

Fashion Writer Previews Fall Styles For M'Lady

By NADEANE WALKER
 PARIS (AP)—Jump on the fashion merry-go-round; here we go again.
 The waistline is up, the neckline is down. Skirts are cut off at the knee, except for Dior's, which are down to mid-calf.
 All this you can see for yourself today, with permission of the fashion creators, who insist on giving buyers and manufacturers a three-week head start on copyists and the curious public.

 Fashion writers were allowed to describe the new styles after openings three weeks ago, but pictures could not be published until today.
 Do these new fashion photos make you feel outmoded? It's all a matter of the waistline, which has migrated right up under the bust, to imitate the styles Empress Josephine wore in the days of Napoleon's empire.
 But before you go overboard for the Empire line, be forewarned: It has all the earmarks of a short-lived fad. The dress-makers—American, Italian, English and French—have all gone in for it a bit too heavily and unanimously. There's no sure way to run a new fashion quickly into the ground, and buyers were already grumbling before the last show ended.
 Here are other news notes of the season, in case your memory needs refreshing:
 Black is the leading color. Bright shades come in mostly for after-dark occasions. Gold lame, red, rosy pink, mauves, blues and green lead the spectrum.
 Loosely woven mohair wool, satiny surfaced or tweedy wools for daytime give way to sumptuous all-over embroideries, satins and laces for evening. Fur trimmings abound—sable if you can afford it, or mink will do.
 Big collars are practically a trademark. They range from top width for Cardin's "Mushroom" line, and are almost capes in some Dior-versions.
 Rounded or scoop necklines are just about as low as they can go. But some bare-bosomed evening fashions (notably Dior's) modestly cover up the arms with long sleeves. Backs are often bare to the waist.
 Dark stockings (black at Lanvin Castillo, creole brown at Desses) are the darling of the moment. Lanvin even brings back stocking clocks for a naughty look, and achieves a shocking contrast with black stockings and pastel shoes.
 Most popular hats to go with the new dresses are tall fezzes or puff-crowned mushrooms. Some look like cabbage heads or feathery fright wigs.

Red Bombings Interpreted

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"The Russians do not want war," says Mrs. Chiang Kai-shek.
 Newsman asked her last night about the Chinese Reds' intentions.
 "The Communist mind is so devious," said the wife of the Nationalist Chinese leader, "that we can never be sure just what their plans are."
 She said renewal of the Red Chinese attacks on Quemoy may only be a probing operation but that the possibility of an all-out invasion cannot be ruled out.
 Mme. Chiang, who arrived from New York by plane for an address before the American Bar Assn. convention, said a firm stand by the free world would offset Red gains.
 "That was proven in the Berlin airlift and in the Mideast," she said. "The Russians do not want war."

NOT SO HONEST
 NEW YORK (AP)—Leopold Goetz, 67-year-old Greenwich Village newspaper employe, won't be able to enjoy the $75 reward he got for returning a woman's lost wallet which contained personal papers but no money.
 He's charged with raising the $75 reward check to $175 and cashing it.

LAWYERS-STAR HOLD TAX TALK
 LOS ANGELES (AP)—Desi Arnaz discussed income and taxes with the American Bar Assn. yesterday, but he indicated they come in the proper sequence.
 "Let me make the dollar first," the television actor-producer said in a panel discussion with three lawyers. "I can't pay taxes before that."
 Arnaz was discussing hypothetical cases involving formation, operation and eventual closing out of an independent movie and television production firm. He said the intent of the tax law is unquestionable, but—
 "It's the interpretation. The government wants people to make films but sometimes it appears to be collecting taxes before the money is made."

Reports Anger Actors Guild
 HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—The Screen Actors Guild is up in arms over reports that GIs are being used as actors in a commercial television series being shot in Germany.
 SAG President Leon Ames wrote Rep. Joe Holt (R-Calif.) that "under no circumstances should Army personnel be allowed to perform without remuneration in commercially sponsored filmed TV programs."
 Ames said the series is called "Citizen Soldier" and uses Army personnel as actors without giving them beyond their military salary.

