Pirates Clobber Cardinals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The San Francisco Giants finally have squashed Milwaukee's hex, hitting the law of averages for a double jackpot behind the hitless relief pitching of Al Worthington.

The Giants had lost eight in a row to the Braves and Worthington had beaten them only twice in 15 decisions before the big righthander backed up his almost perfect three-inning job on the mound with a 12th-inning single that led to a 3-2 victory last night.

That clipped the Braves' National League lead to seven games over the Pittsburgh Pirates, who rapped 18 hits and beat St. Louis 14-1. Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles 8-7 and the Chicago Cubs beat Philadelphia 5-2 with Ernie Banks pushing his major league-leading home run total to 42.

In the American League, Kansas City ripped pennant-bound New York 11-7. The Chicago White Sox defeated Washington 2-1. Cleveland beat Baltimore 8-5 and Detroit split a day-night doubleheader at Boston, winning 7-2 after a 3-2 defeat.

SF 3, Braves 2
The Giants made it as Bob Trowbridge walked Orlando Cepeda on four pitches with the bases loaded in the 12th, cracking a 2-2 tie that had stood since Joe Adcock had put the Braves' square with a pinch home run in the seventh.

Worthington (11-6) gave the Braves nothing but a walk in his three innings. He struck out three. Stu Miller went nine, giving up nine hits, three of them in the first inning when Red Schoendienst, Hank Aaron and Wes Covington singled for a 1-0 Milwaukee lead. Daryl Spencer's 15th home run, after a walk to Cepeda, gave the Giants the edge in the fourth against starter Juan Pizarro.

Bucs 14, Cards 1
Dick Stuart, Bob Skinner and Bob Porterfield homered in the Pirates' 6th victory — their best total since winning 71 in 1949. Porterfield was forced off the mound by a knee injury in the fourth inning — leaving the victory to reliever Vern Law (10-11), who pitched one-hit, shutout ball. Skinner and Thomas, who doubled with the bases loaded in a five-run sixth, each drove in three runs for the Bucs. Rookie Nels Chitum (0-1) lost it.

Reds 8, Bums 7
Pete Whisenant's pinch-hit grand-slam home run, his first in the majors, gave the Reds a 7-2 lead in the fifth inning and they wrapped it up on a bases-loaded walk by ex-mate Johnny Klippstein in the seventh. Joe Nuxhall (11-9) won it with relief help. Carl Erskine (4-4) lost it in relief.

Cubs 5, Phils 2
The Cubs broke a 2-2 tie with Banks' two-run shot in the sixth off loser Curt Simmons (6-13), and rookie Bob Anderson gained his first major league victory with a four-hitter.

Charles Tries Ring Comeback
FAIRMONT, W. Va. (UPI) — Former heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles attempts a comeback here tonight in a 10-round bout against former U. S. amateur champion Johnny Harper.

The 37-year-old Charles, who probably will weigh in around 193 pounds, hasn't fought in two years. He will face an opponent who has won 17 of 24 bouts since he turned pro in 1956.

Charles said he was in excellent condition after seven months of vigorous training during which he worked himself down from a pudgy 234 pounds. He said his "reflexes are very good" despite his age.

Gil Roesler, senior Army half-back, is also a hurdler and high jumper on the track team.

Berra Hits 20th HR Level Again
NEW YORK (UPI) — Chalk up another milestone for Yogi Berra — 10 straight years with 20 or more home runs.

Berra unfurled No. 29 for this season in the third inning of Wednesday's game against the Athletics with one man aboard. Starting in 1949, when he hit exactly 20, Yogi has hit at least that number every year — but, oddly, never more than 30.

Pro Golfers Assn. Sets Annual Meeting
DUNEDIN, Fla. (UPI) — The Professional Golfers Association announced today it will hold its annual meeting Nov. 6-14 at Clearwater, Fla. The meeting will last 10 days.

A SMART MOVE
ANADARKO, Okla. (AP) — G. C. Blackburn had a good excuse when he told how his string of 10 fish got away. He was holding the stringer in his teeth while reobscuring his lines when a water moccasin swam in his direction. He was so surprised his mouth popped open and the fish fell into the water.

HITLESS WONDER
NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Although he's only 13, Bruce Howard is well accustomed to the stress and strain of a no-hit pitching performance. Two years ago in the Midget League, the youngster pitched six of them. Recently, Bruce — now in American Legion ball — added another. He defeated Portsmouth Post 37, the district champion, 1-0. Young Howard also singled and scored his team's only run.

