Giants since Sept. 16, 1954, picked up his 19th victory in the majors with a six-hitter while packing away a 9-2 record since the All-Star Game. He lost a 3-0 lead when Willie Kirkland hit his 12th home run in the fifth inning and Willie Mays hit his 23rd with a man on in the sixth. But Eddie Mathews then cracked the first of his two home runs for a 4-3 edge in the seventh off loser Ruben Gomez (7-11).
Del Crandall hit his 18th homer in the eighth, and Mathews then hit his 27th and Wes Covington smacked his 23rd in the ninth.

Turley Posts 19th; White Sox Whip Nats

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If that American League pennant "race" leaves you cold, try warming up on this: Who is the league's most valuable player?
Jackie Jensen of the Boston Red Sox? Bob Turley of the New York Yankees? Bob Cerv of the Kansas City Athletics?
Those three appear to be the leaders. Jensen because of his 33 home runs and league-leading runs batted in. Turley because he has become the ace and steady guy on a championship staff, leading the majors in victories and topping the AL in complete games and strikeouts. Cerv because of his batting bat—the man who carried the A's most of the season despite all sorts of serious injuries.
Each faces a jinx. No Boston player has won the MVP award since Ted Williams in 1949. No Kansas City player ever has won it, and no A's man has done it since 1952, when Bobby Shantz took it.
While a Yankee has been the winner in the last four years, no pitcher has won since Shantz, the little lefty now working for the Yankees.
Turley won his 19th last night with a 6-2 decision over the A's. He gave up eight hits, two of 'em by Cerv, who moved within .002 percentage points of idle leader Pete Runnels of the Red Sox.
Baltimore defeated Cleveland 1-0 in 12 innings, with Hee Brown outlasting Don Ferrarese, and the Chicago White Sox defeated Washington 5-2. Detroit and Boston were idled by rain.

Yanks 6, A's 2
Turley faced eight men in the first inning, and trailed 2-0 before he got to the third man, Roger Maris followed a leadoff walk to Bob Martyn with his 23rd home run. Cerv, batting .325 to Runnels' .327, doubled in the first inning, but Turley fanned Joe DeMaestri with the bases loaded for the final out and blanked the A's on six hits the rest of the way.
The Yankees collected 14 hits, all but one of 'em singles. Jack Urban (8-9) lost it.

Birds 1, Tribe 0
The Orioles, held to two singles for 10 innings, finally put it away when a walk and singles by Billy Gardner and Jim Busby loaded the bases and Ferrarese's sixth walk, to Dick Williams, forced the run home. Brown, now 6-3, gave up nine hits—seven of them split by Minnie Minoso, who had four, and Billy Moran.

Phils 10, Cubs 3
The Cubs grabbed three runs in the first, capped by Walt Moryn's 19th homer with one on. But then they were shut out on two hits by Roberts, who finished with a four-hitter for his seventh victory in his last nine decisions. Robin also cracked a three-run triple as the Phils scored six in the fifth. Moe Drabowsky suffered his 11th defeat.

Don Newcombe (4-11) needed relief help in a two-run Dodger eighth, but beat his ex-mates for the first time after the Reds staked him to an early 6-1 lead. Jerry Lynch drove in the first three Red runs, with a two-run homer in the first and a ground out in the second. Sandy Koufax (9-8) lost it.

Joe Louis' Wife Asks Annulment
NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Louis' second wife is suing him for an annulment on the grounds that he didn't want children and failed to provide a home for her.
The former heavyweight boxing champion's lawyer, Ralph Accio, says Louis will not contest the suit.
His wife, Mrs. Rose Morgan Louis, is a wealthy Harlem beauty shop operator and cosmetics manufacturer. She and Louis were married Christmas Day, 1955. They have been separated since November 1957.

Sox 5, Nats 2
Early Wynn (11-13) backed his seven-hitter with a pair of RBI singles off loser Russ Kemmerer (6-13). Sherm Lollar hit his 18th homer for the Sox, while Clint Courtney doubled home the Nats' pair.

NCAA Looks Into Offers By Pro Sports

DENVER (UPI)—More than 50 of the nation's top college coaches and athletic directors have condemned attempts by professional baseball to give student athletes scholarships and tie them up before they graduate.
The athletic officials were delegates to the National Collegiate Athletic Association's "conference of conferences" which concluded here Tuesday.
They recommended the NCAA approve legislation preventing such scholarships at its meeting next January.
"All the colleges want is to have professional sports leave the student athlete alone until his class graduates," the conference said.

National Guard Wins President's Cup Play

National Guard's Men's Softball League entry captured the 1958 President's Cup Tuesday night at Conger Field by defeating Market Basket 3-2 in the final game.
The guardsmen broke open a pitching battle between Joe Lindsay of Market Basket and the Guards' Frank Detz by scoring the winning run in the bottom of the sixth on an error, a single and two sacrifices.
Sherm Hawkins led off the Guards' sixth inning by gaining life on an error. Roy Harris drilled a sharp single into right-center advancing Hawkins to second. A sacrifice by Dale Himmelwright pushed both runners along and Hawkins scored on a long sacrifice fly by Detz.

Kub-Legion Scrap Called

The baseball game originally scheduled between the Klamath Kubs and the American Junior Legion nine for tonight at Gem Stadium has been canceled, it was reported Tuesday afternoon by Irv Whitt, manager of the Kubs.
Legion boss, Hi Hatfield, and Whitt mutually agreed on the cancellation of the contest because of the overlapping into football practices now underway. A rainstorm a week ago had forced the first postponement of the game which was to feature Kuba pitchers working for the legion and vice versa.
