Judith Kay Laird Bride At Church Rites

LAKEVIEW—A well known pioneer family of Lake County was represented when Judith Kay Laird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Laird, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Laird of Lakeview, became the bride of Ronald Eugene Brown at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, August 23, in the First Presbyterian Church in Lakeview. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Brown of Salem.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. Wayne Julier before an altar decorated with pink and white flowers and lighted tapers. Pew decorations were of pine carnations and white satin bows. Organist was Mrs. Herbert Sanderson and soloist, Robert Shotwell. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's gown was of embroidered tulle over satin, with a fitted, long-sleeved bodice. The Sabrina neckline was scalloped and bordered with flowerettes. Two wide front panels of embroidered tulle were edged with scallops to match the neckline, and tiers of tulle, alternating with the embroidered pattern, cascaded from the waistline to form a chapel train of all-around ruffles. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a half-hat of embroidered tulle outlined with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis and a white orchid.

Maid of honor was the bride's cousin, Jolene Banasco of Plush, and bridesmaids were Sharon Taylor of Lakeview and Susan Sheults of Alturas. Their gowns were of bouffant ballerina length white ruffled nylon over mint green. The wide tulle sashes were green and they wore matching headbands and mint green shoes. They carried cascade bouquets of mint green spider chrysanthemums and white roses. Each girl wore a single drop pearl necklace presented to her by the bride and bridegroom.

Beverly and Barbara Morgan of Albany, Oregon, 14-year-old twin cousins of the bride, were flower girls. Another cousin, Mary Morgan, was candlelighter. They wore dresses of mint green and dotted swiss with white shoes and gloves. The flower girls carried baskets of pink and white carnations.

THE BETROTHAL of Artie Naomi Micka to Virgil R. Wells was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Micka of Malin. The bridegroom-to-be is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aldred Wells of Canyon City, Colorado. The young couple met while attending Colorado State College where Virgil is studying agriculture and Artie is majoring in home economics. No date has been set for the wedding.

VENTURE CLUB held its annual open house September 15 at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Slater. Thirty girls were present to enjoy the social evening of cards. Assisting the girls with the affair were Soroptimist sponsors Mrs. A. C. Backes, Ruth Ray, Mrs. George Rogers, Mrs. J. D. Bothwell and Mrs. Emil Albrecht, Soroptimist president. Kathleen Gallagher, president of Venture Club told the prospective members the services of the club which include the Mother's March in the polio drive, cooperation with the celebration council for July 4 activities, and sponsoring an annual card party and style show.
