

Fall Brings Variety Of News To The Basin

MRS. MARK HATFIELD, left, and Mrs. Ronald Carter are served by Mrs. Robert Kent who was hostess at her home Wednesday, September 10, to a small informal morning coffee honoring Mrs. Hatfield. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Reuben Larson invited a group of friends to her home on Anderson Avenue to meet Mrs. Hatfield. Mrs. Hatfield accompanied her husband, Secretary of State Mark O. Hatfield to Klamath Falls.

SOCIETY

Herald and News
September 21, 1958

Klamath Falls
Oregon

ENJOYING THE HOSPITALITY of the immobile hunter, left to right, are Mrs. James Noel, Mrs. George Brosterhaus, Mrs. Otto Ellis pouring coffee for Mrs. Clark Good and Mrs. Don Robin. Standing left of the host Mrs. Ronald Carter and Mrs. Tony Molatore, right. Scene of the camp was the Reames clubhouse Saturday, September 13, when women of the club entertained at their annual party. Gaily painted deer and other forest creatures watched from behind evergreens as the guests enjoyed the steak dinner and music of the Starlighters. — Photo by Otto Ellis

A FORMER RESIDENT, Peter Robinson, has been a guest at the Dick Reeder home on Washington Street awaiting the opening of fall term at the University of Oregon where he will enroll as a freshman in architecture. Peter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Robinson now living in Cleveland, Tennessee, where Mr. Robinson is manager of the fiberboard mill of Bowaters Southern Paper Company. Peter's sister, Sandra, attends Sullins College in Bristol, Virginia. Young Kathy and Debbie are at home with their parents. Mr. Robinson was manager of the Weyerhaeuser hardboard plant when the family resided in Klamath Falls. — Photo by Otto Ellis

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT FRANCIS WATSON
— Photo by Dutremaine, Haverstraw, New York

Janice Dehlia Moser Weds Robert Francis Watson In Stony Point, New York

The garden of the Gilmor Sloane in reembodyed Alencon lace. A matching lace scoop cap held the beautiful setting for the three tiered veil. She carried a white Bible covered with glameilla and a white gardenia corsage and Robert Francis Watson August and stephanosis. Mrs. Watson chose a mauve dress with matching accessories and a corsage of baby pink roses. The matron of honor was Mrs. David T. Watson, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, of New Brunswick, Maine. She wore a gold silk linen dress and carried a cascade of gold carnations. The bridesmaids were Minna Sue Watson, sister of the bridegroom, of Los Angeles and Allison Swager, classmate of the bride at the College of Wooster, of Buffalo, New York. They wore blue silk linen dresses and carried cascades of blue carnations. The flower girls were Kathy Smith and Tracey Alpert, niece of the bride. They wore blue organdy dresses and carried small baskets of garden flowers. The bride wore the wedding dress of her sister, Barbara, now Mrs. Maurice Alpert of New Rochelle, New York. The gown of Skinner satin featured a floor length skirt falling gracefully from a fitted hip-line. The empire bodice was traced

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Moser wore a flowered chiffon afternoon dress with white accessories. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, longtime residents of Klamath Falls. Her mother is the former Edna Dunbar. The bride is a niece of Mrs. Charles L. Moore of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Alvin Macartney of Redding and Mrs. George Kinney of San Bernardino, California, are cousins.

The Rev. Luther M. Hollister of Stony Point and Dr. John C. Corbin of Summit, New Jersey, officiated at the double ring ceremony at which the bride and bridegroom repeated their vows from memory. Mrs. Helen Fisk Hollister played the wedding music on a small organ given to the Presbyterian Sunday school by the Misses Gilmor many years ago.

The bride wore the wedding dress of her sister, Barbara, now Mrs. Maurice Alpert of New Rochelle, New York. The gown of Skinner satin featured a floor length skirt falling gracefully from a fitted hip-line. The empire bodice was traced

BETSY BRAMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Braman, former residents of Klamath Falls, has returned from a summer abroad to make her home with Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Robinson, 841 Pacific Terrace. Her parents are now living in Iran where Mr. Braman is with the George Fry Construction Company. Betsy and her mother visited the World's Fair in Brussels and spent some time in Finland and Italy before joining Mr. Braman in Iran. On her return trip Betsy visited Bangkok, Hong Kong, Tokyo and Honolulu. She attended Stephens College last year, but will enroll as a sophomore at Oregon State College this fall. — Photo by Otto Ellis

BACK HOME AGAIN is Mrs. Dell Farrar Smith who moved from Klamath County in 1904. Since that time she has lived in Woodland, Richmond, Sacramento and Reno. At the age of six months, she came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Farrar, to Klamath County, where her father took up a homestead near Pine Grove. She was married December 11, 1901 at the home of Louise Humphrey, who resides in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. C. R. DeLap, and has one daughter Jo, who lives in Reno, Nevada. — Photo by Kettler

THE BETROTHAL of pretty Arlene Schneider to Farrell Wilson was recently announced to friends by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stumbaugh of Malin. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson, long-time residents of the Malin area. Arlene is a senior at Malin High School from which Farrell was graduated in June 1958. Both young people are popular members of the younger set of Malin. Farrell is now serving in the U.S. Navy and is stationed at San Diego. No wedding date has been set.