U.S. Skiers Said 'Strong, Dumb'

INNSBRUCK (UPI) — A famed Austrian ski school classifies Americans as tough skiers with no brains.

Teachers at the Red Devil ski school of Kitzbuehel said the best pupils are Americans and Germans. But they said Americans take more risks than Germans.

"Americans ski with their legs and Germans ski with their brains," one teacher explained.

Picture Magazine For Italian Girls

ROME (UPI) — A gaudy type of magazine aimed at the working girl is making publishing history in Italy.

The weekly publications are filled with dreamy, romantic stories unfolding in a series of still photographs of customed actors portraying the roles.

More than 6,000,000 copies of these tabloid-size magazines are sold every week — exceptionally high in Italy, considering that the largest circulation for a newspaper barely tops one million.

The stories in the "fumetti" magazines are nearly all entitled "super-productions" and feature movie starlets. Silvano Mangano, who later achieved fame in "Bitter Rice," was one of the first to star in a "fumetti" production.

Current idol today is actor Vittorio Gassman, starring in a super-production of "Romeo and Juliet." This sequence was staged in the historic castle of Duke Luigi Grazzano Visconti near Piacenza. The two-week shooting of the photo romance cost $32,000 and Gassman's fee was $7,200.

Love Conquers In Shocking Affair

PIETRASANTA, Italy (UPI) — After 14 years as a mute, a young man here recently recovered the power of speech through a "miracle" worked by the girl he loved.

The first words uttered by 22-year-old Mauro Genovesi, who was struck dumb at the age of eight when his family's home was destroyed in an Allied bombing raid, were: "I have come back."

He spoke them to Maria Ciambrelli, the girl who had told him several hours before, "I don't want to marry a mute."

Maria wasn't being cruel. Doctors had told her that Mauro lost his ability to speak because of a shock, by rejecting his sweetheart might give him his voice back.

So she decided to supply the shock, by rejecting her sweetheart and telling him: "When you can talk, come back to me. I will be waiting."

It was all that Mauro needed.

Sproul Hall Name For College Site

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Sproul Hall has been selected as the name of the newest student residence hall at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Honoring Robert Gordon Sproul, President Emeritus of the university, and Mrs. Sproul, the name was approved recently by the Regents.

The men's wing will be named the Robert Gordon Sproul Wing, and the women's section, the Ida Wittschen Sproul Wing. Construction will start late in August, according to Carl C. McElvy, principal architect. The expected completion date is April, 1960.

The Continuing Study of newspaper Reading shows that newspapers are thoroughly read by both men and women.
