St. Michael's Episcopal Church Chosen For Vows

ALTURAS — Suzanne Jane Williams and George Edward Franzman were married in St. Michael's Episcopal Church on Sunday afternoon, August 24. The service was read by Dr. H. N. Tragitt Jr., who returned to Alturas from his home in Bishop for the occasion.

White chrysanthemums and tall white tapers at the altar provided an attractive setting for the double ring ceremony.

Organ selections of wedding music were played by Mrs. Arnold Hironymous, cousin of the bride, who also accompanied Mary Franzman, sister of the bridegroom, for two violin solos.

Mark and Jeffrey Vasko, twins, lighted the candles.

Suzanne wore a gown of heavy white tulle with a close fitting bodice and bouffant skirt with a sweep train. The sabrina neckline of the bodice was bordered by alencon lace embroidered in seed pearls and sequins. The sleeves were wrist length. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book with a shaver bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

She approached the altar with her stepfather, Loring White, who with her mother, gave her in marriage.

Mrs. William Golden of Redding, Shasta County, as matron of honor for her sister, wore a waltz length gown of white faille tulle with a blue and pink print of field flowers. The skirt was full and draped at the hem line. A wide blue cummerbund ended in a sash at the back. Her headpiece was a wide flat bow of matching velvet ribbon with a short blue veil. She carried a bouquet of pink rose buds and delphinium.

Joan Strand and Peggy Wood, sorority sisters of the bride, wore identical gowns to that of the matron of honor and carried similar bouquets.

Glenda Golden, niece of the bride, wore a bouffant skirted frock of pale blue organza with matching slippers as she carried a flower basket filled with white daisy chrysanthemums. A velvet wreath in her hair was dotted with tiny flowers and butterflies.

Raymond Remy, fraternity brother of the groom, acted as best man. The ushers included his young brother, John Franzman, Ron Stark and Don Weber.

Mrs. White's afternoon frock was of blue and green printed chiffon with green net hat and accessories.

THE BETROTHAL of Nancy Wesley to Jan Cox was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wesley, 236 Nevada Avenue. The bride-elect is a junior at Klamath Union High School. The bridegroom-to-be, a 1958 KUHHS graduate, is now completing his basic training at the U.S. Naval Training Center in San Diego. A late September wedding is planned.

St. Barnabas Guild Meets

BONANZA — The guild of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church of Langell Valley met at the home of Mrs. Reg Thomas of Bonanza on Thursday afternoon, August 28, with president Margaret Anne Whillach presiding.

The members discussed the luncheon they will give the garden club convention in September and made plans for the fall bazaar.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mike Dearborn in Langell Valley on September 25. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Thomas to Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Whillach, Mrs. Luther Noble, Mrs. Bill Bechhold, Jenny Hunt, Mrs. Merrill Stewart, Mrs. Lloyd Gift and Mrs. Art Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Riggs of Reno were attendants. The bride wore a white dress with gold embroidery and white accessories.

Owsley came to Fort Rock in December from Williams Lake, British Columbia, where he was in the cattle business. Mrs. Heimmyer moved to Fort

Rebekah Official Visits Home Lodge

DUNSMUIR — Mildred Lockart, district deputy president of District 69, Rebekah Lodge, was welcomed by her home lodge, Oriole Rebekah, No. 217, of Dunsmuir on the occasion of her official visit on the evening of August 22.

The president's theme was explained to those assembled by Mrs. Lockart. In keeping with the motto, "With Love, Serve," Mrs. Frannie Speckert of Marysville, state president, has with the grand master, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, chosen development of a youth camp as her year's project.

The camp is to be located near Sonoma in the Odd Fellow Sierra Recreation Park and will be available to underprivileged and physically handicapped children as well as IOOF and Rebekah youngsters, Mrs. Lockart said.

The official visit was a formal affair and Mrs. Lockart was presented by Amanda Cook, also of Dunsmuir, district deputy marshal.

Mrs. Harry Marsh, a 50-year member of Oriole Lodge, was a special participant. She arranged the flowers for Mrs. Lockart's bouquet and planned the appreciative presentation. A blue and pink "money tree" was presented the honored official with appropriate verse.

Refreshments were served which concluded the evening.

A special program to be presented by the Yreka Rebekah Lodge on the evening of September 12 is the next event on the lodge calendar.

A recent summer event in Dunsmuir was the school of instruction conducted by Mrs. Speckert when all the lodges in District 69 participated with exemplary demonstrations of the lodge ceremonies.

Others were Mrs. Sarah Michael, Mrs. Anna Meiers, Mrs. Richard Brown and daughters, Mrs. L. V. Haskins, Diana Martyr, Mrs. Nelson Wood, and Teddy, Mrs. Elena Moore, Mrs. Keith Rice and children, Mrs. Fred Rueck and Mary and Tommy Drew.