Presidential Campaigns May Be Seen On Video Tape

By CHARLES MERCER
 NEW YORK (AP)—Video tape, the system that enables moving pictures to be recorded and instantly played back without the use of film, is improving television news coverage.
 Looking ahead to the 1960 presidential conventions one can see that tape might help solve some of the problems involved in TV coverage of the 1952 and 1956 conventions. Even the most ardent members of both major parties agreed that keeping TV cameras on both conventions continuously in '56 resulted in some mighty dull viewing.
 Sig Mickelson, general manager of CBS news, said: "I'd prefer to edit the conventions and use video tape for the less vital parts of the proceedings in 1960. We would, of course, go live for balloting and other highlights. You never can overlook the importance, the sense of actuality, in live coverage of events as they happen."
 NBC News first used video tape in presenting President Eisenhower's inaugural address in 1957. More recently CBS News used tape in covering the United Nations sessions at the height of the Middle East crisis last month.
 One example was the day President Eisenhower addressed the General Assembly. The President's speech was carried live and also taped; the speech by Andrei Gromyko, the Soviet representative, was taped only. At 7:30 p.m. that evening CBS-TV presented a special half-hour program of the highlights of both speeches with interpretive interpolations by network commentators.
 Although tape has the advantage of a better image than film and does not require its lengthy processing, tape still cannot be spliced. Thus breaks made in the continuity of a taped program must be bridged by live camera shots. It is expected that it will be technically possible to splice tape within two years.
 Although it's much too early to determine exactly how television will cover the 1960 conventions, Mickelson pointed out the networks established a pattern of saturation coverage in 1952 that it may be difficult to break. In that year, because of the number of single station markets and single cable lines which had to be shared the networks compromised by all covering the entire proceedings.
 Video tape, as CBS News used it in recent U. N. coverage, would appear to be the means of eliminating much tediousness in TV's coverage of the 1960 conventions.

Former Actress Scheduled To Appear In Court Today
 LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Attractive Gregg Sherwood, wife of automobile executive Horace E. Dodge II, appears in court today for arraignment on charges of suspicion of battery and drunkenness.
 The former actress and Chicago columnist Irv Kupcinet, 46, were jailed Tuesday after an early morning encounter with police officers along La Cienega Boulevard near Hollywood.
 There were two stories.
 The one told by Officers Kenneth F. Bernard and Lawrence B. Brown pictured 34-year-old Mrs. Dodge as a pugacious, fighting, kicking, spitting object to go to jail.
 The other told by the former model was that she was the victim of a "nightmare" of hair pulling, arm twisting, and tugging by police matrons.
 According to arresting officers, the trouble started when Mrs. Dodge leaned from a car driven by Kupcinet and yelled at officers: "You guys had better get off the street. You're speeding and you're drunk."
 After following and stopping Kupcinet's car, the police said Mrs. Dodge called them "two slimy Napoleonic idiots."
 "You both are slob. I hate you!" the officers quoted Mrs. Dodge.
 The scene switched to the city jail where the officers said the tall beauty, using a fashionable shoe as a weapon, fought it out with matrons Marilyn Sperry and Gail Rice.
 Later the former showgirl was released on $270 bail and ordered to appear in court. Kupcinet was freed on $263. He was ordered to appear on misdemeanor drunk driving charges.
 Officers said Kupcinet went to jail quietly, denied he was drunk, passed a coordination test but refused to take an intoximeter examination.

