Anita Lee Vaden Now Mrs. Ray Page

BONANZA — Mt. Laki Church was the setting for the September 6 wedding of Anita Lee Vaden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vaden of Langell Valley, and Ray Sherdell Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Page Sr., Herley, New Mexico.

The church was decorated with blue, pink and white gladioli with blue bows marking the pews. Candelabra held lighted white tapers. The double-ring morning service was read at 10:30 by Rev. Andrew Jarvis.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was lovely in white satin and imported crystalline. The train fell from a bustle bow, tiny buttons were down the back. A finger tip veil of illusion net fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible, a gift from her grandmother. She wore the traditional blue garter and had a lucky penny in her shoe.

Maid of honor Judy Sutherland of Sprague River wore a gown of pale blue brocaded taffeta with a white chiffon bodice, and matching headband. She carried a nosegay bouquet. Mrs. Floyd Page Jr. and Sydne Ketchum were bridesmaids and their dresses were both blue brocaded taffeta with blue tops and matching headbands. They carried pink nosegays. Candles: lighter Janell Daniel, cousin of the bride, was dressed as the other attendants except her dress was pink. Flower girl was Judy Edwards in a white dress with blue sash. Ring bearer was Stephen Merit.

Floyd Page, brother of the bride, was best man and the ushers were Herman Douglas and Edward Graves.

Mrs. Martin Gift was organist and played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Byron Ross and Sherry Crawford who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Both mothers wore gray suits with matching accessories and had pink corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors with the bride's grandmother, Mrs. H. S. Vaden of Klamath Falls, serving the three-tiered wedding cake after the new Mr. and Mrs. Page cut the first piece. The punch was served by the bride's aunt Mrs. Emil Daniel and coffee by Mrs. O'Neil Mosley.

Mrs. Ronald Roberts carried the guest book and Georgia Dudley took care of the gift table.

For going away Anita wore a gray and white semi chemise with pink accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. The young couple honeymooned in California.

They are at home at 300 North 25th Street, Corvallis. He will continue his studies at Oregon State College.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Page of Herley, New Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Page Jr. and Eddie Joe of Williams, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kelley of Myrtle Creek.

A ten-year study of "Videotown" by Cunningham and Walsh, an advertising agency, shows that of all major media, newspaper reading alone remains unchanged by the presence of TV in the home.

MR. AND MRS. Raymond L. Panian of Portland announce the engagement of Mrs. Panian's daughter, Glenda K. Strebig, to Henry A. Mullin. The bride-elect is a graduate of Providence School of Nursing in Portland. Mr. Mullin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mullin, 1420 Sargent Street, Klamath Falls. He is employed by the United States Bureau of Public Roads in Gold Hill. The couple has chosen October 11 as their wedding date. — Logan Martham Photo

MRS. HENRY GRIMES was honor guest at a morning coffee September 13 when her daughter, Mrs. Rex Davis, asked members of the Schoolmates Club to her home on Crescent Avenue. The occasion marked the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Grimes. An arrangement of fall fruits and candelabra made an attractive centerpiece for the coffee table. Gold chrysanthemums were used throughout the rooms. Charles Mack Sr. was an honor guest of the party.

BETHEL NO. 51

Henley Bethel No. 51, International Order of Job's Daughters, met for its first fall meeting Monday evening, September 15, at the Henley Grange Hall with Honored Queen Carolyn Hunt presiding. There was a large attendance both in members and visitors. The Bethel was decorated with fall flowers. The officers were in their new robes and thanks was expressed to the mothers who worked so hard on them during the summer months.

Reports were given on the summer projects, and fall work was briefly outlined. The highlight of the evening was the discussion of the reception to be held after the meeting September 30, when grand guardian, Ione Goodnough will pay her official visit. All friends of the Henley Job's who are eligible to attend the meetings are especially invited to the meeting for the grand guardian. All others are cordially invited to the reception that will follow the meeting.

Robert Dehlinger was presented with the associate guardian's traveling pin to wear during his year in office. The meeting was concluded with a very humorous history report by librarian, Julie Rhodes.

Delicious refreshments were served at the lovely decorated table in the banquet room by the Bethel daughters.

The spring installation pictures were on display, and orders are now being taken. Anyone interested in seeing the proofs please contact honored queen, Carolyn Hunt, or Stella Dehlinger, publicity guardian, as only one order will be turned into Guderian's Studio.
