New Buildings House Airmen

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI) — Classes began today for 1,145 cadets at the U.S. Air Force Academy's 135 million dollar modernistic new campus north of this mountain-topped Colorado City.

The cadet wing moved in over the Labor Day weekend from the academy's temporary location at Lowry Air Force Base near Denver, 70 miles to the north.

A formal review Monday officially inaugurated the new campus in the shadow of the Rocky Mountains and famed Pikes Peak. The cadets, dressed in summer white with gold sashes and carrying swords, heard the academy superintendent, Maj. Gen. James E. Briggs, read a congratulatory letter from President Eisenhower.

Other messages came from acting Defense Secretary Donald A. Quarles, Air Force Secretary James H. Douglas and Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. Thomas H. White.

Twelve cadets collapsed in ranks because of the 85 degree heat. One of them fainted three times but all revived in time to participate in the final review.

Nearly all grain futures contracts were thrown for fairly sharp losses most of today on the Board of Trade. Plus sign in the list during most of the trading. Other corn deliveries were off about a cent or more a bushel. The old March was off more than two cents at times.

The support for September corn was mainly in short covering.

Dealers said the liquidation appeared to be related to the absence of any worsening developments in the fighting between the Chinese Communists and Nationalists.

Carlot grain receipts in Chicago were estimated at: wheat 104 cars, corn 508, oats 50, rye 3, barley 40 and soybeans 2.

Most of the losses were trimmed in the final few minutes of trading, and September wheat climbed to the plus side.

At the finish, wheat was 1/4 cent a bushel higher to 1 1/2 lower, September 1.56 1/2; corn 1/4 higher to 1 cent lower, September 1.25 1/2; oats unchanged to 1/4 lower, September 61 1/2-1/4; rye 1-1 1/2 lower, September 1.24 1/2; soybeans 1/4-1/2 lower, September 22 1/2-1/4; soybean meal 2 1/2-3 cents a hundred pounds higher to 5 cents lower, September 112.00-85.

Nevada Casts Primary Vote

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Nevadans are casting primary election ballots today, but only Democrats are deciding important races.

The top Republicans, Sen. George Malone and Gov. Charles Russell, are unopposed.

Financier E. L. Cord, who is not a candidate, has been an issue among Democrats.

The 63-year-old Cord, known mainly for the automobiles he built in the 1920s, convinced associates that this is a Democratic year and that Nevada needs a businesslike government.

But he refused to run for governor, giving his support to Atty. Gen. Harvey Dickerson.

Dickerson's opponents are George Franklin and Grant Sawyer, who have criticized him as a hand-picked candidate of Cord.

Dickerson campaigned on a promise to bring Nevada natural gas and more industry.

Dr. Fred Anderson and Howard Cannon are seeking the senatorial nomination and Cord's name has figured in that race too. Cannon's opponents say he is financed by Cord, who previously helped finance Malone.

America Ahead Of Russia, Says Defense Secretary

CHICAGO (AP) — The United States is ahead of the Soviet Union in overall military strength, says Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy. He asserted this country and its allies are strong enough to win either a general or limited war.

McElroy, in a speech to the national commander's dinner at the American Legion's annual convention Tuesday night, also spoke out against increased spending now on the long-range ballistic missile program, saying more spending now "would be an unwarranted risk of your money."

He took issue with those he described as oracles who predict the United States will be unable to match Soviet military strength in the years ahead.

He said he and President Eisenhower both have "the utmost confidence that the United States has both the capability and the determination to keep a gap in overall comparative military strength from opening. I said keep it from opening because it does not now exist."

Red Defector Wins Thrill

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A former Polish flier who won worldwide acclaim by landing a Soviet fighter plane in the free world calls his naturalization as an American citizen the greatest thrill of his life.

Frank E. Jarecki, 27, onetime lieutenant in the Soviet-dominated Polish air force, was among 19 persons who became citizens in a brief ceremony here Tuesday.

Jarecki, who lives in the little western Pennsylvania village of Reno, near Oil City, became an international figure March 5, 1953. On that day, coinciding with the death of Stalin, Jarecki took a Soviet MIG-15 on a flight to freedom from near Warsaw to the Danish island of Bornholm.

Doctor Outlines Plans For Huge Medical Meet

By KINGSBURY SMITH

United Press International

ISCHIA, Italy (UPI) — Plans for one of the greatest inter-American conferences in the history of the western hemisphere were outlined today by Dr. Joseph J. Ellner, director general of the Pan-American Medical Association.

In an exclusive interview with United Press International, the noted American skin specialist who has been active for 30 years in fostering closer relations among the medical professions of the American Hemisphere said the congress will be held in Mexico City in October or next March.

