

Wedding Vows Repeated

ALTURAS — White chrysanthemums and tall white tapers at the altar of the Federated Community Church of Alturas formed a pretty background for the wedding of Jo Ann Elizabeth Schorch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Schorch of Alturas, in a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon, September 7, when she became the bride of Warner Charles Asher, also of Alturas. The Rev. Karl E. Olson officiated.

Jo Ann chose her sister, Roberta, as her maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jolene Caldwell and Yvonne Chandler.

Warner's cousin, Barney Hoyt of Tulelake, was best man, and Marty Young and James Porter were ushers.

The rings were borne by Phillip Strait, nephew of Warner and Shirley Strait, his niece, who came from Sacramento for the occasion. For her altar date, Jo Ann wore a lace and net which was fashioned with a nylon lace bodice with full skirt of tiered lace and net, ballerina in length. Her fingertip veil was attached to a headpiece of seeded pearls. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern.

The bride's attendants wore flower print dotted swiss dresses with full skirts. The maid of honor's dress was pink and the bridesmaids' were lavender. All wore wide brim organdy hats to match their dresses and their sweet pea bouquets matched the colors of their frocks.

Jo Ann entered the sanctuary escorted by her father who gave her away.

A pink silk floral print afternoon frock was worn by the bride's mother. Her accessories were white.

Mrs. Chris Starr, soloist, was accompanied at the organ by the bridegroom's cousin.

Jo Ann has been employed at Judy Realty since her graduation from Modoc Union High School. She is a member of the Alturas Parlor of Native Daughters of the Golden West.

Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Asher of Alturas, is a junior at Sacramento State College, and a member of the 20-30 Club in Alturas.

A reception for over 200 guests was given in the Rose Room of the Hotel Niles, followed by an intimate gathering at the home of the bride's parents at 1518 Park Avenue.

A three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with a bride and bridegroom miniature. After the couple cut the first piece, it was served by Mrs. Ernie Hess and Mrs. Ned McGarva.

Mrs. Don Collis served the punch from a crystal punch bowl. Mrs. David Smith was in charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests included a grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Philip C. Bill of Sonoma; two aunts, Mrs. Philip L. Bill of San Francisco and Mrs. B. Pieczanski of San Anselmo; an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Schorch of San Anselmo; Mrs. Felden Swain of Colusa, and Mrs. Alyce Frick of Reno.

Upon returning from a week's stay at Lake Tahoe, Jo Ann and Warner will be at home in Sacramento.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN MAZZEI were married in the First Lutheran Church in Dunsmuir August 31. The bride is the former Shirley G. Fay, daughter of Ted Fay of Dunsmuir. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mazzei, also of Dunsmuir. The newlyweds are at home in Sacramento where Mrs. Mazzei is employed by the Crocker Anglo Bank and he will continue his studies at Sacramento State College. The story ran in last Sunday's society section.

MRS. SCOTT HARTLEY was honored at a miscellaneous shower at the Bonanza Library August 26 at 8 o'clock. Hostesses for the party were Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Lee Davis, Mrs. Howard Kelleston, Mrs. Bob Ross, Barbara Warner, Mary Ann Leavitt and Nancie Givan. Mrs. Hartley was assisted in opening her gifts by Nancie Givan and Mary Anne Leavitt.

Bouquets of colorful flowers decorated the large room and a wedding cake baked and decorated by Richard Roberts of Bonanza centered the refreshment table.

Mrs. Hartley is the former Jeanine Westman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Westman of Bonanza. She and Scott were married in Reno in July and make their home in Klamath Falls.
