

"HARVEST MOON," is the theme of the Sojourners tea to be held at 1 p.m. September 6 in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel. Mrs. E. O. Jackson, and Mrs. A. Douglas, Tennant, co-chairmen have planned cards and a style show in addition to the tea for the guests. Miller's will feature smart fall hats, jewels and costume accessories. The harvest abundance of fruits and flowers will be used as decorations about the rooms and as table attractions. The tea is open to the public. Planning the festivity at a recent committee meeting were seated, left to right, Mrs. Ted F. Bechtel, Mrs. George D. Paris, Mrs. E. O. Jackson, Mrs. A. Douglas, Mrs. Mike Kienitz, Mrs. T. E. Rea and Mrs. Don F. Ritzel. Standing, left, are Mrs. Bob Wright and Mrs. Wayne Horton. — Photo by Ellis

Adin Girl Is Engaged

ADIN — Mr. and Mrs. Keith Edgerton of Adin have announced the engagement of their daughter, Darlene, to Glenn Kresge, also of Adin. Glenn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvel Kresge. He is presently a sophomore at California Polytechnic Institute and Darlene plans to enroll there after their wedding sometime in early December.

INVITATION ACCEPTED

REDONDO BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—Leo D. Burr left a note on his door reading, "Make yourself at home, the key's under the welcome mat." Whoever went in and walked out with two rifles, an adding machine, a typewriter, a sewing machine and a piggy bank didn't even leave a "thank you" note.

OF ALL PEOPLE

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI)—A teachers' meeting was interrupted Monday when someone announced a car was parked illegally outside and would have to be moved. The school's driver education instructor got up and moved his car.

SOCIETY

ENGAGEMENT — Mr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Kelley, former residents of Klamath Falls, now living in Indianapolis, announce the engagement of their daughter Carolyn Ruth to Sebern Randall Page of Nashville, Tennessee. The bride elect appeared here on television and radio. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sebern H. Page of West Frankfort, Illinois. Carolyn is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman G. Brown, 2143 Orchard Avenue.
