Anniversary Services Set

Services Sunday, August 31, will mark the second anniversary of ministry at the Assembly of God Church for Rev. and Mrs. Silas H. Jones and their two sons, Gary Lynn and Bobby.

Dr. Cecil Lowry, Oakland, teacher, lecturer, evangelist and pastor, will be present to fill the pulpit at both the morning and evening services, 11 o'clock and 7:30 evangelistic rally. The public is invited to attend both services.

Reverend Jones graduated from the Glad Tidings Bible Institute of San Francisco, now Bethany Bible College of Santa Cruz. After completion of his studies in 1948, he served as pastor of churches for several years and served the Assembly of God Fellowship as an evangelist before accepting a call to the Assembly of God Church in Klamath Falls.

FHA Refund Figures Told

FHA refunds to families that have paid off their insured mortgages this year amounted to almost eight million dollars, Federal Housing Commissioner Norman P. Mason said today.

"The National Housing Act," Commissioner Mason pointed out, "provides for a system of mutuality under the home mortgage insurance plan of Section 203. The way it works is that any portion of the mortgage insurance premiums paid by the borrower, but not needed by the FHA to pay for its operations, are returned to the owner of the property after the mortgage is paid in full."

The eight million dollars in share payments paid by the FHA last year went to 79,000 home owners following the payment in full of their mortgages. Since the beginning of its insured mortgage operations the mutual mortgage insurance fund of the FHA has paid $82,655,000 to 689,000 families.

"To many FHA insured mortgage home owners the dividend comes as a surprise," Commissioner Mason said, "because most people do not realize that the Federal Housing Administration is a completely self-supporting government agency."

"We not only pay all of our operating expenses from income but also under the mutual fund we pay these participating share dividends when the mortgage is paid in full and there is a credit balance because losses were less than anticipated."

Home Extension

By Mildred Martin

An officer's training meeting led by Ruth Gustavson, home demonstration agent was held Monday, August 25, at the fairgrounds.

Forty officers from 18 units in the county attended to learn how to conduct a good meeting as well as their duties as officers and members.

Mrs. Earl Mack, past district chairman, spoke on "Planning a Unit Meeting."

Members of the advisory committee who participated in the program were Mrs. Glen Thomas, Mrs. Orville Ferrell, Mrs. Joe Hicks, Mrs. Louis Randall, and Mrs. M. W. Marten. Mrs. Nolan Arnett, home extension office secretary, Mrs. Lane Smith, past chairman of the county committee, also helped with the program.

Refreshments were served by the county committee at the close of the meeting.
