It's Often Hard To Sympathize With Mailmen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sometimes it's hard to sympathize with a postman and his tired feet.

Five thousand are attending the National Assn. of Letter Carriers convention here and it seemed that most of them were in a 24-hour parade along Market Street last night.

That's not all! Spokesmen said their marching bands will march — and play — through downtown San Francisco daily the remainder of the week.

Accident Kills Eugene Lineman

EUGENE (AP) — Lineman Arthur E. (Red) Barger, 40, Eugene, was killed while at work for the Eugene Water and Electric Board Tuesday.

Fellow workmen said they believe Barger touched two wires accidentally while at work on a utility pole in Eugene. They heard him cry out, then saw him slump against his safety belt. He was removed quickly from the pole, but attempts to revive him failed.

He leaves a widow.

VON BRAUN RECOVERING — AMSTERDAM (UPI) — U.S. Army missile expert Werner Von Braun, who suffered a slipped disc Monday while attending the International Astronautical Congress, was allowed to leave his bed today.
