

ALL-AMERICANS TO FACE OWLS — When Oregoc Tech opens its 1958 home football season next Saturday night at Modoc Field, these three former all-Americans will be playing for Hamilton Air Base, the Owls first foe before local fans. Left to right, Jack Losch, a former three-year half-back at the University of Miami and the first draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1956; Tom Mosich, a star guard at Stanford and a veteran of the East-West Shrine game in 1955; Skip Corley, a quarterback who played four years at the University of Arizona and was a member of the 1955 all-American selections. Other gridders who received all-American honors will join these three next Saturday as they visit Klamath Falls.

Pittsburgh Stalls Milwaukee, Oriole Rally Beats Yankees

United Press International — Don't invite Bob Friend and the Milwaukee Braves to the same victory party. Friend made sure there would be no such party for the Braves Friday night when he scored his 22nd victory by pitching the Pirates to a 4-2 triumph over the Phillies.

Reds 7, Braves 1

The Braves could have assured themselves at least a tie for the National League pennant had they beaten the Redlegs. Instead, big Don Newcombe defeated them, 7-1 and left their "magic number" at two.

BoSox 2, Nats 0

Baltimore rallied for five runs in the ninth inning to beat the American League champion Washington, 2-0; Kansas City edged Chicago, 7-6, and Cleveland defeated Detroit, 2-1.

SF 8, Cards 1

Junk-baller Stu Miller of the Giants stopped the Cards on five hits while San Francisco collected 15, including three apiece by Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda.

Bucs 4, Phils 2

Friend limited the Phillies to five hits and recorded his sixth straight victory as he became Pittsburgh's biggest winner since Burrell Grimes won 25 for the Buccaners in 1928.

Bums 5, Cubs 1

Home runs by Ron Fairly and Don Demeter helped Dodger rookie Ralph Mauriello score his first major league victory at the expense of the Cubs.

Birds 5, Yanks 4

Ex-Yankee Gene Woodling came through with a two-run pinch single off Ryne Duren to cap Baltimore's five-run rally. The uprising started when Mickey Mantle dropped Joe Taylor's fly ball for a two-base error and Gus Triandos followed with his 29th homer.

A's 7, ChiSox 6

Nellie Fox' error with two out in the ninth gave the A's their victory over the White Sox, while Cleveland utilized only four singles to beat Detroit.

Tribe 2, Tigers 1

Cleveland 010 000 010—2 4 2 Detroit 000 100 000—1 9 0 McLish, Grant (8) and Nixon, Foytack (13-13) and Wilson. Winner—McLish (16-7). HR—Kuenn.

TROJAN WARRIOR — Larry Jackson, co-captain of the Sacred Heart Academy Trojans, sails through the air from his position at center in a practice session prior to the Trojans trip to St. Mary's in Medford where they dropped a 31-6 decision Friday night. The Trojans face the Malin Mustangs next weekend.

Trojans Smother Favored Beavers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It was a jubilant Trojan of Southern California and a crestfallen Oregon State Beaver who looked forward Saturday to opponents No. 2 of the brand new 1958 football season.

The Trojans scored the first major upset Friday night when they blanked the highly favored Oregon Staters, 21-0.

Most of the 40,286 fans in Memorial Coliseum could hardly believe what they saw. Especially happy was the Trojan coach, young Dan Clark, beginning his second year as headman at his alma mater.

Sports Car Club Forms

A brand new activity on the Klamath Falls sport scene was born August 29 when a group of approximately 30 automobile enthusiasts met at the Robin & Myers British Car sales agency, selected a name, Sports and Imports of Klamath Falls, and elected officers to guide the new club's destiny.

Heading the new association are Glenn Rinehart, president, Charles Johnson, vice president, Wyn Lawrence, secretary-treasurer, and Smitty Smith, sergeant-at-arms.

The club, formed principally for the enjoyment of the members in competition amongst themselves over closed courses against a stop watch, also aims to produce better drivers. The organization is strictly governed by competition rules and club bylaws.

In their most recent outing, the group met on a local parking lot and attracted a great deal of attention from passersby as they raced against time over a course known as an Auto Cross.

Competition in a gymkhana such as this necessitates dividing the cars into classes according to engine displacements. The classes are 1500 cc sedans, 1500 cc sports, under 1500 cc sedans and under 1500 cc sports.

Many of the local club members, veterans of sports-car driving, have competed in sports car rallies up and down the coast and are anxious to see the sport get a foothold in the Klamath Falls area.

The next scheduled rally is set for September 28 when the club will form at the Robin & Myers agency where they will be handed sealed instructions as to their assignments in the day's activity.

Bonanza Antlers Net 1st Conference Win

By JOHN NOLEN Herald and News Sportswriter Coach Erv Ellis's Bonanza Antlers scored their first league win of the season Friday night at Gem Stadium by trouncing the Talent Bulldogs, 37-0.

The Antlers were paced by the fine running of halfback Dan Nork. Nork tallied twice, both runs going around right end. The 170 lb. senior scored early in the first period on a 48 yard scamper and halfway through the second on a 74 yard sprint.

Bonanza's other two first half touchdowns were registered when fullback Gary Atwood raved around right end from 30 yards out and halfback Gary Dayley plunged over from the three yard line.

Neither team scored in the third quarter as the Bulldogs switched from a straight T to a single wing. They kept the ball deep in Antler territory although never scoring.

On the last play of the quarter, lefttender Atwood threw a strike to end Chester Schooler on the 10 yard line. He play good for 37 yards. Two plays later quarterback Jim O'Conner hit his brother, Albert O'Conner, with an eight yard jump pass good for the TD. Atwood plunged over for Bonanza's only extra point.

Bonanza's final touchdown came with 41 seconds left in the game when end Schooler scored on a reverse from three yards out.

Tom Morris, Antler right tackle, was injured late in the fourth quarter while making a tackle. Morris was taken to the hospital for observation and kept there overnight. It was believed that he was not seriously injured.

The powerful Antlers piled up 327 total yards and seven first downs to Talent's 93 total yards and four first downs.

Score by quarters: Bonanza 18 6 0 13—37 Talent 0 0 0 0—0 Scoring for Bonanza: touchdowns—Nork 2 (48 yd run—74 yd run) Atwood (30 yd run) Dayley (3 yd plunge) Albert O'Conner (8 yd pass from Jim O'Conner) Schooler (3 yd run) Conversions—Atwood (run). Scoring for Talent: Touchdowns. Conversions—none.