TEXAN REPLACES SHEA
FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (UPI) — Hugh Sweeney of Houston, Tex., has replaced Gil Shea of Los Angeles in the U. S. singles championships. Shea, fourth ranked tennis player in the nation, wired officials he is "unable to compete" in the tournament which begins Friday at Forest Hills.

Chi 2, Nats 1
Southpaw Billy Pierce won his fifth straight and 13th of the year with a four-hitter for the White Sox, giving up a seventh-inning home run to Norm Zauchin. Nellie Fox's bunt and doubles by Billy Goodman and Don Mueller bagged it in the fourth against Camilo Pascual (7-9).

Tribe 8, Birds 5
The Indians had 15 hits, but Cal McLish needed ninth-inning relief for his 14th victory. Don Mossi came on with a run in the bases loaded and none out. He gave up an RBI single to Bob Boyd, then fanned Gene Woodling and Bob Nieman and got Joe Ginsberg on a grounder. Connie Johns (6-8) lost it.

Phoenix' PC Lead Cut Back

United Press International
The faltering Phoenix Giants dropped their fourth straight game and second shutout of the week to Salt Lake Wednesday night but held on to a narrow one-game lead over second-place San Diego as the Padres ran into more trouble at Vancouver.

Fred Green put the Giants down six hits while hurling the Utah club to a 5-0 victory, but San Diego stumbled in its chance to move into a first place deadlock by dropping a 5-3 decision to Vancouver. The third-place Mounties, who almost dropped out of the Pacific Coast League race altogether last week, gained a full game on both teams and now trail Phoenix by only 3 1-2 games.

Seattle blanked Spokane, 3-0, and Portland rolled over Sacramento, 12-3, in the night's other games.

San Diego broke loose for three runs in the seventh inning at Vancouver to tie the score at 3-3, but the Canadians came back with a pair of their own in the bottom of that frame to go ahead for good. Russ Heman, the last of three Vancouver pitchers, stopped the Padres over the last two frames to pick up his ninth win of the year. The visitors' third hurler, Pete Wojey, was charged with his eighth defeat. Both clubs had eight hits. The victory gave Vancouver a 2-1 series edge.

Frank Kellert led Portland's 14-hit attack on four Sacramento hurlers, driving in four runs on three hits. Vic Lombardi won the distance for the Beavers to pick up his 10th win again five setbacks. Portland knocked Marshall Bridges from the mound in the fifth-inning after the Solon righthander had struck out three to run his league-leading total to 190. Carlos Paula homered for the Sacs.

Emily's Pride Scores Hambletonian Win

DU QUOIN, Ill. (UPI) — A trim, brown filly with a thoroughbred's heart, Emily's Pride, ranked today with the great names of harness racing.

The three-year-old daughter of Star's Pride first trotted the fastest Hambletonian heat ever by a filly, 2:00 1-5, and then shook off the shock of banging into a rival's sulky to come back and win the 33rd Hambletonian, harness racing's classic stake, with a record speed of 1:59 4-5 in the third heat.

The win was not unexpected since previously she boasted the best time of the field for a mile this year, 2:00 2-5, and was an even money co-favorite to win, although no pari-mutuel betting was allowed and only friendly wagering occurred.

But after her stellar first heat performance, there came the opportunity to show her heart. She was moving well in the back stretch, challenging last year's two-year-old champion, Sharpshooter, for first place when her foot whacked into the wheel on Sharpshooter's sulky. She broke stride and finished 12th in the 14th horse field.

Thus, when the field went off in the third heat, she was in the second tier. That's when the heart, and the savvy of her driver, 64-year-old Flick Nipe, told the tale of the race.

He let the field settle down and in the back stretch moved her smartly into the middle of the pack. When the way was clear ahead, with 3-8 of a mile left, Nipe moved Emily's Pride outside and she took over.

Emily's Pride trotted the final quarter in :30 1-5 to win by a half-length over another filly, Sandalwood.

The victory paid Emily's Pride, owned by Castleton and Walnut

Hall farms, Lexington, Ky., the second biggest Hambletonian purse in history, $82,750.

Little Rocky, owned by S. A. Camp Farm, Shafter, Calif., and a 12-10-1 outsider, took the second heat. But Little Rocky's best behind Emily's Speed in the third heat was fourth, and he wound up with second money of $25,140.

Third money of $10,458 went to Mr. Saunders, second in the first heat, 11th in the second and third in the final, and Sandalwood took fourth money of $3,229 on fourth, 14th and second in the three heats.