Red Invasion Of Quemoy Fear Ebbs In Washington
 WASHINGTON (AP)—Worry that the Chinese Reds might soon try a full-scale invasion of Quemoy ebbed here today. Instead, officials speculated on what the Communists intend by their continued heavy bombardment of the off-shore island.
 Rep. Clement Zablocki (D-Wis.) and Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) joined U. S. diplomats in viewing the Communist attacks as a primarily political, rather than military, move in the cold war.
 They discounted the possibility of an imminent seizure attempt against Quemoy or Matsu, Nationalist-held islands just off the Communist-controlled mainland, or against Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Formosa stronghold itself.
 That left open the question: Just what are the Reds up to?
 Some State Department authorities figured the Chinese Communists might invade the tiny, lightly defended Tan Islands near Quemoy as a cheap follow-up to the big bombardment of the past five days. Peiping could then ballyhoo this as a great victory.
 These officials suggested Red Chinese Premier Mao Tze-tung might be trying to strengthen his bid for United Nations membership, due for discussion at the U. N. General Assembly next month. They said he may also be serving notice he wants to be included in any future summit conference.
 Mansfield, the assistant Senate Democratic leader and a Foreign Relations Committee member, said he doubted the bombardment was designed to bring pressure to bear for a U. N. seat.
 He called it a diversionary tactic by Peiping, after Mao's recent meeting with Soviet boss Nikita Khrushchev, to keep the United States on the defensive now that Middle East tension has eased.
 Zablocki, chairman of a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee on the far East, said he has been told that "the reports of the ferocity of the attacks on the island were a little bit exaggerated."
 Zablocki said U. S. leadership in the Far East would suffer a heavy blow if Quemoy should be evacuated now. Any such pullout should not be undertaken at least until after the firing has quieted down, he said.
 Intelligence officials reported new evidence the Reds have bolstered jet fighter and bomber strength along the Chinese coast. But they said Communist troops are still several hundred miles inland and no invasion fleet has been assembled.
 Mansfield said it appeared the United States has told Chiang not to retaliate against the mainland. "I don't believe that Chiang will be unleashed," he said.
 Zablocki said Nationalist planes have been dropping rice and leaflets, not bombs, on their forays over Communist territory.
 However, the Nationalists reported today their artillery had destroyed several Red gun positions and some Communist supply dumps in the Quemoy area.

Actor's Wife Granted Divorce
 SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—The eight-year marriage of actor Ernest Borgnine and his wife Rhoda is ended. The divorce, granted Mrs. Borgnine yesterday, will cost Borgnine at least a third of a million dollars in the next 15 years.
 She charged cruelty, and the Academy Award winner did not contest her suit. Custody of a daughter, Nany Allison, 6, was awarded to Mrs. Borgnine.
 Borgnine agreed to pay $115 monthly child support, give Mrs. Borgnine the $45,000 family home and pay her 12 1/2 per cent of his gross income or a minimum of $2,000 monthly for the next 15 years.

Many Cheer Late Ferry
 PORT AUX BASQUE, Nfld. (UPI)—Thousands turned out along the waterfront Tuesday to cheer a ferry. Ship whistles sounded and car horns blared.
 The Canadian National Railway's ferry, William Carson, finally had arrived—more than a three years late.
 The 11-million-dollar ferry had been scheduled to run between North Sydney and Port Aux Basques. But after it was built, officials realized the ferry was too big for the dock here.
 So the ferry was put on another run and the federal government started a three-year program to improve the harbor. And, at last, the William Carson docked here on a test run.
Soroptimists Set Fall Meet
 Highlights of the national convention of Soroptimist clubs, held at Houston, Texas, from July 6 to 12, will be given by Edna Albrecht, president of the Soroptimist Club of Klamath Falls at the first fall meeting to be held Thursday noon.
 Luncheon meetings this year will be held at the Winema Hotel in the Canvas Room, the same location as last year.
 "The boring details of the convention will all be mimeographed and the talk will be devoted to the interesting highlights, according to Kathleen Thompson, program chairman for this year.
 Also on the program will be vocal numbers by Sue Thompson.
 This will be the first meeting conducted by the new slate of officers and a large attendance is expected. Members wishing to bring guests are asked to call the chairman of the attendance committee, Melvina Nitschelm at TU 4-3978 (Klamath View Auto Camp) or Ida Lamb, TU 4-9632 (Coca-Cola Bottling Company).