"It was originally planned to hold the congress from Oct. 19th to Oct. 31st," Dr. Ellner added. "However, there have been some suggestions that it be postponed until March to give more time for preparations. A decision will be reached soon as to whether it will be held in October or March."

Enjoying a brief vacation visit to this picturesque island in the Bay of Naples, Dr. Ellner told me that one of the highlights of the Pan-American Medical Congress will be the announcement of approximately one million dollars worth of postgraduate medical scholarships to be distributed among the 22 American nations.

Dr. Ellner expects that the scholarships will be announced by the president of Mexico, whom he has invited to open the congress.

"It is the hope of our association that through medical statesmanship we may be able to strengthen the bonds of unity and good relations among the nations of the western hemisphere," he said.

Explaining that the scientific program of the congress, through its 46 different medical sections, will include all branches of medicine and surgery, Dr. Ellner said there will be a section devoted to "space medicine."

"The congress will have scientific and commercial exhibits, panels on special subjects, medical motion pictures and closed-circuit television demonstrations of surgical and dental techniques," he added.

"In addition to space medicine, the new sections will include a large one on general medical practice. The 13 special panels will include: 'Pharmacology and New Drugs'; 'Mental Diseases'; 'Nutrition'; 'Relationship of Dentistry to Medicine'; 'Cancer Research'; 'Sudden Deaths'; and 'Medical Press Relations.'

"We are now preparing in New York over 550,000 letters of invitation to be mailed to every physician and dentist in the western hemisphere. Also to 30,000 selected pharmacists, nutrition workers, public health workers, and some biochemists, as well as to 6,000 commercial companies doing business in the western hemisphere."

"These letters, in English, Spanish or Portuguese, will be sent to the stationery of each of the 46 medical sections and signed by the section president as a personal invitation from a leader in his specialty to the other specialists in his field."

Rescue Party Saves Girl From Perils Of Mountain

LONGMIRE, Wash. (AP) — A made his way down the crevasse-cracked slopes Tuesday to report her plight and rescue efforts began immediately.

A Navy crew from the Sand Point Naval Air Station in Seattle dropped two loads of survival equipment near the center of the Rainier crater and two rescue parties were dispatched from here.

The first reached Miss Nutley late Wednesday night and the second arrived early Thursday morning.

Miss Nutley and Schuster began the climb Sunday accompanied by Lewis Ulrich and Alex Maxwell, also of Yakima. The other two descended while Schuster and the girl continued. They reached the summit Monday and spent the night in the steam caves there after Miss Nutley became ill.

The rescue party left the top of the mountain about 5 a. m. and expected to reach Paradise in the early afternoon. Horses and men were sent from Paradise to meet the mountaineers at Camp Muir, a resting station high up the slopes of the mountain.

Schuster left Miss Nutley as much clothing as he could spare, since temperatures at the summit sometimes drop to zero at this time of year.

Both Schuster and Miss Nutley are experienced climbers and Chief Ranger Al Rose said the girl had conquered Mt. Rainier once before.

Radical 'Sons Of Freedom' Planning Move To Soviet

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — The radical Sons of Freedom Doukhobors who have written a 50-year history of violence and terrorism in British Columbia, Tuesday night all but gave the final approval to a proposed mass move to the Soviet Union.

In a 600-word telegram to Soviet President Klementi E. Voroshilov, Bill Mooljelsky said the Sons of Freedom had decided to accept in principle a Canada-British Columbia offer to foot the bill for relocation of the sons in the Soviet Union.

The bill, according to reliable but unofficial estimates, will come to about two million dollars.

Mooljelsky, who said he was speaking for the 2,668 persons he said have already signed up for relocation, asked that the Soviet Union assure the Canadian government that they would be accepted in the U.S.S.R.

Mooljelsky asked that the SFD members be settled in the Omsk and Altai regions of Soviet Siberia "or in any other place historically designated and suitable for Doukhobors."

The Doukhobors fled Russia at the turn of the century under the pressure of czarist persecution.

Settling in interior British Columbia, the majority quickly accepted Canadian law and adjusted their lives accordingly.

Not so the Sons of Freedom. They refused to bend before Canadian law and they refused to send their children to public schools.

One of their most spectacular methods of flaunting their contempt for Canadian law was the nude parade, participated in by men, women and children alike.

CHICAGO (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman said today the Soviet Union apparently is preparing for war, has been since 1945, and "the danger we face today is a very real one."

Truman said the United States trails the Soviet Union in arms and missiles and "for the first time in science we are behind."

In this missile age, he added, the United States faces "a very real crisis."

He said there never has been a break in Soviet military preparations since the Allied victory over the axis in 1945. At the same time, he said, American armed forces were reduced. This, he added, was "a grave mistake."
