CLUB ON TOUR

MONTAGUE—The various flower gardens in Montague and Little Shasta produced a show of color and warmth when members of the Shasta Valley Garden Club participated in the tour conducted Friday morning and afternoon, September 5. Natural arrangements of flowers were blooming in all the gardens. Bouquets of petunias, dahlias, zinnias, marigolds, phlox, gladioli, roses and carnations, with the added attraction of various types of shrubs highlighted most of the gardens, visited by the 21 members of the club.

Solon Given Klamath Pens

The White House has sent to Sen. Richard L. Neuberger both pens with which President Eisenhower signed into law on August 23 the Klamath Indian Reservation Purchase Bill, which the Oregon Senator sponsored in the Senate at the request of the national administration.

Neuberger announced today that groups which he feels "will preserve them in perpetuity for the people of our state and of the Klamath Basin."

One pen, the Senator said, will go to the Oregon Historical Society and the other to the Klamath County Library. Neuberger will formally present the pens at a dinner in his honor, now scheduled to be held in Klamath Falls on October 8.

So that there might be pens of this momentous significance available both for the State Historical Society and the Klamath Library, Neuberger explained that he had asked the White House in advance if it would be possible for the President to use one pen for the writing of "Dwight D." and another for the writing of "Eisenhower," when he formally enacted the Klamath bill, with its 90 million dollar authorization for purchase of the vast tribal pine forest and waterfowl marshlands.

Neuberger said that the White House had cooperated "most thoroughly" with his request. "The Klamath purchase bill is a milestone on the highroad of conservation," the Oregon Senator added, "and it will mean much to the people of our state, for years ahead, to have in permanent public custodianship the pens with which this legislation was translated into the law of the land."

BUT NO FLOWER BULBS
LONDON (UPI)—Charles Dawson, digging in his garden, came up with:

An old gas stove, 163 beer bottles, a cistern, a sewing machine, a klaxon horn, a grass cutter, 12 auto headlamps, several basins, three 60-gallon water tanks, several umbrella frames, a bucket, a fish fryer, 14 pairs of shoes, a toy pistol, dishes, cutlery, jam jars, four large oil drums and a chair.

The group gathered at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Ernest Lilly in Montague, who has thousands of flowers of every variety and color that grow well in the area. Other gardens visited were those of Mrs. Fred J. Mitchell, Montague; Mrs. Aldeo Davis and Mrs. E. Orlo Davis, concluding at the garden and home of the president of the club, Terwilliger's, who assisted by her daughter served coffee, tea and of the latter being located in Little Shasta.

Members all had carried sack lunches which they enjoyed at Mrs. Terwilliger's, who assisted by her daughter served coffee, tea and lemonade.

A short business meeting followed at which time it was announced that a district meeting of the Cascade District, 88 California Garden Clubs, Inc., will be held at Susanville, California on September 24.

Those participating in the tour in addition to the previously mentioned were Mrs. Stanley Cooley, Mrs. Harold Cooney, Mrs. Margaret Davis, Mrs. Hugh French, Mrs. E. R. Hansen, Mrs. Laird Johnson, Mrs. L. O. Kouts, Mrs. Ralph Leavers, Mrs. Morris L. Prather, Mrs. M. T. Robinson, Mrs. W. S. Swigart Jr., and daughter, Mrs. A. J. Sylva, Mrs. A. R. Sylva, Mrs. O. A. Selby, Mrs. James Simmons, Mrs. Keith Severns and Mrs. S. F. Terwilliger. Also present was Vanita Walters, daughter of Mrs. Larry Walters.

The next meeting of the Shasta Valley Garden Club will feature a plant sale, each member to bring a plant to be sold. The meeting will be held on October 3, at the home of Mrs. S. F. Terwilliger at Little Shasta, with Mrs. James M. Dow as co-hostess.

RURAL ART

COLUMBUS, Ind. (AP)—A farmer near here finally agreed to let Mrs. William Menke paint his barn—but he has reservations about it. The 26-year-old housewife and amateur artist said she'll paint the barn with "an abstract, whimsical farm scene" and the owner isn't quite sure just what she means.

LANGELL VALLEY
The Langell Valley Home Extension Unit met September 10 at the home of Mary Noble. Carolyn Dearborn and Beverly Roberts were project leaders on a camp cookery.

FLEET BUILDUP

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Britain is strengthening her Far East fleet with commando carriers because of the Quemoy situation, the first lord of the admiralty, Earl of Selkirk, said today. "From such carriers trained commandos are capable of landing anywhere by helicopter," Selkirk added.

SCOUT NEWS

BOY SCOUT TROOP 9
How best to introduce teal to the public was the main business at the September meeting of the Troop 9 auxiliary. Teasel which has been gathered and painted is to be offered for sale by the scouts to be used in winter bouquets, and some has been made into wall decorations.
The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Jean Brown. The other new officers and committee chairmen for the year are Irene Pennington, vice president; Edna Clawson, secretary-treasurer; Violet Phillips and Donna Brown, courtesy committee; Goldie McClurg and Dorothy Hoppe, social activities committee; Leigh Fenning, sunshine committee; Violet Matick, publicity committee; and Irene Charas, uniform committee.
Hostesses for the evening were Donna Brown and Leigh Fenning. The next meeting will be October 6, at the home of Violet Phillips.

Lumber Workers Okay Health Plan

DORRIS — Employees of Dorris Associated Lumber and Box Company voted 38 to two to accept the company's proposal of $15 per month health and welfare benefits, effective next April on the March payroll basis.
Ed Viets, local president, states that it is a conservative estimate of eight and one half cents per hour. If a member is laid off, benefits will be paid for two months.
Associated Lumber and Box Company employs approximately 125 men.

REASON ENOUGH

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Why, Billy Riley was asked, was his hand engaged in a two-day marathon?
"Because, Riley frankly admitted, 'we need the publicity.'"
