A FALL WEDDING is planned by Mary Anne Leavitt when she will exchange vows with Frank L. Silva. Mary Anne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt, longtime residents of Langell Valley. Her future husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Silva, Ferndale, California. He has just completed four years of service in the U.S. Navy.

Garden Setting For Montague Rites

MONTAGUE—The lovely garden at the home of the bride's parents in Montague was the setting of the August 2 wedding of Carol Davis, Sacramento, and Robert

Eugene Downing, also of Sacramento.

The double ring afternoon ceremony was read by the Rev. R. L. Sanford, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Yreka, before a rose-covered archway, centered with wedding bells.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-skirted ballerina length gown of white cotton lace over white taffeta, styled with a snug fitting bodice, square neckline and cap sleeves. Her finger tip veil of illusion was held in place with a crown of tiny white velvet roses. Her jewelry consisted of a pearl necklace and matching earrings. Her wedding bouquet of white carnations was centered on a white lace-covered Bible.

Diane Farrington of Callahan was maid of honor and she chose a ballerina length dress of pink dotted Swiss, fashioned with a full skirt, fitted bodice, square neckline and cap sleeves. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Vernon Starr of Elina, brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man. Registering the guests was the bride's sister, Mrs. Vernon Starr.

At the reception, which was also held in the garden, the guests were informally seated at small tables. A centerpiece of three intertwined wedding bells of silver and gold sequins, fashioned by the bride's mother, centered the bride's table. The four-tiered wedding cake had also been made and decorated by Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Allen, Yreka, served the cake. Other assistants were Daphne Gardner, Los Angeles, another sister of the bride, and Mrs. Davis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Davis chose a two-piece orchid and white ensemble with which she wore white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Downing of Illinois, who were unable to be present for their son's wedding.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Coulter, Oakland and grandsons, Mel and Jasper Winnie of San Rafael. Another sister of the bride, Nadine Gardner, was unable to be present as she is traveling in Europe this summer.

The new Mrs. Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Davis, Montague, is a graduate of the Elina High School. The bridegroom is stationed with the Air Force at Mather Field, Sacramento.

SUMMERTIME VISITORS have been the two daughters of Maurice Miller, Bonnie Maurine, 12, at the left, and Marilyn Kaye, 16, of Portland, where they make their home during the school year with their mother, Mrs. Betty E. Dye. Marilyn, in addition to attending classes at David Douglas High School where she is a junior, models for a West Coast sportswear firm. Bonnie, a seventh grader, attends South Powellhurst Elementary School.

APPLES OF GRANDPA'S eye are these twin grandsons, Ralph, left, and Richard, sons of S.Sgt. and Mrs. Richard L. Merideth, March Air Force Base. The 9-month-old cherubs live at Colton, California, nearby the base. They are the first children in the family. Their father is the only son of Jack Merideth, 1421 Oregon Avenue, who has lived in Klamath Falls for 39 years.

WEE AND WINSOME is 1-year-old Janna Christine, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Pitcher, 2045 Garden Street, this city, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Dora Pitcher, 2130 Wantland, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hoerth, 1767 Ivory, Klamath Falls.
